II. And to the End that no Part of the Salt delivered into the sole Custody of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, or of his or their Agent or Agents, or by them to any other Persons, for the curing of Fish for Exportation only, during the said several fishing Seasons, may be sold, given away or otherwise delivered or used, directly or indirectly, but for the Purpose aforesaid; and to obviate the Frauds which the publick Revenue would otherwise be exposed to by the present Relaxation of the former Laws and the Indulgence intended hereby to the fair Trader: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Bushel of Salt so taken out of the Cellars or Salt-works, which shall not be accounted for in the Manner above-mentioned, by the Oaths of the Persons and proper Certificates, or by Certificate from the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions, that Proof was there made that such Salt was put on board any Boat or Vessel for curing of Fish at Sea, and was there taken by Enemies or otherwise lost or perished at Sea, or shall not be returned into or found remaining at the End of every fishing Season in the Cellars or Warehouses as aforesaid, the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, his or their Agent or Agents who took out the same, or the Person or Persons to whom the same or any Part thereof was delivered for curing of Fish as aforesaid, shall respectively, according to each of their respective Quantities with which they stand accountable, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings; and every such Person selling, giving away, using or delivering any such Salt, or consenting or being any Ways privy to the selling, giving away, using or delivering such Salt, directly or indirectly, otherwise than for the Purposes aforesaid, shall forfeit, pay and undergo the Penalties and Punishments herein after-mentioned; that is to say, every Proprietor of such Salt, or his Agent, for every Bushel of such Salt so sold, given away, used or delivered, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings; one third Part thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Remainder thereof to such Person that shall inform or sue for the same; and every other Person buying, taking or using any such Salt, otherwise than for the Purposes aforesaid and in the Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Bushel of Salt so bought, delivered or used, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; one third Part thereof for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Remainder thereof to such Person or Persons that shall inform or sue for the same: Which said Sums or Penalties shall be levied in such Manner as other Penalties herein after-mentioned are to be levied; or in Default of Payment of such Sums, within fourteen Days after Conviction of such Crime, and where no sufficient Effects can be found to answer the same, the Person or Persons so offending shall be sent to the House of Correction, there to be whipp'd, and kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months.

Every Bushel of Salt taken out of the Cellars, and not accounted for, forfeits 20 s.

Such Salt sold, given away, used or bought, otherwise than for curing Fish, forfeits 20 s. the Bushel.

In Default of Payment Offender to be sent to the House of Correction.

III. And for preventing the imbezilling of Salt lodged under the Lock and Key of the Officer and Proprietors during the Intervals of the respective fishing Seasons; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Bushel of such Salt so lodged, which shall either be carried away or shall be found wanting at the Re-delivering thereof into the sole Custody of the Proprietors, reasonable Allowances for the Waste of such Salt being first made, the said Proprietor or Proprietors shall forfeit twenty Shillings.

Salt wanting at Re-delivering forfeits 20 s. the Bushel.

IV. And for preventing any Frauds, Imbezillments or Misapplication of any foreign Salt after it is imported or landed, and before it is cellared and stored up under the joint Custody of the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties for curing of Fish for Exportation as aforesaid, and of any British Salt after its being weighed and taken away from the Salt-works or Salt-pits of Great Britain, and before it is stored and locked up by the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties for curing of Fish for Exportation, as before-mentioned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons who, from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall take away, imbezill or misapply any foreign Salt after the Importation or Landing thereof, and before it is cellared and stored up for the curing of Fish as above-mentioned, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Bushel of foreign Salt so taken away, imbezilled or misapplied, reckoning such foreign Salt at eighty and four Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Quantity; and any Person or Persons who, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall take away, imbezill or misapply any British Salt after it is weighed at and carried from any Salt-work or Salt-pit in Great Britain, and before it is brought unto and locked up in any Cellar or Storehouse by the Proprietor and the Officer for the Salt-Duties, for the curing of Fish, as directed by this Act, every such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every Bushel of British Salt so taken away, imbezilled or misapplied, reckoning such British Salt at fifty and six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Quantity.

Foreign Salt imbezilled after Importation and before Cellaring, forfeits 20 s. the Bushel, at 84 lb. to the Bushel.

British Salt imbezilled forfeits 10 s. the Bushel, at 56 lb. to the Bushel.

V. And whereas considerable Quantities of foreign and British Salt, as also some Quantities of Salt which has already been laid on Fish, and returned unconsumed, designed for the curing of Fish, the Duties whereof are paid or secured to be paid, are in the Hands of several Persons, Dealers in Fish, which Quantities of Salt ought to be returned under the Lock and Key of the Officers of the Duties on Salt in England and the Officers of the Customs in Scotland, and the Duties thereof repaid, or the Security given vacated and discharged: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such foreign and British Salt, as also such Quantities of Salt which have already been laid on Fish and returned unconsumed, remaining in the proper Custody of any Person or Persons, the Duties whereof have been paid or secured in England on or before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and in Scotland on or before the first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, shall be again put under the Lock and Key of the Salt-Officers in England and of the Custom-house Officers in Scotland respectively, on or before the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, by delivering to them Keys of all the Cellars wherein such Salt is lodged and cellared, and thereupon weighing the same in the Presence of the said Officers with all convenient Diligence and without Delay; and upon a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at the Port within the Precinct whereof such Salt is lodged or cellared as aforesaid, and verified by the proper Officer as to the Quantity of Salt actually cellared, the Security given for the Duties of the said Salt shall be vacated and discharged, or the Duties repaid by the said Collector, if in Scotland, or by the Officers of the Duties on Salt, if in England, out of the Monies in their Hands arising from the said Duties, so as it appears by the Salt or Custom-house Books, that the Salt was imported or delivered on or before the first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighteen in Scotland, or on or before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and (a) eighteen in England; and that the Duties thereof were paid or secured to be paid; and that the Proprietor of the Salt, or his Agent, make Oath, that this is the same Salt that was so imported or delivered; and in case there is not Money in their Hands sufficient to discharge the said Debentures, then and in that Case, upon a Certificate thereof to be given gratis, the said Debentures for Salt cellared in England shall be paid by the Commissioners for the Duties on Salt; and the said Debentures for Salt cellared in Scotland shall be paid by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland, at the Option of the Merchant, in the same Manner as Debentures for Fish exported are now by Law made payable.

VI. And for the better Encouragement of the Fishing-Trade of Great Britain, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all such Fish hereafter mentioned as shall be exported from any Port or Place in Great Britain into Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, the Rates or Sums of Money hereafter expressed, that is to say, for every Cask or Kessel of Pilchards or Scads, containing fifty Gallons, seven Shillings; for every Hundred of Codfish, Ling or Hake, (except dried Codfish, Ling or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall contain in Length fourteen Inches, or upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the third Joint in the Tail of every such Fish, five Shillings; for every Barrel of wet Codfish, Ling or Hake, containing thirty-two Gallons, two Shillings; for every hundred Weight of dried Codfish, Ling or Hake, commonly called Haberdines, three Shillings; for every Barrel of Salmon, containing forty-two Gallons, four Shillings and six Pence; for every Barrel of white Herrings, containing thirty-two Gallons, two Shillings and eight Pence; for every Barrel of full red Herrings, containing thirty-two Gallons, one Shilling and nine Pence; for every Barrel of clean Hotten red Herrings, containing thirty-two Gallons, one Shilling; for every Last of dried red Sprats, one Shilling; and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity of all and every the said Kinds of Fish, shall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties on Salt in the same Port from whence any such Fish shall be exported, within thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs in the Port where such Fish shall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Fish actually shipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the Principal Officers of the said Port before the Debenture be allowed (who are hereby required and empowered to give the said Oath) That the Fish in such Debenture mentioned were British taken, and really exported to or for Parts beyond the Seas, and not re-landed, or intended to be re-landed in Great Britain, for which Debenture no Fee or Reward shall be taken; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the Principal Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Salt for the Time being, shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in Course out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the said Duties upon Salt; and the said Debentures for Fish exported from Scotland, shall be paid by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland at the Option of the Merchant, in the same Manner as Debentures for Fish exported are now by Law made payable; and any Officer neglecting or refusing to pay the said Money, or to give such Certificate as is here directed, shall forfeit double the Sum so to be paid, to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off Part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake, to the Intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling or Hake hath been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be re-landed or re-imported; and also that it shall be lawful, upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, white Herrings, red Herrings, Salmon, or dried red Sprats, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel, or other Kessel, wherein any such Pilchards, Scads, white Herrings, red Herrings, Salmon, or dried red Sprats, shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Pilchards, Scads, white Herrings, red Herrings, Salmon, or dried red Sprats, have been exported, and Allowance obtained on Exportation of the same, in case the same be re-landed or re-imported; and that in case any Codfish, Ling or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, white Herrings, red Herrings, Salmon, or dried red Sprats, shall (after the same shall be exported) be fraudulently re-landed in Great Britain, or re-imported, all the said Fish so re-landed or re-imported, shall be forfeited and lost, lost, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, and that no Allowance shall be paid out of the said Duties on Salt for or on Account of the Exportation of any Fish that shall not be well cured, or shall be unmerchable.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, at all Times when Fish are Curing, Bulking or Packing, and at all other Times, in the Day (or in the Night in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace) to enter and come into the Cellars and Warehouses of all Curers of Fish, to view and inspect them, during the Time of their curing Fish; and to gauge the Salt when they shall think it necessary for the discovering of any Frauds; and to mark the Casks wherein the Fish are put up for Exportation, and to see them exported; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in the Performance of their Duties aforesaid, then and in every such Case, the Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Fish entitled by Law to any Premium or Allowance upon Exportation thereof, shall be laden for Exportation, and duly entered and pass by the proper Officer, at any Time after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and the said Fish shall be lost or spoiled before the Ship's proceeding on her Voyage, as aforesaid, then the proper Officer of the Port or Ports where the said Fish so lost or spoiled was or shall be entered, shall be obliged, upon due Proof thereof made upon Oath before any of the chief Officers of such Port, who have hereby Power to administer the same, by the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Fish, or his or their Agents, to make out Debentures for the Premium or Bounty of the said Fish, as if the said Fish had been actually exported to Parts beyond the Seas; provided the said Fish was sunk in the Sea or Port where the said Ship was lost, or destroyed in the sight of the proper Officer where any of the said Fish shall come ashore, and that no Use be made of the said Fish by the Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agents; and that the said Officer is hereby required to cause such Fish to be burnt, or otherwise destroyed; any Thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And whereas the Ship Severn Galley of Bristol being in the River of Bristol in or about the Month of February one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and the Ship George Galley of London being in Leostaff Road in or about the Month of October one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and the Ship James of Leith being in the Port of Caston in the Isles of Orkneys in or about the Month of December one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, the said Ships were, by Strefs of Weather, or other Accidents, severally cast away and lost in or very near the respective Ports where the same were laden, and at the Times of their being respectively lost, the said Ships were severally laden with Fish, and other Goods, for Exportation into Parts beyond the Seas; which several Ladings of Fish, or Part thereof, were lost and utterly spoiled, and rendered unfit for any Market: And whereas some Doubt hath arisen about the making out the Debentures for the Drawbacks or Bounties for the Fish that was so spoiled, as aforesaid: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the proper Officers, at the several Ports where the said several Ships were respectively laden, do upon due Proof by the Oaths of the respective Proprietors of the said Fish, or their respective Agents, That such Fish was really lost, or have been destroyed in the Presence of one or more of the said Officers, after the same had been laden and entered out for Exportation, without Intention of being reloaded in Great Britain (which Oath the Principal Officer at such Port is hereby empowered to administer) make out Debentures for the Drawbacks and Bounties for the said Fish so lost or destroyed, as aforesaid, in the same Manner as is directed to be done by the several Acts of Parliament now in Force for Fish really exported into Parts beyond the Seas; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any red Herrings or Sprats shall, during the Time of Drying or Curing, be burnt or consumed by Fire, by which Means such red Herrings or Sprats shall be rendered unfit for Use, in such Case the Number or Quantity of red Herrings or Sprats so burnt, consumed, or rendered unfit for Use, shall be computed by the Proprietor of the said Herrings or Sprats, in Consultation with the Salt-Officer of the said Port or Place, according to the best of their Skill and Judgment; which Computation so made, and added to the Account to be given in of the Quantity of Herrings or Sprats exported or shipped for Exportation, shall be accepted and taken at the Salt-Office in the same Manner as if all the said Herrings had been really exported.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King GEORGE, 3 Geo. 1. c. 4, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventeen; and to authorize Allowances to be made to certain Receivers; and to obviate a Doubt concerning Goods imported from the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Sark and Alderney; and to ascertain the Duties upon Sheep-skins and Lamb-skins; and to prevent Frauds in the Duties upon Starch; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer-Bills, Lottery-Tickets, and Orders, lost and burnt, or destroyed; and for enlarging the Time for adjusting Claims in several Lotteries; and for preventing Frauds in the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits carried Coastwise, It is enacted, That the Inhabitants of the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Sark and Alderney, shall and may, with and under such Certificates and Oaths as are therein mentioned, import into any lawful Port of Great Britain, any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes of the Growth, Produce and Manufacture of the said Islands, or any of them, without paying any Customs, Subsidies or Duties for or in respect thereof, except such Excise or other Duties as is now or shall hereafter, for the Time being, be due and payable for the like Goods of the Growth, Produce and Manufacture of Great Britain: And whereas it is found by Experience, that the Indulgence and Bounty given by the said Act, has been an Occasion of tempting many evil-disposed Persons to bring in great Quantities of French Salt from Guernsey, under a Pretence that the same was of the Produce of that Island, by Certificates, which are since discovered to be forged, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue, and the Diminution of the Trade of the Makers of Salt in Great Britain: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, all Salt imported from any of the said Islands shall be liable to the same Duties upon the Importation thereof as any other foreign Salt whatsoever.

No Allowance for unmerchable Fish.

Officers may enter into Warehouses to view the Fish curing, &c.

XII. And whereas the Laws and Acts of Parliament in Scotland, reserved in Force by the eighth Article of Union, do, among other Things enact, That the Herring-Barrel shall contain eight Gallons two Pints, Scots Measure, which amounts only to nine and twenty Gallons, three Pints, one Gill and an Half, English Wine-Measure; in Consequence whereof all the Herring-Barrels made in Scotland since the Union, as well as before, have been made according to the aforesaid Standard, and great Numbers of such Barrels remain now in Hand: And whereas Doubts have arisen in Scotland about the Payment of the present Allowances upon white Herrings exported, unless they are put up and packed in Barrels, containing precisely thirty-two Gallons, English Wine-Measure; and also about the Payment of proportionable Allowances for Half-Barrels, howsoever convenient for Stowage the said Half-Barrels are: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the present Allowance of ten Shillings five Pence per Barrel of white Herrings shall be paid for all Herrings exported from Scotland in Barrels of the Scots Gauge before-mentioned, and proportionally for Half-Barrels; provided the said Herrings have been or shall be exported on or before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nineteen.

XIII. And forasmuch as great Inconvenience would arise to the Owners of the said Herring-Barrels remaining now in Hand, should the Use thereof be disallowed, or no Premium be granted upon Herrings therein exported: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Premiums granted by this Act upon white Herrings shall and may be paid upon Herrings exported in the aforesaid Barrels, in such Proportion as the Gauge of the said Barrels bear to thirty-two Gallons English Wine-Measure, provided the said Barrels be filled with Herrings on or before the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty.

XIV. And whereas divers Merchants have exported several Quantities of Salmon in Barrels or Boxes that were neither agreeable to the Scotch or English Laws, and the Officers of the Customs having gauged the said Barrels or Boxes, have given Debentures for the Allowance or Drawback in Proportion to forty-two Gallons, English Wine-Measure, wherein no Circumstances of Fraud do appear: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Debentures shall and may be paid and satisfied in such Manner as they ought to have been, if such Exportation had been made and carried on according to the Rules and Directions of the Law.

XV. And for preventing the like Mistakes and Irregularities for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the Contents of the Herring and Salmon Barrel shall be the same throughout the whole united Kingdom of Great Britain; that is to say, the Herring-Barrel shall contain thirty-two Gallons, and the Salmon-Barrel forty-two Gallons; and that all Exportation of Salmon or Herrings in Barrels of a different Size or Content, the empty Herring-Barrels now in Hand excepted, shall be adjudged and taken to be an unlawful Exportation, and shall not entitle the Exporter to any Premium in respect of the same.

XVI. Provided nevertheless, forasmuch as it may be convenient for the Merchants, for the better Stowage in the Ships in which such Exportation of Herring or Salmon is made, to pack up some Part thereof in Half-Barrels: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to export Herring or Salmon in Half-Barrels, according to the Proportion of the Barrels above-mentioned respectively, but in no other Barrels or Casks of any other Size or Content whatsoever; and they shall, by Virtue of this Act, be entitled to a proportionable Premium or Drawback for every such Half-Barrel, videlicet, Half what they would be entitled to in case the Exportation had been made in whole Barrels.

XVII. And whereas by the said Laws relating to the Duties on Salt it is provided, That no Person whatsoever shall make Use of any Brine for the pickling or curing of any Fish or Flesh, or for preserving of any Provisions, before the same is boiled into Salt: For the better preventing Frauds therein, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall carry or convey or cause any Brine to be carried or conveyed from the Pits (other than such Person or Persons who are known Proprietors of Pans for boiling the same into white Salt) shall forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Shillings for every Gallon of Brine so carried and conveyed, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties upon Salt, It is provided, That in case any Ship or Vessel should come into any Port of England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, from Ireland or any other foreign Part, having on board any Quantity of Salt, which was taken in only for the necessary Provisions of the Ship for such Voyage, or for curing of Fish, it should be lawful for the Master of such Ship or Vessel to land the Salt, so as an Entry should be made thereof within ten Days after his first coming into such Port, and the Duties paid down or secured for the same before the same or any Part thereof should be landed or taken out of any Ship or Vessel; nevertheless, for want of sufficient Penalties to enforce Obedience thereto, several Masters of Vessels, who since the making the said Act have imported such Salt, have refused or neglected to enter and pay the Duties for the Salt by them so imported as aforesaid, within the Time limited by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Master of any Ship or Vessel, who shall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, import or bring into any Port or Place of Great Britain, from Ireland or any other foreign Part, any Quantity of Salt which was taken in only for the necessary Provisions of the Ship for such Voyage, or for curing of Fish as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to enter and pay or secure the Duty for the same, within ten Days after his first coming into any such Port or Place, and before the same or any Part thereof shall be landed or taken out of any such Ship or Vessel, all the Salt so imported shall be forfeited and lost, and the Master or other Person, Commander of the Ship or Vessel wherein any such Salt shall be imported, or the Owner or Importer of such Salt, shall likewise forfeit double the Value thereof.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Proprietor or Owner of Salt-works, or who shall have any Interest in, or any Rent, Profit or Benefit reserved upon, issuing out of or any Ways arising by any Salt-pits, Salt-works, Store-houses or other Places made Use of by any Baker, Refiner, Importer or Dealer in Salt, shall act as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relating to the Duties on Salt, or any Offence committed against the Laws relating to the same.

XX. And

XX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Master and Commander of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, that from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen shall transport or carry any foreign Salt from Scotland or any of the Islands thereunto belonging into England, or from any one Place or Port to any other Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall, before he or they land or deliver such Salt on shore (by him so transported or carried) deliver to the Officers for collecting the Duties on Salt in the said Port or Place appointed to receive the same, a true Particular of the Quantity so transported and carried as aforesaid, signed by the Officers for collecting the said Duties on Salt, and by the Officers of the Customs for the Port or Place from whence the said Ship or Vessel came; and then the Master or his Mate, or the Boatswain of such Ship or Vessel shall make Oath before the Commissioners for collecting the said Duties on Salt or their Officers, some or one of them (who are hereby impowered to administer the same without Fee or Reward) that to his Knowledge there hath not been laid on board or taken into the said Ship or Vessel any Salt since he or they came from such Port as aforesaid; and in case such Ship or Vessel be to deliver one Part of her Salt at one Port and another Part at another Port or Ports, that then the Officers for collecting the said Duties, and Officers of the Customs where such Salt shall be delivered, shall certify on the Backside of the Cocquet, Transire or other Warrant, or else by Certificate only under the Hands and Seals of the Officers, how much and what Quantity of the Salt mentioned in the Cocquet, Transire or other Warrant, from the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel came, hath been there landed and delivered, upon the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise delivered, and ten Shillings per Bushel.

Master of Ship carrying Salt from Scotland to England, or Coastwise, shall before landing give a Particular of the Salt to the Salt-Officer on Oath, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer and Officers of the said Duties on Salt, at every unlading Port or Creek of such Ship or Vessel, to go on board the same before the Delivery thereof, and to demand a Sight of such Cocquet so to be given as aforesaid, and to weigh the Salt upon unlading the same; and if the Salt on the weighing the same shall be found to be more in Weight than what is contained in the said Cocquet, that then the Surplusage that shall exceed the Quantity contained in the said Cocquet, shall be forfeited; the one Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person that shall inform or sue for the same; and if the Master of such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to shew unto such Officer the said Cocquet, upon due Request made, to the End he may see whether the Salt so unlading be the same Quantity with that contained in the Cocquet, That then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Officer to seize the said Salt and detain the same, until the said Cocquet be produced: Provided always, That if the said Cocquet, having been duly taken out, be not shewn to such Officer in four Days after the Seizure thereof, That then and in such Case the Salt so seized shall be forfeited.

Salt-Officers may demand a Sight of the Cocquet, and weigh the Salt.

Master refusing, Officer may seize the Salt till Cocquet produced, &c.

XXII. And whereas the Importers of foreign Salt do, after they come into Port, and before they enter and land the same, or proceed further on their Voyage to some other Port, frequently run Salt in Boats and other small Vessels in the Night-time; and if the Officers discover the same, the Persons on board such Boats or other Vessels not only refuse to suffer the Officers to come on board to see if they have any Salt in their Vessels, but frequently beat and abuse them: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Customs, or the Officers of the Duties on Salt, and every of them, to go on board any Boat, Lighter or other Vessel lying in any Port or Place or riding upon the Sea-Coasts, and to search the same, and to see if there be any Salt on board, and to seize such Salt, in case the same be found in any other Vessel than that wherein such Salt was imported or brought into the said Port or Place, unless the same had been duly entered or the Duties paid or secured; and all such Salt shall be forfeited and lost, or the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Master or Owner of such Boat or Vessel, who shall likewise be liable to all other Penalties and Forfeitures, as if the same had been landed without Entering or Payment of the Duty; and every Person or Persons who shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers in going on board any such Boat or Vessel and searching the same, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Pounds.

Officers of the Customs or Salt may go on board any Vessel, to see if there be any Salt there, &c.

Hindring Officer forfeits 40l.

XXIII. Matters in this Act, by 6 Geo.
1. c. 4, & 10
& 11. §. 49.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of Blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for continuing Part of the Duties upon Coals, Culm and Cinders, and granting new Duties upon Houses having twenty Windows, or more, to raise the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, by way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, It was enacted, That for and during the Term of thirty-two Years, which commenced from the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, there should be raised, levied, collected, and paid to her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Coals, Culm and Cinders therein expressed (except Charcoal made of Wood) the several and respective additional or new Impositions, Rates, Duties and Sums of Money, in that Act particularly mentioned; and for and upon every Dwelling-house inhabited, that then was, or thereafter should be erected or built within the Kingdom of Great Britain, having twenty Windows or more, the several new Duties in that Act expressed: And it was thereby enacted, That yearly and every Year, during the said Term, the full Sum of one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said several and respective Duties, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, in case the same should extend thereunto, should be the whole and intire yearly Fund; and in case all the Monies arising into the Exchequer of or for the said Duties, should not amount to one hundred and thirty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising, so far as the same would extend, should be Part of the yearly Fund for and towards answering or paying the Annuities therein after mentioned; and in case the said Duties should at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year the said Monies arising into the Exchequer for or upon Account of the same Duties, should not amount to so much as one hundred thirty-five thousand Pounds, or or to so much as should be sufficient to discharge and satisfy all the Annuities by that Act appointed or intended to be paid, within or for the same Year respectively, That then and so often, and in every such Case, so much as should be wanting to make up the said Fund for every or any such Year, should be supplied and made good, from Time to Time, out of the first Aid to be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency should appear, and should, from Time to Time, be transferred thereunto as soon as the same should be granted: And it was thereby enacted, That it should and might be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute for or towards advancing the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, by paying at or before the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, to the Receiver or Receivers to be appointed for that Purpose, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers entire Sums of ten Pounds upon that Act, for which he, she or they, for thirty-two Years, should be entitled to receive a Share or Dividend of the said yearly Fund; and that Lottery-Tickets should be prepared and drawn, and the Shares of the Adventurers in the said Fund should be determined and ascertained in the Manner thereby prescribed, as by the said Act, Re- 8 Ann. c. 4.

 lation being thereunto had, may more largely appear: And whereas the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds was contributed upon the said Act, and the Annuities payable out of the said Fund by Virtue thereof, do amount as is herein after mentioned (that is to say) to the Sum of thirty-two thousand six hundred twenty-five Pounds per Annum, payable Half-yearly, to wit, at Lady-day and Michaelmas, by equal Portions, or within twenty Days after every such Feast-Day, in respect of the Fortunate Tickets; and to the Sum of one hundred and two thousand three hundred seventy-three Pounds and twelve Shillings per Annum, payable at Michaelmas yearly, or within twenty Days after the same Feast-Day, in respect of the Tickets which did not prove to be fortunate upon Drawing of the said Lottery, pursuant to the said Act: And whereas other Tickets, commonly called Pay-Tickets, directed by the said Act, have been made forth for Payment of the said respective Annuities at the respective Times before-mentioned, and all the said Annuities payable out of the said Fund are satisfied until and for the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and no further; and the Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand seven hundred forty-eight Pounds and five Shillings, is due and in Arrear thereupon, by computing the same Annuities for one Year and a Quarter of a Year from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, until and for the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and eighteen: And whereas the Capital or Joint-Stock of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, doth now amount to the Sum of ten Millions, and in respect thereof a yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds is payable to the said Governor and Company, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, besides a yearly Sum of eight thousand Pounds, for or towards the Charges of the said Governor and Company for Management, subject nevertheless to such Provisos and Powers of Redemption, as are contained in one Act of Parliament of the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, made (amongst other Things) for redeeming the yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, 3 Geo. 2. c. 9.
 being then after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and settling on the said Company a yearly Fund after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, as by the several Acts of Parliament, whereupon the said Capital or Joint-Stock, and the said yearly Fund of five hundred thousand Pounds, and the said yearly Sum of eight thousand Pounds, and the said Powers of Redemption, are grounded, Relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear: And whereas the Corporation of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, is willing (upon such Terms, Conditions and Encouragements, as are hereafter in and by this Act provided and enacted) to permit all and every or any such Persons as are, or at any Time before the twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen shall be the Proprietors of the said Lottery-Annuities, or any of them, for the Residue of the said Term of thirty-two Years (that is to say) for twenty-three Years and three Quarters of a Year, to be reckoned from the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and eighteen (in case such Proprietors, or any of them, do so think fit) to subscribe his, her or their Right, Property and Interest, for and during all such remaining Time or Term of and in every or any such Annuity or Annuities, and of and in all his, her or their said Pay-Tickets for the same, during such residual Time or Term, into a Book or Books to be provided, as hereafter in this Act is directed, at the Rate of eleven Years Purchase and a Half, so that he, she or they so subscribing, for every twenty Shillings per Annum so subscribed for the said Time or Term of twenty-three Years and three Quarters of a Year, shall have and be entitled to eleven Pounds and ten Shillings in the Capital or Joint Stock of the said Company, when the said Capital or Joint Stock shall be increased, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, and proportionally for any greater or lesser Annuities which shall be so subscribed; and the said Corporation is also willing (upon the said Terms, Conditions and Encouragements herein after mentioned) to permit all and every, or any such Persons as are, or at any Time before the said twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be Proprietors of the said Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand seven hundred forty-eight Pounds and five Shillings, computed to be in Arrear, as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, to subscribe the same into the said Book or Books, so that every such Subscriber, for the Sum so subscribed in Part of the said Sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand seven hundred forty-eight Pounds and five Shillings, shall have and be intitled to the like Sum in the said increased Capital Stock of the said Company, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act: And in order to raise Money to be applied towards discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances as were incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, declared to be National Debts, and provided for by Acts of Parliament, the said Corporation is also willing to advance and pay the Sum of seven hundred seventy-eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, or so much thereof as is herein after limited and appointed, at such Times, and by such Proportions at a Time, as are herein after mentioned, subject nevertheless to such Deductions, Defalcations and Abatements to be made out of the same, as are hereafter in and by this Act allowed: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that the Proprietors of the said Lottery-Annuities, and the said Arrearages thereof (if they or any of them so think fit) may be permitted voluntarily to subscribe the same into the Stock and increased Stock of the said Company, as aforesaid; and that the said Sum of seven hundred seventy-eight thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be payable by the said Company in Pursuance of this Act, may be applied towards discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances as were incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, declared to be National Debts, and provided for by Acts of Parliament; and Proprietors of Lottery-Tickets 3 Ann. may (if they think fit) subscribe the same into the South-Sea Stock.

20 Ann. c. 19.

XLVIII. And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, for laying several Duties upon all Soap and Paper made in Great Britain, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is provided, That Cards and Dice may be exported (free of the Stamp-Duties) Bond being entred into to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, with sufficient Surety or Sureties, in a Penal Sum of double the Duties on such Cards or Dice, with Condition for exporting the same into some Part or Port beyond the Seas, within a Time to be limited in such Bond; and that the same, or any of them, shall not be relanded in any Part of Great Britain; and such Bonds are to be left in the Hands of the Commissioners for the Stamp-Duties; which Provision was intended for encouraging the Exportation of Cards and Dice into foreign Parts, but hath been found to be a great Discouragement thereof, in Regard such Bonds do or may lie out against the Parties bound therein, although the Conditions thereof are or shall have been performed; and in regard some of the Obligors in such Bonds have been prosecuted thereupon several Years after the Dates thereof, and are or may be liable to the Penalties, although no Fraud or Relanding be proved against them, for that the Proof is on their Part, and the Persons usually bound in such Bonds as Sureties for the Makers or Sellers of such Cards and Dice exported, are those who actually export the same, and upon Account of such Suretyship cannot be legal Witnesses for the Principals in such Bonds, and it is impracticable to bring living Witnesses, or such sufficient Proof as the Law at present requires, from the East and West Indies, and other foreign Parts to which Cards and Dice are commonly exported, to prove the Landings and Consumptions thereof in such foreign Parts: And whereas great Quantities of Cards and Dice exported are often consumed in long Voyages at Sea, and there is no Provision in the said Act for prosecuting such Bonds in any limited Time, or for any Discharge thereof, and it is reasonable to give Relief in the Premises: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the said Bonds as have been entred into at any Time or Times before the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and are now remaining in the Hands of the Commissioners for the Stamp-Duties, or any of his Majesty's Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, or if upon such Prosecution, Proof be not made of some Fraud in Breach or Non-performance of such Conditions, and Judgment thereupon obtained for his Majesty, before the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, then such of the said Bonds so already entred into, shall (for want of such Proof or Judgment) be void; and that all Prosecutions now depending upon any of the said Bonds, which have not been commenced within two Years after the Date thereof, and where Proof hath not been made, or shall not be made, before the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty, of some Fraud in Breach or Non-performance of the Conditions, shall cease and determine; and as to such Bonds as shall be entred into after the said sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, in case there shall be no Proof of some Fraud in Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions, or if Proof thereof be not made within two Years after the Dates of the Bonds, or if upon such Prosecution as is last mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for his Majesty upon such Proof, as aforesaid, within the Space of one Year after the same Prosecution commenced, then every such Bond which shall be entred into, as aforesaid (in Default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained, as aforesaid, within the Times before limited) shall also be void; and all Bonds made void by this Act shall be delivered up by the respective Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled, without Fee or Reward.

C A P. XX.

An Act for settling certain yearly Funds payable out of the Revenue of Scotland, to satisfy publick Debts in Scotland, and other Uses mentioned in the Treaty of Union; and to discharge the Equivalents claimed on Behalf of Scotland in the Terms of the same Treaty; and for obviating all future Disputes, Charges and Expences concerning those Equivalents.

5 Ann. c. 3.

I. MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas in and by the sixth Article of the Treaty for the Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (which Treaty was ratified by Acts of Parliament passed in either Kingdom, and particularly by an Act made in England in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of Blessed Memory) It was provided that the Customs and Duties on Import and Export, settled in England when the Union commenced, should from and after the Union, take Place throughout the whole united Kingdom, excepting and reserving, as in the said Article is particularly expressed; and in and by the seventh Article of the said Treaty it was provided, That all Parts of the United Kingdom should for ever, from and after the Union, be liable to the same Excises (excepting only that such Beer or Ale as are therein described, should not after the Union be liable, upon Account of the then present Excise upon exciseable Liquors in England, to any higher Imposition than two Shillings Sterling upon thirty-four Gallons English Barrel, being twelve Gallons of the then present Scots Measure;) and it was by the Article last mentioned provided, That the Excise then settled in England upon all other Liquors should, when the Union commenced, take Place throughout the whole United Kingdom: And in and by the fourteenth Article of the said Treaty of Union, it was provided, That Scotland should not be charged with any Duties laid on by the Parliament of England before the said Union (except such as were consented to in the said Treaty) in regard it was agreed, That all necessary Provision should be made by the then Parliament of Scotland for the publick Charge and Service of that Kingdom, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven; providing nevertheless, That if the Parliament of England should think fit to lay any further Impositions, by way of Customs, or such Excises with which, by Virtue of the said Treaty, Scotland was to be charged equal with England, in such Case Scotland should be liable to the same Customs and Excises, and have an Equivalent to be settled by the Parliament of Great Britain: And whereas by the Terms of the said Treaty the Subjects of Scotland, for preserving an Equality

Equality of Trade throughout the United Kingdom, would be liable to several Customs and Excises then payable in England, which would be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England, contracted before the Union: It was by the fifteenth Article of the said Treaty agreed, That Scotland should have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof should be so charged towards Payment of the said Debts of England in all Particulars whatsoever, in Manner therein expressed, (viz.) That before the Union of the said Kingdoms the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, should be granted to her said Majesty by the Parliament of England for the Uses after mentioned, being the Equivalent to be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the said Customs and Excises upon all exciseable Liquors with which that Kingdom was to be charged upon the Union, as would be applicable to the Payment of the said Debts of England, according to the Proportions therein specified: And in regard that after the Union, Scotland becoming liable to the same Customs and Duties payable on Import and Export, and to the same Excises on all exciseable Liquors as in England, as well upon that Account, as upon the Account of Increase of Trade and People, the said Revenues would much improve beyond the annual Values thereof set down in the said Article, whereof no present Estimate could then be made; yet nevertheless for the Reasons aforesaid, it was thereby declared, That there ought to be a proportionable Equivalent answered to Scotland: And it was agreed, That after the Union there should be an Account kept of the said Duties arising in Scotland, to the End that it might appear what ought to be answered to Scotland as an Equivalent for such Proportion of the said Increase as should be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England: And for the further and more effectual answering the several Ends after mentioned, it was agreed, That from and after the Union, the whole Increase of the Revenues of Customs and Duties on Import and Export, and Excises upon exciseable Liquors in Scotland, over and above the annual Produce of the said respective Duties as therein stated, should go and be applied for the Term of seven Years to the Uses after mentioned; and that upon the said Account there should be answered to Scotland annually, from the End of seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in Proportion to such Part of the said Increase as should be applicable to the Debts of England, and generally that an Equivalent should be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the English Debts as Scotland might thereafter become liable to pay by Reason of the Union, other than such for which Appropriations had been made by Parliament in England, of the Customs or other Duties on Export and Import, and Excises on all exciseable Liquors, in respect of which Debts the Equivalents were therein before provided; and as to the Uses to which the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and all other Monies which were to be answered or allowed to Scotland, as aforesaid, were to be applied, It was by the said Treaty agreed, That in the first Place, out of the aforesaid Sum, what Consideration should be found necessary to be had for any Losses which private Persons might sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, should be made good; in the next Place, that the Capital Stock or Fund of the then African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with the Interest for the said Capital Stock, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the respective Times of the Payment thereof, should be paid; upon Payment of which Capital Stock and Interest, it was agreed the said Company should be dissolved and cease; and as to the Overplus of the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings (after Payment of what Consideration should be had for Losses in repairing the Coin, and paying the said Capital Stock and Interest) and also the whole Increase of the said Revenues of Customs, Duties and Excises, above the then present Value, which should arise in Scotland, during the said Term of seven Years, together with the Equivalent which should become due upon the Improvement thereof in Scotland, after the said Term, and also as to all other Sums which according to the Agreements aforesaid might become payable to Scotland, by way of Equivalent for what that Kingdom should thereafter become liable towards Payment of the Debts of England, it was by the said Article agreed, That the same should be applied in Manner following, viz. That all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as should be adjusted by the then present Parliament, should be paid, and that two thousand Pounds per Annum, for the Space of seven Years, should be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of coarse Wool within those Shires which produced the Wool, and afterwards the same should be wholly employed towards encouraging and promoting the Fisheries and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as might most conduce to the general Good of the United Kingdom; And it was agreed, That her Majesty should be empowered to appoint Commissioners, who should be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for disposing the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and all other Monies which should arise to Scotland, upon the Agreements aforesaid, to the Purposes before-mentioned, who should keep their Office within the Limits of Scotland, with such Powers, and be subject to such Directions for keeping Accounts and performing other Matters and Things, as in the said fifteenth Article were prescribed. And whereas for preventing all Mistakes or Abuses which might hinder the ready Application of the aforesaid Money to the Proprietors, and others concerned in the Stock of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, conform to the said Article, there was an Act made in the last Session of the last Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act concerning the Payment of the Sums out of the Equivalent to the African Company, wherein it was enacted, That the Directors of the said African and Indian Company of Scotland should make up Accounts of the Sums advanced by the Proprietors of the said Company, and Debts due to (a) the said Company, on the first Day of May then next, as therein was prescribed; and in like Manner by another Act of the said Parliament of Scotland, intituled, Act concerning the Publick Debts, the Payments to be made on Account of the Publick Debts of Scotland, were adjusted; as in and by the said Treaty of Union, and several Acts before recited or mentioned (amongst other Things therein contained) Relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear. And whereas the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, was paid for and on the Part of England to the Commissioners of the Equivalent in Scotland, pursuant to the aforesaid Articles, and considerable Sums were by them issued out according to the same, and the above recited Acts of Parliament of Scotland, but by Experience it was found that some further Direction was yet necessary for the better Application of what remained of the said Sum unapplied, and all other Sums which were or might become due by Virtue of the Agreements aforesaid, and for the more effectual attaining the Ends mentioned in the said fifteenth Article of the Treaty and Acts above recited; and therefore an Act was made and passed in the Parliament of Great Britain in the sixth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Money, containing Powers and Directions, as by the same, Relation being thereunto also had, may more fully appear. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made in the tenth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, (amongst other Things) for obviating Doubts concerning certain Payments in Scotland, it was enacted, That the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges allowed, or to be allowed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for keeping up the Courts of Session and Justiciary, and Exchequer-Court of Scotland, were and might be chargeable upon any Part of the Revenues of Customs and Excise of Scotland, preferable to all other Payments whatsoever, (the Charges of Management excepted) but so as not any way to prevent any Application of the Excess out of the said Customs and Excise appointed by any former Law, as by the same Act (Relation being thereunto had) may also more fully appear. And whereas an Act of Parliament of Great Britain was made in the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to discharge and acquit the Commissioners of Equivalent for the Sum of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, by them duly issued out of the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, which they received, reciting, That the Commissioners for disposing the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and all other Monies which should arise to Scotland upon the Agreements in the said Treaty of Union, or the major Part of them, pursuant to several Commissions from her Majesty, had well and duly issued and paid the Sum of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, as directed by the Laws in that Behalf, in Manner therein set down, (videlicet) towards the Loss which private Persons sustained by reducing the English Money then in Scotland to the current Rate in England, the Sum of three thousand and seventeen Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence; for recoinage the Scots and foreign Money, and reducing it to the Standard of the Coin of England, the Sum of forty-nine thousand eight hundred eighty-eight Pounds fourteen Shillings and eleven Pence one sixth Part of a Penny; towards Payment of the Stock, Interest, and Debts of the Indian and African Company, the Sum of two hundred twenty-nine thousand six hundred and eleven Pounds four Shillings and eight Pence; towards the Charges of the Commissioners, Secretaries and Accountants of the two Treaties of Union, the Sum of thirty-thousand four hundred ninety-eight Pounds twelve Shillings and two Pence; towards Payment of the First Class of the Civil List, the Sum of twenty-seven thousand five hundred fifty-three Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine Pence one third of a Penny; towards Payment of the Second Class of the Civil List, the Sum of four thousand six hundred fifty-five Pounds and six Shillings; towards Payment of the First Class of the Military List, the Sum of fourteen thousand one hundred eighty-eight Pounds and eight Pence; towards Payment of the Second Class of the Military List, the Sum of fourteen thousand four hundred fifty-eight Pounds two Shillings and eight Pence and five Sixths of a Penny; for the Fees and Salaries of the Servants of the Commission till the fourteenth of March and thirtieth of April then last past, the Sum of five thousand four hundred and thirteen Pounds eleven Shillings and four Pence; for the necessary Charges of the Commission, and for defending of Law-Suits where the Titles of Parties were not clear (those Charges preceding the six and twentieth Day of March then last past) the Sum of two thousand two hundred twenty-four Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence one sixth of a Penny: And it was thereby declared, That the said Commissioners of the Equivalent should be acquitted of the several Sums above set down, amounting in the Whole to the said Sum of three hundred eighty-one thousand five hundred and nine Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny; providing nevertheless, That nothing therein contained should free them from applying the Sum of sixteen thousand five hundred seventy-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and one Penny Half-penny, being the Balance of the said three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings then remaining in their Hands, together with what other Sums were or might become due and payable to them, to such Uses, and for such Purposes, as the former Acts therein mentioned did appoint and direct: And it appearing, That the other publick Debts of Scotland then unsatisfied, which were adjusted and certified, pursuant to the Directions of the several Acts therein recited, did then amount to the Sum of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence five Sixths of a Penny, including the Interest of such Parts thereof as bore Interest from the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eight to the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen; it was thereby enacted, That it might and should be lawful for the Commissioners of Equivalent for the Time being, or any three or more of them, and they were thereby directed and required forthwith to call for and receive all the Certificates and other Warrants, and receive and cancel all the Debentures for which the Debt aforesaid, amounting to the Sum of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence five Sixths of a Penny, was constituted and established, and issue out new Debentures deviseable and transferrable, as the former Debentures were, for the said Sum, to the several Persons proportionally and respectively entitled thereunto, which new Debentures are thereby enacted to bear Interest from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that such Interest shall be paid out of the first and readiest of the Monies which either were or should become due to Scotland by way of Equivalent, according to the Agreements in the Treaty of Union above recited, and the Principal according to the Order and Preferences mentioned in the fifteenth Article of the said Treaty, and several Laws and Acts therein mentioned, as by the said Act of the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, Relation being thereunto had, may also more fully appear. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made and passed in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent in the Terms of the Union; and for Relief of the Creditors of the Publick in Scotland, and the Commissioners of the Equivalent, your Majesty was impowered to appoint Commissioners for taking, examining and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland by way of Equivalent, and Provision was thereby made for Payment of a Sum not exceeding fifteen thousand eight hundred twenty-two Pounds eight Shillings and seven Pence three Farthings, to the Commissioners of Equivalent in Scotland, or any Persons appointed by them, or any two of them, out of the Monies arisen or to arise by the said Revenues of Customs and Excise of Scotland, or either of them, for the Payment of one Year's Interest, (videlicet) from the twenty-third of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, of the Capital Sum of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence and five Sixths of a Penny, stated due to the Creditors of the Publick in Scotland, on the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, pursuant to the said Act of the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, and for Payment of the Salaries of the said Commissioners of Equivalent, and of the Fees and Salaries of their Servants, and necessary Charges, from the said twenty-third of June one thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and fifteen; and by an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, made in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, for continuing the Act last before recited, the Powers given to your Majesty, for appointing Commissioners for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent in the Terms of the Union, were continued for the Term therein mentioned; and by the Act last mentioned, the Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury were impowered (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay the Civil Establishment in Scotland, authorized by the said Act of the tenth Year of her said late Majesty's ^{10 Ann. c. 26.} Reign) to cause Payment of a Sum not exceeding thirty-one thousand five hundred sixty-five Pounds two Shillings and five Pence Half-penny, to the Commissioners of the Equivalent in Scotland, out of the Monies arisen or to arise out of any of the Customs, Duties, Excises or Revenues, under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs and Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or either of them, for Payment of two Years Interest of the said Capital Sum of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence and five Sixths of a Penny, and of eighteen thousand two hundred forty-one Pounds ten Shillings and ten Pence and two Thirds of a Penny, stated due to William Paterson, Esq; by an Act of the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, from the twenty-third of June one thousand seven hundred and fifteen to the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and for Payment of the Salaries of the Commissioners of Equivalent, and of the Fees and Salaries of their Servants, and the necessary Charges of the Office for the said two Years; providing nevertheless, That the Commissioners of the Equivalent of Scotland for the Time being, should secure and retain in their Hands the Sum of fourteen thousand Pounds Sterling, appointed by the said fifteenth Article of the Union, for the Encouragement of the Manufacture of Course Wool, in such Shires where the same was or should be produced, to be applied for the Benefit of the said Manufacture, and the Wool-Masters, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever, as by the two Acts last before recited may also more fully appear; ^{3 Geo. 1. c. 14. 10 Ann. c. 26.} which several Sums for Payment of Interest, Salaries and Charges, were issued to the said Commissioners of Equivalent accordingly. And whereas by Reason of many Doubts arising in the Construction of the said fifteenth Article of the said Treaty, and other Laws relating to the Excrescence of the said Equivalent, and to the growing Equivalent due and becoming due to Scotland, and by Reason of the many Difficulties which attend separating and distinguishing between Debts incurred before the Union, and Debts incurred for Service of the United Kingdom (both which have without Distinction been provided for since the Union) the Commissioners for taking and stating the Debts due and growing due to Scotland, by way of Equivalent, have not been able to adjust the Accounts thereof for the Time past, and are like to meet with insuperable Difficulties therein for the future, during so long Time as the same is to continue in the Terms of the said Treaty, although the making or endeavouring to make such Accounts is attended with an excessive Charge to the Publick, and may occasion great Vexations and Discontents in the United Kingdom: For obviating whereof, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, as we think it just and reasonable, so we also judge it to be most conducive to the Publick Quiet and Tranquillity, That in Lieu and full Discharge of all Equivalents whatsoever, that might hereafter be demanded from England, or the United Kingdom, upon the Foot of the said Treaty, such certain Annuities or yearly Funds and other Provisions may be settled and established for the Satisfaction of those interested or concerned in the Monies which were expected to arise from the said Equivalents, as are hereafter in this Act expressed; and do therefore humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That yearly and every Year, ^{From June 24, 1719. 10000 l. and 2000 l. shall be yearly Funds for the Purposes in this Act, and payable for ever, but subject to Redemption by Parliament. Further Provision is made concerning this Annuity of 2000 l. by 13 Geo. 1. c. 30. Payable out of the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise in Scotland.} reckoning the first Year to begin from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the full Sum of ten thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain shall be one yearly Fund, and the full Sum of two thousand Pounds of like Money shall be another yearly Fund, for the several Purposes in this Act expressed concerning the same yearly Funds respectively; and that the said yearly Funds shall continue and be payable for ever, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament, according to the respective Provisions herein after contained in that Behalf; and that the said several Annuities or yearly Funds, during the Continuance thereof respectively, shall be charged and chargeable upon, and be payable and paid out of the Monies arisen and to arise, from Time to Time, of or for any the Customs, Duties, Excises or Revenues, that are or shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs and Commissioners of the Excise in Scotland, or either of them, or of any Commissioners, Farmers or Managers of those Revenues, or any of them, for the Time being, which shall from Time to Time remain, after paying or reserving sufficient to pay the Charges of Managing the said Revenues, and of keeping up the said three Courts, and other Charges of the Civil Government in Scotland, pursuant to such Establishment or Establishments as are or shall be made in that Behalf, and with Preference to all Payments whatsoever, other than those Charges, and other than such Drawbacks and Allowances, as are or shall be settled by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be made out of the said Revenues, or any of them.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That in case the Produce of the said Duties, Customs, Excises or Revenues shall at any Time or Times appear to be so low or deficient, as that there should not be sufficient thereof to satisfy the said Annuities or yearly Funds of ten thousand Pounds and two thousand Pounds, or either of them, when the same shall become due, then and so often and in every such Case, the Deficiencies thereof shall and may be satisfied and made good by or out of any other Revenues in Scotland, which were introduced by Virtue of the said Treaty of Union, or to which the Subjects of Scotland are or shall be liable, other than such Revenues as are expressly appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any Act or Acts of Parliament of Great Britain made since the said Act for confirming the said Treaty of Union. ^{In Case of Deficiency the said Sums to be made good out of any other Revenue in Scotland, introduced by Virtue of the Union, except such as are otherwise appropriated.}

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Annuities or Funds of ten thousand Pounds and two thousand Pounds per Annum shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts in the Year, that is to say, the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, by even and equal Portions, until the Redemption of the same respectively according to the respective Provisions herein after contained in that Behalf; the first Payment thereof to be due and accounted due and payable at the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and that the said several Annuities or yearly Funds and every Part thereof shall be free from all Taxes or publick Charges and Impositions whatsoever laid or to be laid thereupon by Authority of Parliament. ^{The said Funds shall be paid at the four most usual Feasts. First Payment to begin at Michaelmas 1719. The Funds free from Taxes.}

IV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer of Great Britain and the Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for the Time being, shall and they respectively are hereby impowered and strictly enjoined and required to issue their Warrants and Orders for making the Payments of the said Annuities or yearly Funds from Time to Time, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that the Payments thereof shall be made by the proper Commissioners or Officers from Time to Time without any Fees or Charges whatsoever to be demanded or taken for paying the same; and if any Commissioner, Receiver General, Officer or other Person or Persons, who shall have in his or their Hands any the Monies which, in Pursuance of this Act, shall be ordered or appointed for Payment of the said Annuities or yearly Funds, or either of them, shall divert or misapply the same or any Part thereof, contrary to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, then every such Commissioner, Receiver General, Officer or Person, for such Offence shall be rendered incapable to serve his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Employment of Trust or Profit, and be liable to pay double the Value of the Money so diverted or misapplied to the Use of the Corporation which shall be created in Pursuance of this Act, for the Benefit of the Creditors of Scotland; and to be recovered by Action of Debt or of the Case, Bill, Suit or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the said Court of Exchequer of Scotland, wherein no Escoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's Majesty, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to incorporate all and every the Proprietors of the Debts and Sums of Money stated to amount to the said principal Sums of two hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and eight Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence and five Sixths of a Penny, and eighteen thousand two hundred forty-one Pounds ten Shillings and ten Pence two Thirds of a Penny; both Sums making two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny; and all and every Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, which as Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title derived or to be derived from, by or under the said Proprietors, at any Time or Times hereafter, shall have or be entitled to any Part, Share or Interest of or in the said Capital Sums amounting to two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny, so long as they respectively shall have any Part, Share or Interest therein, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, by such Name as the King's Majesty shall think most proper; and that by such Name the said Corporation shall have perpetual Succession, (subject nevertheless to such Redemption as is herein after appointed in that Behalf;) and that they and their Successors, by the Name aforesaid, shall be able and capable in Law to sue and implead, be sued and impleaded, answer and be answered in Courts of Record or any other Place whatsoever, in all Actions and Causes whatsoever, for, touching or concerning the Receiving and Recovering of the said Annuity or Fund of ten thousand Pounds per Annum, and the Distribution thereof to those who shall from Time to Time be interested in the same, with such Powers to do and perform such other Matters and Things appertaining to them to do or perform touching or concerning the said Capital Sums and the said yearly Fund payable in respect thereof, as the King's Majesty by the same Letters Patents shall think fit to grant.

VI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Capital Sums amounting to two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny shall be and be deemed to be the Capital or Joint Stock of the said Corporation; and that the Shares and Interests of the particular Members of and in the same from Time to Time shall be assignable, transferable and deviseable in such Manner as the King's Majesty by the said Letters Patents shall prescribe and appoint, until the Redemption thereof.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Members of the said Corporation shall have and be entitled to an Annuity or yearly Sum in Proportion to his or their Share in the said Capital Sum and Stock of two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny; which Annuities or yearly Sums shall be paid and payable at the four most usual Feasts in the Year before-mentioned, by even and equal Portions, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament according to the Proviso herein after contained in that Behalf.

VIII. And whereas by Virtue of former Acts of Parliament, Debentures were authorized and directed to be made forth for the said several Debts amounting to two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny, which are assignable and transferable by Indorsement, and bear Interest at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and some of the Persons interested in Part of the said Debts have not yet taken forth the Debentures to which they respectively are entitled pursuant to the said Acts: Now it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in all such Cases the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or any three or more of them (being satisfied in the Titles of such Persons) shall make forth and sign Debentures for such particular Sums for which such Debentures are not already made forth, and deliver the same to the Persons entitled thereto respectively, or such as they respectively shall appoint to receive the same; which shall bear Interest and be transferable and assignable, and be made and issued in the same Manner and Form and under such Conditions, as if they had been made forth by the Commissioners for disposing the Equivalents in Scotland, according to the said former Act.

IX. And to the End it may be known who are the Proprietors of the said Capital Sums amounting to two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny; It is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judges of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall, by publick Publication at the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, or by any other Form of publick Publication as the said Judges shall think fit, intimate to all Parties within or without the Kingdom, having Interests in the said stated Debts of Scotland, to produce or cause to be produced before the said Judges in Edinburgh, in the

X. And it being just and reasonable that Interest due on the said Debts, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and seven, until the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, together with the Charges of the Commission of the Equivalent in Scotland, should be provided for: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, shall and may and they are hereby empowered and directed, out of the Monies arisen and to arise of or for the said Customs, Duties, Excises and other Revenues charged with the said Annuities or yearly Funds as aforesaid, which shall from Time to Time remain next after paying or reserving sufficient to pay, as well the Charges of managing the same Revenues and keeping up the three Courts, and the said other Charges of the Civil Government in Scotland, as also the Sums which shall be grown due and in Arrear from Time to Time for or upon the said Annuities or Funds of ten thousand Pounds and two thousand Pounds per Annum, or either of them, to cause Payment to be made unto such Persons as his Majesty, by any Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, counter-signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, shall intrust to receive the same, of the full Sum of thirty thousand eight hundred twenty-three Pounds seven Shillings and two Pence for Payment of the Interest, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, of the said Capital Sums amounting to two hundred forty-eight thousand five hundred and fifty-nine Pounds and nine Pence Half-penny, and for Payment of the Salaries of the said Commissioners for disposing the Equivalent, and of the Fees and Salaries of their Servants and the necessary Charges of their Office for two Years, ended at the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and nineteen; from which Time all Salaries and other Charges relating to that Commission shall cease and determine.

Out of the Monies arising by the said Customs, &c. the Treasury shall cause Payment to be made to such Persons as the King under his Sign Manual shall direct, of 30,823 l. 7 s. 2 d. for Interest of the Capital Sums, &c.

Till such Charter of Incorporation be granted, the yearly Fund of 10,000 l. shall be paid to such Persons as his Majesty shall direct, for the Use of the Proprietors interested in the Debentures.

And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall forthwith call the said Commissioners of the Equivalent in Scotland to an Account for the said Balance of sixteen thousand five hundred seventy-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and one Penny Half-penny, and for the said Sums of fifteen thousand eight hundred twenty-two Pounds eight Shillings and seven Pence three Farthings, and thirty-one thousand five hundred sixty-five Pounds two Shillings and five Pence Half-penny, by them received as aforesaid; and after Deduction of all their due Payments and just Allowances, to cause the Balance of such Account to be paid over to such Persons as his Majesty, by any Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, counter-signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, shall from Time to Time appoint to receive the same, in Trust to and for the Uses and Purposes whereunto the same is liable pursuant to the said former Acts, and thereupon to free and liberate the said Commissioners of Equivalent in Scotland upon their said Accounts.

LXVII. And whereas it is intended, That as well the above-mentioned Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and every Part thereof, as the said Sums to be paid after the Rate of four Years and a Half's Purchase, and also the said Sums to be paid after the Rate of one Year's Purchase, and every of them, and every Part thereof, to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer by the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, as fast as the same shall be paid into the said Receipt, shall be issued and applied in Manner following; that is to say, That out of the first Monies arising of or for the said several Sums so to be paid into the said Receipt, every or any of them, such publick Debts and Incumbrances carrying Interest or Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, or more, incurred before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, founded upon any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf (not being Part of the Capital Stock or Fund of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain) as are now redeemable, or may be redeemed at any Time or Times on or before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred twenty and two, shall be redeemed and paid off in the first Place; and that after the same shall be redeemed and paid off, or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer for redeeming and paying off the same according to the true Meaning of this Act, then all the Rest, Residue and Remainder of the said Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and of the said Sums to be computed after the said several Rates of four Years and an Half's Purchase and one Year's Purchase, and of every of them, and of every Part thereof, as the same Residues and Remainders, from Time to Time, shall grow due from the same Governor and Company, or their Successors, and as the same shall or ought to be paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer, shall be applied for or towards paying off so much of the Capital Stock and increased Capital Stock of the same Governor and Company as shall then carry Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and that upon every such Payment, or reserving Money as aforesaid to make such Payment, to the same Governor and Company, a proportional Part of their Annuity or yearly Fund, or of their Annuity or yearly Fund to be increased as aforesaid, for which that Rate is or shall be payable, shall cease and determine: Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Sums of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and the said several Sums to be paid after the said Rates of four Years and an Half's Purchase and one Year's Purchase, and every of them, and every Part thereof, shall be applied in such Manner and Form as are before-mentioned and intended for the Application thereof (over and above the Monies of the said Sinking Fund by this Act directed to be applied for lessening publick Debts and Incumbrances, in such Manner and Form as are in this Act prescribed concerning the same) and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, and the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby directed and authorized to cause all the Monies arising of or for the said Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and the said Sums to be paid after the Rate of four Pears and an Half's Purchase and one Pear's Purchase, and every of them, and every Part thereof, to be applied in the Manner and Form by this Act prescribed touching or concerning the same; and that upon every such Payment, or reserving such Money in the Exchequer to make such Payment to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, a proportional Part of their said Annuity or yearly Fund or increased Annuity or yearly Fund, for which the said Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum shall be payable, for which so much of their Capital Stock shall be paid off, or for which Money shall be so reserved from Time to Time, shall cease and determine; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

On every such Payment a proportional Part of the increased Annuity to cease.

LXVIII. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. the Monies to arise from Time to Time by certain Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies therein specified, were appropriated for discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances as were incurred before the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and were declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act of Parliament, in such Manner and Form as should be directed or appointed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith or out of the same; which Monies so arising by the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, are commonly called the Sinking Fund, and the said Fund, commonly so called the Sinking Fund, is like to be very much increased in consequence of this present Act, by taking in several of the above-mentioned Annuities and Debts; and settling (in lieu thereof) upon the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, Additions to their present Annuity or yearly Fund at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until and for the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven; and afterwards at the said Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till Redemption thereof according to this Act: Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the Monies, as at any Time or Times before the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, shall arise by the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, with the said Increase thereof, as shall or may remain in the Exchequer after discharging so much as remains unsatisfied of the Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, mentioned in an Act of the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign for cancelling such Exchequer-Bills as are therein specified, and after discharging such Payments as shall be charged or chargeable on the said Sinking Fund, or the Increase thereof, by any other Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament, and after paying off such publick Debts and Incumbrances carrying Interest, or an Annuity after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any higher Interest or Annuity, founded upon any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf (not being Part of the Capital Stock or Fund of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain) as may be redeemed before the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred twenty and seven, shall and may be applied at the End of every Year, so far as such Remainder of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies will from Time to Time extend, by even Sums of one hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, for or towards paying off Part of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain; which shall carry the said Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and upon every such Payment a proportional Part of their Annuity or yearly Fund payable at that Rate for so much of the said Capital Stock as shall be so paid off, from Time to Time, shall cease and determine; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby directed and authorized to cause the Monies so arising of or for the said Sinking Fund, other than and except as aforesaid, to be applied for or towards the paying off such publick Debts and Incumbrances, and for or towards paying off such Part of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and reducing a proportional Part of their Annuity or yearly Fund accordingly; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

So much Money arising before 24 June 1727, by the Overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund, with the Increase thereof, as shall remain after 220,000 l. by 5 Geo. c. 3. is completed, and after discharging Payments charged on the Sinking Fund, &c. redeemable before Midsummer 1727, shall be applied by even Sums of 100,000 l. towards paying off Part of the Capital, carrying Interest at 5 l. per Cent.

LXIX. And whereas a great Number of Bills, commonly called Exchequer-Bills, were made forth and issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer by Virtue of former Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, and the far greatest Part of the said Bills so made forth have since been discharged and cancelled at the said Receipt, pursuant to the same or other Acts of Parliament made for that Purpose, and particularly Provision was made by an Act of the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign for applying the Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds therein mentioned towards discharging such Bills, out of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, Part of which Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds hath accordingly been applied, and the Residue thereof, as it shall come into the Exchequer, will be applicable thereunto; and after the Application thereof the Principal Monies to remain due upon such of the said Bills as will then be in or out of the Exchequer uncanceled and undischarged, will, by Estimation, amount unto eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds ten Shillings, or thereabouts, besides Interest on them, or some of them: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being shall, by publick Notice in Writing to be affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, and published in the London Gazette, prefix a certain Day by or before which all the said Residuary Bills so estimated to amount to eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds ten Shillings, or thereabouts, shall be brought in and delivered to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being shall appoint to receive the same, at or near the said Exchequer, to be changed for new Bills, as is herein after directed; and that all such of the said Residuary Bills standing out, as shall not be brought in upon such Notice to be exchanged for new Bills as aforesaid, within the Time or Times thereby to be signified, shall lose their Currency, and no Interest shall grow due thereupon after the Day to be prefixed as aforesaid.

Clause for calling in the present Exchequer-Bills remaining uncanceled, amounting to 896,662 l. 10 s.

LXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall cause new Bills to be prepared and made at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, in such Method and Form as they shall think most convenient, for any Sum or Sums of Money whereof the Principal shall not exceed the said Sum of eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two sixty two Pounds ten Shillings, adding thereunto the Interest-Monies which shall appear to be due thereupon; which new Bills shall be made forth to bear an Interest not exceeding the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or High Treasurer for the Time being, shall cause the said Residuary Bills to be cancelled and discharged, and, as fast as the said Residuary Bills shall be brought in, cancelled and discharged, shall cause new Bills in lieu thereof to be delivered to the respective Bearers of the said Residuary Bills, so that for every Principal Sum contained in any of the said Residuary Bills so cancelled and discharged, a new Bill (of the new Bills above-mentioned) containing the like Principal Sum shall be delivered to the said Bearers respectively; and that such new Bills which shall be so delivered to any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, as the Bearers of any the said Residuary Bills, shall (instead of such Residuary Bills so brought in and cancelled) be placed in their respective Offices as so much Cash.

Clause for making forth new Bills, not exceeding the same Sum, in lieu thereof.

On Oath that any of the residuary Bills have been lost, new Bills to be delivered in lieu thereof.

LXXI. Provided always, That in case Proof shall be made upon Oath of one or more credible Witnesses before the Lord Chief Baron, and other the Barons of the Court, of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or any of them, that any of the said Residuary Bills, amounting to eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds ten Shillings, or thereabouts, were by Casualty or Mischance lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed before the second Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and shall by such Oath ascertain the Numbers and Sums of such Bill or Bills; and if thereupon the said Chief Baron, and other the said Barons, or any of them, before whom such Proof was made, shall certify that he or they is or are satisfied in such Proof; that then and in every such Case the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorized to cause a new Bill or Bills (of the new Bills before-mentioned) to be delivered in lieu of the Bill or Bills so certified to be lost, burnt or destroyed, as if the Original Bill or Bills were brought in and cancelled; provided the Person or Persons so receiving the same do give Security to his Majesty (to the good Likings of the Person or Persons who shall be appointed to take in the old Bills as aforesaid) to pay into the Exchequer, for the Use of the Publick, so much Money as is contained in such new Bill or Bills, in case the Original Bill or Bills so certified to be lost, burnt or destroyed, be hereafter produced.

South-Sea Company during seven Years from Midsummer 1720, willing to furnish Money for circulating these new Bills at their own Charge, and a Proportion of Money for circulating other Bills to be made forth,

Treasury to name three, and the Company as many Trustees, for circulating the new Bills,

LXXII. And whereas the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain (in Consideration of the Advantages which may possibly accrue to them by increasing as well their Capital Stock, as their Annuity or yearly Fund, and also their Allowance for Charges of Management, upon such Terms and Conditions as are in and by this Act prescribed in that Behalf) are willing from Time to Time, during the Term of seven Years, to be reckoned from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty, to furnish, supply and pay to such Trustees as shall be chosen and constituted, as is herein after mentioned, so much ready Money in the lawful Coins of this Realm, as shall be sufficient to enable such Trustees to exchange all such of the said Bills to be made forth by Virtue of this Act, as shall be demanded at the publick Office of the said Trustees, at any Time or Times within the said Term of seven Years, by paying in such ready Money upon every such Demand, all the Principal Monies contained in every such Bill, and the Interest which shall then be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as any such Bills shall be demanded, and are willing at their own proper Cost and Charges to bear, defray and allow, out of the Money so to be furnished from Time to Time, so much as shall be so paid by the said Trustees, for Interest upon the Bills so demanded and exchanged from Time to Time, within or during the Term last-mentioned; provided the said Trustees do from Time to Time, upon exchanging of every such new Bill as aforesaid, take in the Bill so exchanged, and shall stand possessed of the same (as to the Principal Monies therein contained, and the Interest-Monies to grow due thereupon, during the Times they shall be in the Hands or Power of the said Trustees) in Trust for the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, and shall be answerable and accountable to them for the same Monies, or the Value thereof in like Bills, as is herein after-mentioned; and in case during this or any future Session or Sessions of Parliament any other Act or Acts of Parliament be or shall be made, for making forth any further Sum or Sums in Exchequer-Bills to be circulated by Trustees at or near the Exchequer, and to be current at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of seven Years, or for any Part of the same Term, at the said Exchequer, and in the publick Revenues and Taxes, upon Credit of such Fund or Security, or of such Monies to be borrowed thereupon, as by Authority of Parliament shall be established or appointed to support the Currency thereof, then and in every such Case the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, for the Consideration aforesaid, are willing (from Time to Time during the said Term of seven Years, or for so much of that Term as the said Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by such other or future Act or Acts of Parliament, shall have a joint Currency with the said Bills to be made forth by Virtue of this Act, or be current together, or at the same Time) to furnish, supply and pay to such Trustees as shall be chosen or constituted as in this Act is afterwards mentioned, in the lawful Coins of this Realm, a proportional Part of such ready Money as shall be sufficient to enable the same Trustees to exchange all or any the Bills which shall be so current (whether they be Bills made forth by Virtue of this Act, or by any other Act or Acts of this or any future Session of Parliament) as often as any such Bill shall be demanded within the said Term of seven Years, by paying all the Principal Monies contained in such Bill, and the Interest which shall upon every such Demand be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as the same shall be demanded; which proportional Parts shall from Time to Time be ascertained and determined in Manner following, (that is to say) as the Sum Total of the Principal Monies contained in all the said Bills then uncanceled and undischarged shall be to ten hundred thousand Pounds, so the whole Sum which at any Time or Times during the said Term shall be necessary and called for to support the Currency of all the said Bills, shall be to the proportional Part to be furnished by the same Governor and Company towards supporting such Currency: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being shall, on Behalf of the Publick, name three such Persons as they shall judge to be fit for executing the Trusts relating to Exchequer-Bills in and by this Act intended, and that the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, or their Court of Directors on their Behalf, shall forthwith nominate three other Persons (being Members of their own Company, or any others) as they shall judge to be fit for executing the said Trusts in and by this Act intended; and that that upon such several Nominations the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall and may, from Time to Time, by any Writing or Writings under their Hands and Seals (to be registered in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, and to be enrolled in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells there) constitute and appoint all the Persons which shall be so chosen or nominated to be Trustees for circulating Exchequer-Bills, with Power to them, or any four or more of them, to receive as well the Monies to be furnished by the said Governor and Company pursuant to this Act, as the Monies which by any other or future Act or Acts of Parliament shall be issuable at the Exchequer for supporting the Currency thereof; and that the Trustees so to be constituted shall keep an Office at or near the Exchequer in Westminster, to which the respective Bearers of the said Bills may, at all seasonable Times of the Day (Sundays and Holydays excepted) resort to have their Bills exchanged for ready Money upon Demand.

LXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case during this or any future Session or Sessions of Parliament, any other Act or Acts of Parliament be or shall be made for making forth any further Sum or Sums in Exchequer-Bills to be circulated by Trustees at or near the Exchequer, and to be current at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of seven Years, or for any Part of the same Term, at the said Exchequer, and the Publick Revenues and Taxes, upon Credit of such Fund or Security, or of such Monies to be borrowed thereupon, as by Authority of Parliament shall be established or appointed to support the Currency thereof; then and in every such Case, the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, for the Consideration aforesaid shall, and they are hereby enjoined and required, by themselves, or their Court of Directors for the Time being (from Time to Time, during the said Term of seven Years, or for so much of that Term as the said Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by such other or future Act or Acts of Parliament, shall have a joint Currency with the said Bills to be made forth by Virtue of this Act, or be current together or at the same Time) to furnish, supply, and pay to such Trustees as shall be chosen or constituted by this Act, as aforesaid, in the lawful Coins of this Realm, a proportional Part of such ready Money as shall be sufficient to enable the same Trustees to exchange all or any the Bills which shall be so current (whether they be Bills made forth by Virtue of this Act, or by any other Act or Acts of this or any future Session of Parliament) as often as any such Bills shall be demanded within the said Term of seven Years, by paying all the Principal Monies contained in such Bills, and the Interest which shall upon every such Demand be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as the same shall be demanded, which proportional Parts shall, from Time to Time, be ascertained and determined in such Manner and Form as are before mentioned in that Behalf; and that the same Governor and Company shall, at their own proper Costs and Charges, bear, defray, and allow out of the said Proportional Money so by them to be furnished from Time to Time, a like Proportion of the Monies which shall have been paid by the said Trustees for Interest upon the Bills so demanded and exchanged (whether they be Bills made forth by Virtue of this Act, or by any other Act or Acts of this or any future Session of Parliament, (as aforesaid) within or during the said Term of seven Years: Nevertheless the said Trustees, upon exchanging the said Bills (during the Time of such joint Currency, as aforesaid) or any of them, shall be and are hereby obliged to take in the same Bills so exchanged, and to be answerable and accountable to the said Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain, and their Successors, for such Part of the Principal Sums contained therein, and the Interest-Monies to grow due thereupon, during the Times they shall be in the Hands or Power of the said Trustees, as shall bear a just Proportion to the coined Monies which the same Governor and Company shall have furnished and advanced for or towards the exchanging of the same, which Proportions of the Principal Sums so paid by way of Exchange, from Time to Time, and of the Interest last mentioned, shall and may be made good to the said Governor and Company out of the same, or other Exchequer-Bills then current, as is herein after mentioned.

I. MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas by several Laws and Statutes of this Realm now in Force it is provided and enacted, That no Goldsmith, Silversmith or other Person whatsoever shall work or make, or cause to be wrought or made, any Silver Vessel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver, less in Fineness than that of eleven Ounces and Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, nor put to Sale, exchange or sell any Silver Vessels, Plate or Manufacture of Silver (except as in the said Statutes, or some of them, are severally excepted) until such Time as such Vessel, Plate or manufactured Silver shall be touched, assayed and marked at the respective Cities or Places in the said Statutes mentioned, and by such Corporations, Officers or Persons as are thereby respectively intrusted for touching, assaying and marking the same, under such Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures as in and by the same Laws and Statutes are prescribed, as by the said several Laws and Statutes (Relation being thereunto severally had) may more plainly and fully appear: And whereas it is found by Experience, That the Silver Vessels, Plate and Manufactures of Silver, which were made according to the old Standard of eleven Ounces and Two-penny Weight of fine Silver (which Standard was altered by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of your Majesty's Royal Predecessor King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for encouraging the bringing in wrought Plate to be coined, are more serviceable and durable than the Silver Vessels, Plate and Manufactures of Silver which have been made according to the said Standard of eleven Ounces and Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said old Standard of eleven Ounces and Two-penny Weight of fine Silver at least, to be contained in every Pound Weight Troy of Silver Vessels, Plate or other Manufactures of Silver made or to be made or wrought, after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, shall be restored, revived and take Place instead of the said new Standard of eleven Ounces and Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver at least in every such Pound Troy.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty no Goldsmith, Silversmith or other Person whatsoever shall work or make, or cause to be wrought or made, any Silver Vessel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver, less in Fineness than that of eleven Ounces and Two-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, or shall put to Sale, exchange or sell any Silver Vessel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver, made after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty (unless it be Silver Wire, or such Things as in respect of their Smallness are not capable of receiving a Mark) until such Time as such Vessel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver shall be touched, assayed and marked in Manner and Form prescribed by the said Laws and Statutes, or any of them, for touching, assaying and marking of the said Standard of eleven Ounces and Ten-penny Weight fine at least in every Pound Troy, in case the same Standard had continued; and that all and every the Rules, Directions, Powers, Privileges, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, enacted or provided in or by any of the former Laws and Statutes of this Realm, which at or until the Time of making this Act were or are in Force for preserving or securing the said Standard of eleven Ounces and Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver at least in every Pound Troy, or for touching, assaying, marking or allowing for good the Silver Plate of that Standard, shall be continued, applied, practised and put in Execution for preserving and securing the Standard of eleven Ounces and Two-penny Weight of fine Silver at least in every every Pound Troy (by this Act revised and intended to be established) and for the touching, assaying, marking and allowing the same, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Rules, Directions, Powers, Privileges, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were again particularly repeated and re-enacted in and by this present Act; any Thing in the said former Laws or Statutes, or any of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. XXXIX. And whereas by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for vesting the forfeited Estates in Great Britain and Ireland in Trustees, to be sold for the Use of the Publick; and for giving Relief to lawful Creditors by determining the Claims; and for the more effectual bringing into the respective Exchequers the Rents and Profits of the said Estates till sold, and by several other Acts of Parliament relating to the said forfeited Estates, several Sums of Money have already been raised and paid into the Receipts of the respective Exchequers of England, Scotland and Ireland, or some of them, and several considerable Sums of Money arising or to arise of or for the said forfeited Estates, are expected to be brought and paid into the said Exchequers respectively: Now we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, for defraying your Majesty's publick Expences and Occasions before-mentioned, have further given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the full Sum of two hundred thousand seven hundred thirty-seven Pounds fourteen Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, to be taken out of the clear Produce of the Forfeitures for Treason, arisen or to arise into the Receipts of the said Exchequers, every or any of them, over and above the Salaries and other Charges payable for the Recovery of the said Forfeitures; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of two hundred thousand seven hundred thirty-seven Pounds fourteen Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, by such Proportions at a Time as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall find most conducive to the publick Service, shall and may be taken and applied out of the clear Produce of the Forfeitures for Treason, arisen or to arise into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, over and above the said Salaries and other Charges payable for the Recovery of the said Forfeitures; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorized and impowered to issue and apply, or cause to be issued and applied, the same accordingly; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XL. And whereas certain Duties upon Hops were by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon Hops, imposed for the Term of four Years, reckoned from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and were by an Act of the first Year of your Majesty's Reign continued until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fifteen; and by another Act of the same Year were granted to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors for ever, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament: In and by which Acts, or some of them, (amongst other Things therein contained) it was provided, That it should and might be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who should have actually paid the Duty thereby payable for any Quantity of Hops whatsoever of British Growth, and to and for any other Person or Persons, who should buy or be lawfully entitled to any such Quantity of Hops of British Growth from the said Person or Persons who actually paid the said Duty for the same, to export such Hops, being of British Growth, for Ireland by way of Merchandize; and that upon giving such Security, and performing such other Requisites as by the said Acts, or some of them, are prescribed, the Customer or Collector of the Port where such Hops shall be exported, shall give to the Exporter a Debenture expressing the true Quantity of the British Hops so exported; and that upon such Debenture the said Duty shall be repaid, or the Security for the same be discharged in the Manner and Form thereby prescribed, as by the said Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto severally had, may more fully appear: And whereas the said Duty upon Hops of British Growth is very moderate, and such Hops exported for Ireland may reasonably bear the same Duty which is charged upon those consumed in Great Britain: Now we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being minded and desirous to improve the publick Revenues, which are applicable to the discharging of publick Debts and Incumbrances, do further humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty upon Hops of British Growth, or any Part thereof, shall not be repaid or drawn back for any such Hops which shall be exported or shipped to be exported for Ireland, at any Time or Times after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty; and that no Debenture or Certificate shall be granted or made forth for or in order to the Repayment or Drawing back of the same Duty for or upon any such Hops so exported or shipped to be exported for Ireland after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty; but such Drawback or Repayment from thenceforth shall cease and determine; the said recited Acts of Parliament, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLI. And whereas it may be requisite for encouraging the several Manufactures of wrought Plate, to continue both the Standard of Plate of eleven Ounces Ten-penny Weight Troy, and also the Standard of eleven Ounces Two-penny Weight Troy, for the better Accommodating the Buyers of Plate and the Workers and Dealers therein: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty all Silver Vessels of Plate or manufactured of Silver shall not be made less in Fineness than that of eleven Ounces Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, or of Silver less in Fineness than eleven Ounces Two-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy; which two different Standards of wrought Plate shall be severally and respectively marked with distinguishing Marks; (that is to say) Vessels made of Silver Plate or manufactured Silver not less in Fineness than eleven Ounces Ten-penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, to be marked with the Workman's Mark, the Mark of the Wardens of the Mystery or Craft of the Goldsmiths, and with the Figure of a Lion's Head erased, and the Figure of a Woman called the Britannia;

and on Repayment of the Principal, then they are to cease, and any Vote of the Commons signed by the Speaker, shall be sufficient Notice.

12 Car. 2. c. 4. I. WHEREAS by the tenth Rule annexed to an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize exported and imported, which has been continued by several subsequent Acts, and is now in Force, it is provided, That if any Wines shall prove corrupt and unmerchantable, and fit for nothing but to distil into hot Waters, or to make Vinegar, then every Owner of such Wines shall be abated in the Subsidy according to such his Damages in those Wines, by the Discretion of the Collectors of the Customs and one of the principal Officers: And whereas several other Subsidies, Impositions and Duties have been since laid, and are now payable to his Majesty, on the Importation of Wines into this Kingdom by several Acts of Parliament now in Force; which several Acts have Reference to the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and to the said Rule in making Allowances for the Damages out of the respective Duties on Wines imported (except the Duty payable on Wines for the encouraging of Coinage, by an Act passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second:) And whereas frequent Disputes do arise between the Officers of the Customs and the Merchants, in the making and adjusting the Allowances which damaged Wines may deserve, the same depending for the most part on the Taste thereof: For the preventing the like Disputes for the future, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the second Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty the said tenth Rule annexed to the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage be, and the same is hereby repealed, made void and shall no longer be put in Practice; any Thing in the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, or in any other Act or Acts, in any wise to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Merchant or other Person, shall find his Wine or any Part thereof so damaged, corrupt or unmerchantable, that he shall refuse to pay or secure the Duties for the same, he shall have Liberty, immediately after the Landing the Wines, to stave, spill, or otherwise destroy such Wines in the Presence of two or more of the Officers of the Customs, to be appointed by the Collector, and one of the Principal Officers of the Port, who shall take an exact Account of the Quantity of Wine which the Merchant or other Person shall so stave, spill or otherwise destroy, to the End the Duty of such Wine may be repaid, without any Delay or Charge to the Merchant, by Certificate, or that the Quantity of Wine so staved, spilled or otherwise destroyed, be deducted from the Foot of the Account of the Merchant refusing to pay or secure the Duty of such Wine, as aforesaid, in the Book or Books kept by the proper Officer or Officers appointed to the Discharge of the Ship importing the Wine.

By 12 Geo. 1. c. 28. sect. 20. The Commissioners may sell damaged Wines, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That over and above the Duties repaid or allowed, as aforesaid, the Merchant or other Person shall, for every Ton of Wine, containing two hundred fifty and two Gallons, of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duties as such, and of the Growth of France, so staved, spilled or otherwise destroyed, be allowed as a Compensation for the Freight and other Charges, the Sum of four Pounds; and Wines of the Growth of Spain, Portugal, and elsewhere, the Sum of eight Pounds per Ton, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity, which Allowances shall without Delay be paid by Certificate out of the Duties arising by the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and the Officers are hereby required and directed to make, pass, and pay such Certificate without Fee or Reward.

V. And for the further Encouragement of the Wine-Trade, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the second Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty, every British Merchant shall have eighteen Months Time from the Importation of all Wines to export the same; and every Alien or Stranger shall have fifteen Months Time from the Importation of all Wines to export the same, which Importation shall be reckoned from the Master's Report of the Ship; and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within twelve Months or nine Months respectively, as mentioned in the second and fourth Rules annexed to the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; Provided Certificates and Oaths be made, and all other Requisites performed, according to the Laws now in being, relating to the Importation and Exportation of Wine.

British Merchants shall have 18 Months, and Aliens 15, to export Wines imported, to be computed from the Master's Report; Enlarged by 7 Geo. 1. c. 21. sect. 10.

Provided Certificates and Oaths be made, &c.

VI. And as a further Encouragement, Be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above the present Duties drawn back on the Exportation of Wine, the Merchant Exporter be allowed, on the Terms and Conditions aforesaid, two Thirds of the Import Duty paid on the Importation of Wine by Virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the first Year of King JAMES the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the four and twentieth of June one thousand six hundred and eighty-five, and the four and twentieth of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which by several subsequent Acts is continued and still in Force; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Exporter to be allowed Two Thirds of the Duty paid on Importation, by the Act of 1 Jac. 2. c. 3.

VII. Provided, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That any Thing in this Act contained or to be done in Execution thereof, shall not extend or be construed to extend to diminish or lessen the Duties of Prizage and Butlerage of Wines due upon the Importation of the same, but that the said Duties shall be collected, taken and received in the same Manner as if this present Act had never been made.

This Act shall not lessen the Duties of Prizage, &c.

12 Car. 2. c. 13.

After Sept. 29. 1720. the Proviso in the recited Act, as to the Importation of Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn of the Product of Asia, is repealed, except to Places within the Grand Signior's Dominions.

Time of Passing the said recited Act, the Subjects of France exported very little Woollen Manufacture into Turkey, and were then supplied with great Quantities of Woollen Goods from England for their own Use, and likewise with Raw Silks, and other Goods of Turkey, which were the Returns of English Woollen Manufactures; for all which the Importation into France was then free for the Subjects of England: And whereas the Woollen Manufacture in France has since that Time been greatly increased, and very large Quantities of such Goods are now annually imported from thence to Turkey, in Return whereof they bring from thence Raw Silk and other Commodities to Marseilles, and other Parts in France, great Quantities whereof are carried into Italy, and from thence imported into Great Britain in English Shipping, greatly to the Discouragement of the Woollen Manufactures of Great Britain, and the Advancement thereof in France; and without some speedy Care therein, the British Trade to Turkey will be daily lessened, and is in Danger of being intirely lost: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, the said last recited Clause or Proviso, as to the Importation of Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn, of the Product or Manufacture of Asia, shall be, and is hereby repealed, excepting only as to the Ports and Places in the said Streights or Levant Seas which are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior.

C A P. XV.

An Act to repeal so much of the Act, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of King CHARLES the Second, as relates to the prohibiting the Importation of Deal-Boards and Fir-Timber from Germany.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11. sect. 23.

I. WHEREAS by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, Deal-Boards and Fir-Timber are (among other Things therein mentioned) prohibited to be imported from the Netherlands or Germany, upon any Pretence whatsoever, in any Sort of Ships or Vessels whatsoever, upon Penalty of the Loss of all the said Goods, as also the Ship and Furniture: And whereas Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards, are not only found to be useful and necessary in the Building and Refitting his Majesty's Ships of War, and other Ships and Vessels, but the same have of late Years been, and now are very much used in and about all Manner of Buildings, which hath occasioned so great a Demand for, and Consumption of the said Commodities, that the Price thereof, at the Places from whence the same may now be lawfully imported, is very much increased, to the Prejudice of Trade, which may be remedied, if the said Prohibition be taken off, whereby the said Commodities will become more plentiful, and the Price thereof much reduced: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of August which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty, so much of the said Act, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, as prohibits the Importation of Deal-Boards and Fir-Timber from Germany only, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, annulled and made void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

After Aug. 1. 1720. so much of the recited Act as prohibits the Importation of Deal-Boards, &c. from Germany only, shall be repealed. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11.

His Majesty's Subjects may import Fir-Timber, &c. from Germany, paying the like Duties as that imported from Norway.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, It shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty's Subjects, to import any Quantity or Quantities of Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards, being of the Growth of Germany, into this Kingdom, from any Port or Place in Germany, in British built Ships only, so as the Owner or Owners are his Majesty's British Subjects, and whereof the Master, and three Fourths of the Mariners at least are British Subjects, paying the like Rates and Duties to his Majesty for the same, as are now payable for Fir-Timber, Fir-Planks, Masts, and Deal-Boards imported from Norway.

Not to repeal the Clause in the recited Act so far as it prohibits the Importation of the said Commodities from the Netherlands.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge or repeal the said Clause in the said Act of Parliament, so far as the same prohibits Importation of the said Commodities from the Netherlands: But as to such Importation thereof from the Netherlands, or any Port or Place therein, the before-mentioned Act, and all the Penalties and Forfeitures therein contained, shall be in full Force and Effect, as fully and entirely as if this Act had never been made; any Thing in this present Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for better securing certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majesty by two Charters for Assurance of Ships and Merchandizes at Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry; and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned.

43 Eliz. c. 12.

c. 23.

His Majesty may grant Charters to two distinct Companies for Assurance of Ships, and for lending Money on Bottomry, to have perpetual Succession, but subject to Redemption.

They may choose their own Governors, &c.

The first Governor, &c. to be appointed by his Majesty.
To continue in their Places for three Years, &c.

I. MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas it hath for many Ages past been esteemed good Policy, by all proper Ways and Means, to secure and encourage the Trade of this Realm, whereby the Wealth and Strength of the same, and particularly the Shipping, Navigation and publick Revenues thereof, have been increased; and it hath been, Time out of Mind, a Custom or Usage amongst Merchants, as well of this Realm as of foreign Nations, when they make any Adventures at Sea (especially into remote or dangerous Parts) to give a Premium or Consideration to particular Persons, to have from such particular Persons Assurance of or upon Ships, Goods or Merchandizes adventured, or some of them, at such Rates or Prices as the Parties Assurers and the Parties assured can agree, which Kind of Contract or Dealing is commonly called a Policy of Assurance, and several Laws and Statutes now in Force have been made concerning the same Assurances; notwithstanding which it is found by Experience, That many particular Persons, after they have received large Premiums or Consideration-Monies for or towards the insuring Ships, Goods and Merchandizes at Sea, have become Bankrupts, or otherwise failed in answering or complying with their Policies of Assurance, whereby they were particularly engaged to make good or contribute towards the Losses which Merchants or Traders have sustained, to the Ruin or Impoverishment of many Merchants and Traders, and to the Discouragement of Adventurers at Sea, and to the great Diminution of the Trade, Wealth, Strength and publick Revenues of this Kingdom: And whereas it is conceived, That if two several and distinct Corporations, with a competent Joint Stock to each of them belonging, and under proper Conditions, Restrictions and Regulations, were erected and established for Assurance of Ships, Goods or Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea (exclusive of all or any other Corporations or Bodies Politick already created, or hereafter to be created, and likewise exclusive of such Societies or Partnerships as now are or may hereafter be entred into for that Purpose) several Merchants or Traders, who adventure their Estates, or Part of their Estates, in such Ships, Goods or Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea (especially in remote or hazardous Voyages) would think it much safer for them to depend on the Policies or Assurances of either of those two Corporations so to be erected and established, than on the Policies or Assurances of private or particular Persons; and that such Merchants or Adventurers as shall hereafter be minded to agree for Assurance of their Ships, Goods or Merchandizes with private or particular Persons, may still be at Liberty so to do according to their own Option or Choice: And whereas it has also been a Custom or Usage in this as well as in other Nations, for Merchants or Traders, who adventure their Ships and Merchandizes at Sea, to borrow Money to be repaid upon the Return or Arrival of such Ships, which Kind of borrowing is commonly called, taking up Money on Bottomry; in which Cases the Lenders run a Risque or Hazard, more or less, of losing their Principal, and are therefore allowed to contract for such Interest or Consideration-Money for the Use or Forbearance of the Principal, as can be agreed upon between the Borrowers and the Lenders; and it is considered, That it may be a great Advantage and Encouragement to Trade and Navigation, if such Merchants and Traders might have it in their Power, at their own Election, either to have Recourse to one of the Corporations to be erected and established in Pursuance of this Act, or to private or particular Persons, for borrowing Money upon Bottomry as aforesaid, at such Rate or Rates as shall be agreed upon between such Borrowers and Lenders respectively: And whereas the sole Right and Prerogative of granting Charters of Incorporation (not being such as are repugnant to any Law or Statute of this Realm) doth belong to your Majesty; and it is considered, That if your Majesty shall be graciously pleased to grant two such distinct Charters as aforesaid, the Members of each Corporation so to be erected and established (for and in Consideration of the Advantages which may accrue to them respectively thereby, and for having reasonable Powers and Privileges secured to them in Pursuance of this Act) may be willing to pay to your Majesty's Use such Sums of Money, at such Times and by such Proportions, as are herein after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, by one Charter or Indenture under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to declare and grant, That such and so many Persons (who shall be named therein, and of whose Abilities and Fitness his Majesty shall thereby declare himself to be well satisfied) and all and every such other Person and Persons as hereafter from Time to Time shall be duly admitted as Members into their Corporation, shall be one distinct and separate Body Politick and Corporate for the Assurance of Ships, Goods and Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry, by such Name as his Majesty shall think most proper: And that it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, by another Charter or Indenture under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to declare and grant, That such and so many other Persons (who shall be named therein, and of whose Abilities and Fitness his Majesty shall thereby declare himself to be well satisfied) and all and every such other Person and Persons as hereafter from Time to Time shall be duly admitted as Members into their Corporation, shall be one other distinct and separate Body Politick and Corporate for Assurance of Ships, Goods and Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry, by such Name as his Majesty also shall think most proper: And that the said several and respective Corporations, by their respective Names aforesaid, shall have perpetual Succession, subject nevertheless to such Redemption or Power of Revocation as hereafter in this Act is provided concerning the same; and that the said several and respective Corporations, during the Continuance thereof respectively, shall have Power from Time to Time to choose their respective Governors, Directors and other Officers and Servants, for better Management of the Affairs of the same Corporations respectively, in such Manner and under such Qualifications, as shall be prescribed in and by the said respective Charters or Indentures in that Behalf; nevertheless the first Governor and Directors of each of the said two Corporations shall or may be appointed by his Majesty, in and by the same Charters or Indentures respectively; and that the said first Governors and Directors, and all subsequent Governors and Directors, shall continue in their respective Offices for three Years, and in case of Death or Removal be supplied as in such respective Charters or Indentures shall be prescribed; II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That each of the said two Corporations to be erected and established as aforesaid (for and in Consideration of the Benefits and Advantages which may accrue to them respectively by Virtue of the said respective Charters or Indentures, and the Grants thereby to be made to each of them) shall be obliged by Force and Virtue of this Act, and of the respective Charters or Indentures before-mentioned, to pay or cause to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer at Westminster, for the Use of the King's Majesty, in order to discharge the Debts and Expences of his Civil Government, the full Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain (which for both Corporations will amount in the Whole to six hundred thousand Pounds;) the said Payments for each Corporation to be made in Manner following; that is to say, One full and equal third Part thereof within one calendar Month after the Date of the respective Charter or Indenture, for or upon Account of which such Payment is to be made; one full and equal sixth Part thereof within three calendar Months after such Date; one other full and equal sixth Part thereof within five calendar Months after such Date; one other full and equal sixth Part thereof within eight calendar Months after such Date; and the remaining sixth Part thereof within ten calendar Months after such Date, without any Deduction, Defalcation or Abatement whatsoever.

III. And it is hereby enacted, That in case the said Corporations, or either of them, shall make Failure in Payment of the said several Sums of three hundred thousand Pounds and three hundred thousand Pounds, to be paid by each of them respectively as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, at the respective Times herein before limited for Payment of the same, then and in every or any such Case or Cases, the Money whereof such Failure in Payment shall be made, shall and may be recovered in his Majesty's Name against the particular Corporation or Corporations making such Failure, by Action of Debt or upon the Case, Bill, Suit or Information in any his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Effoin, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparance; and in such Action, Bill, Suit or Information it shall be lawful to declare, That the said Corporation so making Default in Payment is indebted to the King's Majesty the Money whereof such Default in Payment shall have been made, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and in or upon such Action, Bill, Suit or Information there shall be further recovered against the Defendants Damage after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum for the Monies so unpaid, besides full Costs of Suit; and each Corporation so making Default in Payment, and its Stock and Effects shall be and are hereby made subject and liable thereunto; and if Default shall be made in the Payment of the said several and respective Sums of three hundred thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, by the Space of thirty Days after any of the Days of Payment limited as aforesaid for the Payment of the same, or any Proportion thereof, that then and from thenceforth it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Instrument or Writing under his or their Great Seal of Great Britain or Privy Seal, to signify his or their Pleasure for revoking and making void, and thereby to revoke and make void all the Powers, Privileges and Advantages to be granted as aforesaid to that particular Corporation so making Default, and to determine the same Corporation; and thereupon the said Powers, Privileges and Advantages shall accordingly be revoked, and the same Corporation shall be determined, without any Inquisition, Scire facias, or any Matter or Thing to make void and determine the same; any Thing in this present Act contained, or in such Charters or Indentures to be contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

with the Duties chargeable thereon by the Officers for the said Duties on Malt, when such Malt was in the Cistern or Uting Vat, or upon the Couch, by watering or wetting the said Malt, whilst the same is working upon the Floor; and by those and other undue Practices causing the said Malt not only to run out and grow at that End of the Grain from which the Root proceeds, but also to sprout, run out and grow at the other End of the Grain from which the Blade proceeds, which last mentioned sprouting, running out and growing at the End from which the Blade proceeds, is commonly called and known by the Name of Acrespiring, and is not only a great Prejudice to the Malt so made, but increases the same much in Bulk and Measure, to the great Disparagement of the Trade of British Malt in Parts beyond the Seas, and lessening of his Majesty's Revenues: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty no Malster or Baker of Malt for Sale or Exportation shall cause or permit any Barley, or other Corn or Grain by him, her or them making into Malt, to be steeped, wetted or watered upon the Couch or Floor, or in any other Place but in his, her and their respective Cisterns or Uting Vats, duly entered for that Purpose at the Office of Excise of the Division or Place where such Malt shall be wetted, on Pain of forfeiting for every Bushel of Malt which shall be found to have been steeped, wetted or watered contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence. IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any unmalted Oats or Barley shall be found mixt with or amongst Malt shipping or shipped for Exportation, that then and in every such Case, the Person or Persons who shall ship or cause or procure to be shipped such Malt so mixed shall, for every Bushel thereof, forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings.

V. And for preventing of Frauds in the Shipping of Malt for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, and afterwards relanding the same: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenues of Excise for the Time being, or the major Part of them respectively, from Time to Time, to constitute and appoint one or more Officer or Officers in such of the Ports of this Kingdom where any Malt may, is or shall be shipped in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, with Intent to obtain a Drawback or Bounty, not only to see and attend the Measuring of all Malt which shall be shipped or laid on board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, in such Port or Ports respectively, but also to continue on board such Ships or Vessels on which such Malt shall be laden or shipped, until the same shall be respectively cleared their respective Ports, in order to prevent the relanding thereof.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the four and twentieth Day of June aforesaid, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall oppose, molest, hinder or obstruct any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted to such Officer or Officers, by this or any other Act or Acts relating ting to the Duties of Excise, every such Person or Persons so doing, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of ten Pounds.

VIII. And for the more effectual preventing the forcing together of Corn, steeping or steeped in order to the making thereof into Malt, whereby the rising and swelling of such Corn being prevented and hindered, his Majesty is thereby very much defrauded of and in his Duty upon Malt: Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the four and twentieth Day of June aforesaid, any Corn in any Cistern or Utting Vat, steeping or steeped in order to the making thereof into Malt, by any Malster or Baker of Malt, (other than Compounders for the Duty on Malt) is or shall be found so hard, close and compact, as it could not be, unless the same had by some Means or other been forced together to prevent the rising and swelling thereof, every Malster and Baker of Malt (other than Compounders for the Duty on Malt) where the same shall be so found shall, in every such Case, forfeit and lose the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence per Bushel for every Bushel of such Corn, steeping or steeped, which shall be found so hard, close and compact, as aforesaid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Information and Informations, Complaint and Complaints, and other Proceedings whatsoever, as well before such Commissioners of Excise as aforesaid, as also before Justices of the Peace respectively, by Virtue or in Pursuance of this or any other Act or Acts whatsoever relating to the Duties of Excise, or to any other Duty or Duties whatsoever under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, are and were intended to be, and shall and may be entred and inrolled in the English Tongue; any Law, Statute or Provision whatsoever to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXV. And

XXV. XXVII. And whereas for the better Preservation of Hops, it is thought convenient for the Owners or Planters thereof to be at Liberty to put the same into Casks instead of Bags: Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Owners or Planters of Hops, if they shall think fit, to put the said Hops into Casks, such Owner or Owners, Planter or Planters first giving the like Notice of the Time that he, she or they intend to weigh, and put the said Hops into Casks, as he, she or they are by Law required to give of the bagging of Hops respectively; and in case any Owner or Owners, Planter or Planters, shall put any Hops into Casks without such Notice, then he, she or they shall be liable to the like Penalties, as such Owner or Owners, Planter or Planters would have been liable unto, in case such Hops so put into Casks, had been bagged without such Notice.

XXIX. And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act against clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, any Ship, Vessel or Boat of the Burthen of fifteen Tons or under, wherein any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek thereof (except only for the Use of the Seamen then on board, not exceeding one Gallon for each such Seaman) such Ship, Vessel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, or the Value thereof, is forfeited and lost, and shall and may be seized, recovered, broke up and sold, as therein mentioned: And whereas to elude the Penalty of the said Law, many ill-disposed Persons do now carry on a clandestine Trade, by importing these Goods in Ships and Vessels above fifteen Tons: For the Prevention thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters, or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever, shall, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat, of the Burthen of thirty Tons or under (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel or Boat, not exceeding one Gallon for each such Seaman) every such Ship, Vessel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, as also all such Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters or Spirits, or the Value thereof, thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be prosecuted by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Seizor or Prosecutor; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Seizure and Condemnation, Ship to be broke up and sold, &c. Such Ship, &c. may be used, 12 Geo. 1. c. 28. sect. 14.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel or Boat, the same shall be intirely broke up, and publickly sold to the best Advantage, together with the Tackle, Furniture and Apparel thereto belonging, and the Produce thereof divided in like Manner as the Ships, Vessels and Boats, under fifteen Tons, are to be broke up, sold, and the Produce thereof divided by Virtue of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11.

XXXI. And whereas by the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, a Remedy was provided amongst other Things to prevent the Running of Brandy from Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tons or under, which lie hovering on the Coast within the Limits of the Ports of this Kingdom, and the Exportation of Wool: And whereas such Ships or Vessels, to elude the Intent of that Law, do lie at Anchor, or hover on the Coasts as near to the said Limits as may be, whereby the Masters of such Ships or Vessels have better Opportunities of making their Signals to the Exporters of Wool, and the Runners of uncustomed and prohibited Goods, to draw down to the Sea-side (as they frequently do in great Numbers of armed Men) and of Running the Goods on Shore, and carrying off the Wool and Coin of this Kingdom in their Boats, which make more frequent Trips to and from the Shore than they could do, if such Ships or Vessels were obliged to lie at a greater Distance from the Shore: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, where any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of fifty Tons or under, being in Part or fully laden with Brandy, shall be found at Anchor or hovering within two Leagues from the Shore, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commander of any of his Majesty's Ships of War, Frigots or armed Sloops, appointed for the Guard of the Coasts, or to and for the Commander of any Pacht, Smack, Sloop, or other Boat or Vessel in the Service of his Majesty's Customs, or to and for any Officer of his Majesty's Customs, to compel the Master or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, to come into Port: And it is hereby declared, That such Master or other Person, as aforesaid, as likewise such Ship or Vessel, and the Brandy wherewith such Ship or Vessel is laden, in Part or in the Whole, shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, as such Cargoes, Ships and Vessels, and the Masters or others taking Charge thereof, which hover within the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, are by the said Act subject unto; any Thing therein, or in any other Act to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Ships under 50 Tons hovering within two Leagues of the Shore, Commanders of Men of War, &c. or Officers of the Customs, may compel Master to come into Port, &c.

Master, &c. suffering Brandy or uncustomed Goods to be put out of his Ship, or Wool, &c. to be taken in from the Shore, besides former Penalties, shall suffer six Months Imprisonment.

XXXII. And forasmuch as such illegal Importations and Exportations cannot be carried on by such Ships or Vessels, if the Masters or Commanders thereof do take due Care to prevent the same: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, if the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall suffer any Brandy, or other uncustomed or prohibited Goods, to be put out of the said Ship or Vessel into any Bay, Lighter, Boat or Bottom, to be laid on Land, or shall suffer any Wool, Wool-fells, Worlings, Shortlings, Parn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth, Fulling-Clay, or Tobacco-Pipe-Clay, to be laden or taken in from the Shore, to be put on board such Ship or Vessel, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, he or they so offending, being convicted thereof, shall, besides the Penalties and Forfeitures to which they will be liable by any Law now in Being, suffer six Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize.

The Rule to measure the Contents of the Tonnage of such Ships.

XXXIII. And for the preventing Disputes that may arise concerning the Admeasurement of Ships laden with Brandy and other Spirits, as aforesaid, or Ships hovering on the Coast: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the following Rule shall be observed therein, that is to say, Take the Length of the Keel within board, (so much as she treads on the Ground) and the Breadth within board by the Hipship-Beam, from Plank to Plank, and Half the Breadth for the Depth, then multiply the Length by the Breadth, and that Product by the Depth, and divide the Whole by ninety-four, the Quotient will give the true Contents of the Tonnage, according to which Rule, the Tonnage of all such Ships and Vessels shall be measured and ascertained; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Eight or more hindring, wounding, &c. Officers in Execution of their Office, to be transported.

XXXIV. And whereas the Punishment already inflicted by Law on such who shall forcibly hinder Officers of the Customs in the due Performance of their Duty, has proved insufficient: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, if any Officer or Officers of the Customs be forcibly hindered, wounded, or beaten in the due Execution of their Office, by any Persons armed with Club, or any Manner of Weapon, tumultuously assembled in the Day or Night, to the Number of eight or more Persons, all and every Person or Persons so forcibly hindring, wounding or beating the said Officer or Officers, or such as shall aid or assistance, being convicted thereof, shall, by Order of the Court, before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, be transported to some of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, for such Term as the Court shall think fit, not exceeding seven Years, in the same Manner as by an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further preventing Robbery, Burglary, or other Felonies, and for the more effectual Transportation of unlawful Exporters of Wool, and for declaring the Law upon some Points relating to Pirates, the Offenders therein mentioned are to be transported to the said Colonies and Plantations.

4 Geo. 1. c. 11.

Returning into Great Britain or Ireland, Felony.

XXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain or Ireland, before the Expiration of the said Term, contrary to the Intent and Meaning hereof, he or they so returning, shall suffer as Felons, and have Execution awarded against them as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

XXXVI. Pro

XXXVI. Provided nevertheless, That if any such Offender shall within two Months after such his Offence, and before his Conviction, discover two or more of his Accomplices therein to the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, so as they, or two of them at least, be convicted of such Offence, the Offender so discovering shall have and receive the Sum of forty Pounds for every Offender so discovered and convicted, as a Reward for such his Discovery, and shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his Offence.

Offender, before Conviction, discovering two of his Accomplices within two Months, to have 40l. for each, and acquitted.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, if any other Person or Persons shall, within three Months after such Offence shall have been committed, discover to the said Commissioners respectively any Person or Persons who shall have been guilty of such Offence, so as such Offender or Offenders be convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall have and receive the like Reward of forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, over and above any other Reward and Recompence which he or they may be entitled unto on Account of the Goods so carried or conveyed away, which shall be recovered by Means of such his or their Discovery, or on Account of the Penalty which shall be recovered for the running the said Goods.

Other Persons discovering in three Months to have 40l. over and above any other Reward.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland, shall cause the several Rewards of forty Pounds for the Discovery of the Offenders before-mentioned, to be paid by the respective Receiver General or Cashier of the Customs for the Time being, out of any publick Money in his Hands under the Management of the said Commissioners, upon producing to them a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of the Judge or Justice of the Court before whom the Cause shall be tried, certifying the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders; and the Money so paid by any Receiver General, as aforesaid, shall be accepted of and allowed in his Accounts, as so much paid to his Majesty, and he is and shall be hereby discharged thereof accordingly; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

To be paid by the Cashier of the Customs.

XXXIX. And whereas prohibited and customable Goods found by Officers of his Majesty's Customs in the Custody of Persons in Boats on the Water, or coming directly from the Water-side, to wit, the customable Goods on Suspicion they were unshipped without Payment of Duty, and the prohibited Goods for being imported contrary to Law, and such Goods being also found in other Places, upon Information that they were clandestinely run, are in like Manner stopt until the Persons in whose Custody the same are found, or the Owners of such Goods, shall apply to the Commissioners of the Customs, or to the Collector of the Port where such Goods are stopt respectively, that the said Goods may be discharged in case there be no just Cause to detain the same; nevertheless the Owners of the Goods, instead of making such Application, do sue the Officers for more than the Value thereof, to their great Charge and Discouragement in the Execution of their Duty: And whereas there is good Reason to believe, that many ill-disposed Persons do put themselves purposely in the way of Officers with such Goods in their Custody, and that others, by the Directions of the Owners, do falsely or deceitfully inform the Officers that the Goods were run, to the Intent such Officers should seize the same, in order to sue the Officers, and thereby the Owners get excessive Prices for their Goods, and the Officers are deterred from making Seizures, whereby the clandestine running of Goods is greatly encouraged: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, if prohibited or customable Goods shall be found by any Officer or Officers of the Customs in the Custody of any Person or Persons, being in a Bark, Hoy, Lighter, Barge, Boat or Wherry on the Water, or coming directly from the Water-side, without the Presence of an Officer, or if such Goods shall, upon the Information of one or more credible Person or Persons, be found in any House, Shop, Cellar, Ware-house, Room, or other Place, on a Search there made in such Manner as in and by an Act made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, is mentioned and directed, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers to stop and put the said Goods in his Majesty's Ware-house in the Port next to the Place where such Stop shall be made, there to remain until the Claimer or Claimers thereof shall make Proof by Oath, or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Customs, if such Stop shall be made within the Ports of London or Edinburgh respectively, that the Duties of the customable Goods have been paid, or secured to be paid, or that the same had been bought in a lawful way of Trade, and that he, she or they so claiming the said Goods, do verily believe the Duties thereof to have been paid, or secured to be paid, or that the said Goods had been compounded for, or condemned in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster or Edinburgh, or been otherwise delivered by Writ of that Court respectively, and that the prohibited Goods had been compounded for, or condemned, or otherwise delivered, as aforesaid, in which Case such Goods shall and may be delivered without Delay or Charge: And if such Goods shall be stopped in any other of the Ports within this Kingdom, the Claimer or Claimers thereof shall and may make the like Proof to the like Purpose, as aforesaid, and deliver the same to the Collector, or in his Absence, to one of the other Principal Officers of the Customs in the Port where such Stop shall be made, which Proof shall, without loss of Time, be transmitted to the said Commissioners respectively, for their Directions touching the immediate Delivery of such Goods, without Charge to the Claimer or Claimers, or for the seizing and prosecuting of the same, as the said Commissioners shall see Cause.

Prohibited or customable Goods in any Boat, &c. or in any House, &c. Officer may stop and ware-house the same till claimed, &c.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11.

XL. Provided, such Proof be made within ten Days after the Goods shall have been so stopped, in Failure whereof the same shall and may be seized, and prosecuted in such Manner as by the several and respective Laws now in Force against the Importation of prohibited or uncustomed Goods, is provided, the Forfeiture of such Goods after Condemnation, shall be to and for such Uses, and according to such Proportions or Shares, as are therein and there- by respectively mentioned and distributed.

Proof to be in 10 Days after Stopping.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if upon such Prosecution where no Application hath been made to the Commissioners or Officers aforesaid, and not otherwise, the Property of the Goods shall be claimed by any Person or Persons, and if any Question, Dispute or Doubt shall arise, whether the Duties thereof were paid or secured, or that the said Goods had been compounded for, or condemned, or otherwise delivered by Writ Writ out of the Court of Exchequer, or bought in a lawful way of Trade, the Proof shall be incumbent on such Claimer or Claimers, and not on the Seizor or Prosecutor; and if thereupon a Verdict shall pass for such Claimer or Claimers, or if the Officer or Officers shall become Nonsuit, or forbear Prosecution, or discontinue the same, or if upon Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Officer or Officers, then and in any of the said Cases, the Claimer or Claimers shall, over and above the Recovery of his, her or their Goods, or the Value thereof, have reasonable Costs of Suit, for which he, she or they shall have the like Remedy as where Costs by Law are awarded, which said Costs of Suit shall be reckoned and esteemed as a full Satisfaction for the said Claimer or Claimers Damages occasioned by the Detention and Seizure of the said Goods.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where the Claimer or Claimers of such Goods so stoppt, as aforesaid, shall make Proof either by Oath before any Justice of the Peace, or other Person impowered to administer the same, or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Customs respectively, or Officers of the Customs, as aforesaid, in Manner before directed and appointed, so as to induce the respective Commissioners to order the Delivery of the Goods so stoppt; and if the Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers of such Goods, shall receive any Damage by Means of such Stop; then and in such Case the Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers of the said Goods, shall and may receive such Goods by Virtue of such Order, without any Charge or Delay; and it shall and may nevertheless be lawful to and for such Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers, to bring his, her or their Action or Actions against the Officer or Officers, who shall stop his, her or their Goods, for such reasonable Damages, which he, she or they shall or may have sustained by Means of the said Goods being so stoppt or detained, as aforesaid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it declared to be the true Intent and Meaning hereof, That if the Officer or Officers who shall stop such Goods, or any other Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall be desirous to seize and prosecute the same, notwithstanding any Directions of the Commissioners of the Customs for the Delivery of the said Goods respectively, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer or Officers to seize and prosecute the same in such Manner as by the several and respective Laws of the Customs now in Force such Goods may be seized and prosecuted, in every of which Cases the Officer or Officers so prosecuting shall be liable, and he or they are hereby declared liable to be sued by the Owner or Owners of the said Goods for the Recovery of the same, or the Value thereof, with full Costs of Suit; or if the said Commissioners shall not order the Delivery of the said Goods so stoppt, then and in such Case, the Owner and Owners, Claimer or Claimers of such Goods, shall and may nevertheless sue for the Recovery of such Goods, together with Costs and Damages, according to the usual Course of Law, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as he or they might have done before the passing of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Offences in this Act mentioned, relating to the Customs, or other Duties upon Importation or Exportation, or to uncustomed or prohibited Goods (except as in this Act is otherwise provided) shall and may be heard, tried and determined by Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XLV. And whereas by an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins; and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callico, China Ware and Drugs, it is enacted, That any Person or Persons may import into this Kingdom, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Tea, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, and so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices and Tea so intended to be imported, and the Place to which they intend to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Time being for the Landing and Importing thereof, as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise, and upon several imported Commodities, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is enacted, That Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves and Mace, may be imported into Great Britain, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, the Importer thereof first giving Notice to the said Commissioners of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices, and the Place into which he intends to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the importing thereof, which Importation is to be continued during the Continuance of the said respective Acts, which are still in Force: And whereas many ill-disposed Persons having taken out Licences for great Quantities of the said Spices and Tea, do import the same at several Times in small Parcels, with Intent secretly to land the same as Opportunity shall offer; but if the said Spices or Tea are found by the Officers of the Customs on board the Ship, the Importers to prevent the Seizures thereof, do produce their Licences, and pretend that those Spices or Tea are Part of the Quantities mentioned in the said Licences, whereby there is good Reason to suspect that great Frauds are frequently committed, to the lessening of his Majesty's Revenue, and Prejudice to the fair Merchant: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Licence to be granted from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in Pursuance of the said Acts, and during their Continuance, for the importing of Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Tea, shall be expressed the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices and Tea, and the Place or Port into which the same are intended to be imported; and that if any greater Quantity of the said Spices or Tea shall be imported, than what is expressed in the said Licence, the same so imported shall be deemed to be imported without a Licence; and such Licence shall and may be granted without any Fee or Reward by the Commissioners or chief Managers of the Customs for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or by the Customier or Collector and Controller of the Port into which the said Spices and Tea are to be imported, so as that all Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace and Cinnamon, to be imported into this Kingdom

Kingdom by Virtue of such Licence, from any Place or Places beyond the Seas, other than directly from the East-Indies; be not in any other Package than in Casks or Bales: which Casks or Bales shall contain the Quantity hereafter mentioned; that is to say, each Cask of Nutmegs, Cloves or Mace to weigh neat three hundred Pounds Weight, or upwards, each Bale of Cinnamon to weigh neat seventy Pounds Weight, or upwards.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the Licence so taken out for Spice and Tea as afore-Licence to be delivered up at entering the Ship.

 said shall be delivered to the Merchant demanding the same; which Licence shall be produced and delivered up by the Master, Purser or other Person taking Charge of the Ship wherein such Spice or Tea shall be imported, with the Name of the Ship and Master, together with the Marks and Numbers of each Cask, Bale or Parcel, and the Quantity and Quality of such Spice or Tea indorsed on the Back thereof, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port into which the same shall be imported, at the Time of his or their entering the Ship; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLVII. And whereas such Spices are frequently imported in Bags and other small Parcels packed in Hogheads, Casks, Bales or other Package, in order to run the same clandestinely: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Spices above-mentioned shall be found on board any Ship or Vessel in Bags or other small Parcels packed in Hogheads, Casks or Bales, the same shall be forfeited; one Moiety whereof to be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform or sue for the same in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XLVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty
8 Ann. c. 13.
 Queen ANNE made (amongst other Things) for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks, it was enacted, That no Debenture should be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate should be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland, or any two of them, where such Goods should be landed, testifying the Landing thereof (the Danger of the Seas or Enemies excepted): And whereas it frequently happens, that Tobacco imported into this Kingdom, and afterwards shipped again for Ireland, doth in the Carriage thither waste and decrease in Weight, but as the Law now stands no more Drawback can be allowed, than for the Quantity of Tobacco particularly specified in the said Certificates returned from Ireland: Now for the Encouragement of all fair Traders that shall send Tobacco for Ireland, It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from Time to Time, upon producing such Certificates as aforesaid under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland, or any two of them, where such Tobacco shall be landed, testifying the Landing thereof in that Kingdom, at any Time or Times after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in case there shall appear to be any Difference in Weight between the Quantity specified in such Certificate, and the Quantity entered and shipped for Exportation thither, so that the Quantity landed in Ireland shall be less than the Quantity so entered and shipped for that Kingdom, in all and every such Case and Cases an Allowance shall be made to the Merchant Exporter on the Duties to be drawn back of all such Tobacco so shipped and exported to Ireland, in Consideration of the Waste which may happen (if any be) in the Voyage between Great Britain and Ireland, so as such Allowance do not in any Case exceed two per Centum; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIX. And whereas it is found by Experience, That great Quantities of Tobacco are clandestinely run into Ireland after the entering and exporting the same from Great Britain for other foreign Parts, and the Exporters have entituled themselves to Debentures for the Drawbacks in this Kingdom, in Prejudice of his Majesty's Revenues and to the Discouragement of fair Traders: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tobacco so entered out and exported shall afterwards be landed in Ireland, the same and double the Drawback thereof shall be forfeited, and every Debenture for the Drawback thereof shall become void, as if the said Tobacco were reloaded in any Part of Great Britain; which Forfeitures shall and may be prosecuted and recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin respectively, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; in which Prosecution no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlane; one Moiety of which Forfeiture or Forfeitures to be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same as aforesaid.

L. And whereas the Exporters of Tobacco for any foreign Parts are now only obliged to swear, that the Tobacco shipped and certified is not landed, or intended to be reloaded in any Part of Great Britain: It is hereby enacted, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty Ireland shall be added and included in the Oath before-mentioned (except for such Tobacco as shall be regularly shipped for Ireland) without which the Officers of the Customs shall not suffer the Debenture to pass; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LI. And whereas by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post-Office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; the Postmaster General is authorized to demand, have, receive and take, for single Letters or Pieces of Paper, to and from the General Post-Office in London, to and from any Parts or Places of Great Britain, the Kingdom of Ireland, or other his Majesty's Dominions, certain Rates in the same Act mentioned for the Post of every single Letter or Piece of Paper: And whereas Bills of Exchange are frequently sent wrote on one and the same Piece of Paper with a Letter, and also several Letters to several and distinct Persons are sent wrote upon one and the same Piece of Paper: Be it declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it was and is the Intent and Meaning of the same Act, that every such Bill and every such Letter should be rated, taxed and paid for as so many several and distinct Letters, according to the Rates within the same Act mentioned. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the same shall be accordingly rated, taxed and paid for as so many several and distinct Letters, according to the Rates within the same Act mentioned.

And whereas by the same Act it is amongst other Things provided, That all Merchants Accounts not exceeding one Sheet of Paper, and all Bills of Exchange, Invoices and Bills of Lading are and shall be thereby understood to be allowed without Rate in the Price of the Letter: And whereas some Doubts have been made touching the said Clause and Proviso: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it was and is the Intent and Meaning of the Act last mentioned, and of these Presents, that the said Proviso and Allowance shall extend to such Merchants Accounts, Bills of Exchange, Invoices and Bills of Lading only, as shall be sent to or from the said General Post-Office in London to or from any Parts or Places beyond the Seas, not within his Majesty's Dominions; and that all other Merchants Accounts, Bills of Exchange, Invoices and Bills of Lading shall be rated, taxed and paid for as so many several Letters, according to the Rates in the same Act mentioned, and the true Intent and Meaning of these Presents.

And whereas by a Statute made in the fifth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, for granting to their Majesties several Duties upon Vellom, Parchment and Paper; and by another Statute made in the ninth Year of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, for granting to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, further Duties on stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper, it was (inter alia) enacted, That from and after the Time and Times therein respectively expressed every Officer or Clerk belonging to the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, who should sign any Writ before Judgment to arrest any Person or Persons thereupon, should, at the Signing thereof, set down upon such Writ or Process the Day and Year of his Signing the same, under the Forfeiture of ten Pounds for every such Offence or Neglect: Therefore for the better preventing the Frauds aforesaid, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Warrant to be made out or to issue upon any such Writ or Writs, shall have the same Day and Year plainly and distinctly set down thereon, as shall be so set down on the Writ itself, under the Forfeiture of ten Pounds for every such Neglect or Omission, to be paid by the Person who shall write, fill up or deliver out such Warrant; both which Penalties to be sued for, recovered and divided in such Manner as the other Penalties in the said recited Act of the Ninth of King WILLIAM are directed to be sued for, recovered and divided.

LV. And whereas a Practice hath of late prevailed for Persons to cut out and tear off the Mark or Stamp upon the spotted or painted Side of playing Cards after such Cards have been sold, used or played with, and by pasting on and affixing the same Stamps and Marks on other Cards, do frequently make one Mark or Stamp serve for two or three several Packs of Cards: And whereas the Seal and Stamp upon the outside Papers inclosing each Pack of Cards are frequently made use of again after they have been sold and disposed of, to inclose other Packs of playing Cards, by which fraudulent and unjust Practices his Majesty's Revenue is daily lessened and diminished: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, at any Time after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, shall fraudulently cut, tear or get off any Mark or Stamp in respect whereof or whereby any Duties are payable, or are denoted to be paid or payable to his Majesty on playing Cards, or shall file, square or new spot any Dice which have been sold or played with, or shall fraudulently inclose any Parcel or Pack of playing Cards in any outside Paper so sealed and stamped as aforesaid, the same having been once made use of for the Purpose aforesaid, or in case any Person or Persons shall hereafter sell or expose to Sale any playing Cards, the same not being, at the Time of such selling or exposing to Sale, actually stamped on the spotted or painted Side, and also inclosed in Paper and Thread, sealed and stamped, as by the Act of the tenth Year of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, which charges the said Duties, is directed; then, so often, and in every such Case, every Person so offending in any of the Particulars before-mentioned shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be admitted, nor more than one Imparance; one Moiety whereof to the King's most excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety to the Informer; and the Person recovering in such Action shall be allowed his full Costs.

LVI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, for licensing and regulating Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, and for charging certain new Duties on stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper; it was (inter alia) provided, That for every Piece of Vellom or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which should be engrossed or written any Licence for selling of Ale or Beer, or other exciseable Liquors, by Retail, a Duty of one Shilling should be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, during the Term of thirty-two Years: And whereas a Practice has obtained to take the usual Recognizances from Persons for whom Ale-Licences are intended for selling Ale and other exciseable Liquors, and to take a List of their Names, and the Fees for such Licences, but to omit to make out or write the same, to avoid the Payment of the Stamp-Duties given thereon, and to omit the Writing of other Matters charged with Stamp-Duties since the making of the Act of Parliament of the first Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in her Majesty's Duties on stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper; and at other Times by Rasures and Interlineations of such Ale-Licences, Policies of Insurance, and several other Matters and Things chargeable with the Payment of the Stamp-Duty, to make one Stamp serve for several Purposes: Now for the Prevention of the said Frauds and Omissions and other like Frauds and Omissions, in relation to any of his his Majesty's Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp-Duties, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Mayors, Town-Clerks and other Persons whom it may concern, who shall take any such Recognizances, shall be obliged to make or cause to be made out Ale-Licences duly stamped before such Recognizances be taken, under the Penalty of ten Pounds for every such Offence; and that all Pains, Penalties and Provisions given and laid on by this Act, and the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, for the Punishment or Prevention of such Frauds and Omissions as are herein and therein mentioned and intended, relating to the Duties then in Being, shall extend and be construed to extend to the like Frauds and Omissions relating to any of his Majesty's other Stamp-Duties imposed or laid on at any Time since the making of the said last mentioned Act of the first Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, and to be sued for, recovered and divided in such Manner as is directed by the said last mentioned Act.

LVII. And whereas by a Statute made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, for licensing and regulating Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, and for charging certain new Duties on stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper, and on Cards and Dice, it was (inter alia) enacted, That the Makers of Cards and Dice, during the Term therein mentioned, should once in every twenty-eight Days make true Entries upon Oath with the Commissioners of the Stamp-Duties, or their Officers, of all the Cards and Dice by them respectively made; and should once in every six Weeks clear all the Duties owing for the same, under the Penalties therein mentioned: And whereas the respective Card-Makers do often make up Cards, the Duties on which amount to fifty Pounds and upwards per Week, and each Card-Maker may make up treble that Quantity, if he shall think fit, whereby they have an Opportunity of being greatly in Arrear to his Majesty, and the said Duties are thereby often in Danger of being lost, in regard the same Act hath made no Provision whatever for securing the said Duties, until the said six Weeks shall expire, be the Danger ever so apparent: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty every Card-Maker shall be obliged, at the respective Times of entering every Parcel or Quantity of playing Cards as aforesaid, to enter into Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with sufficient Surety or Sureties, in a penal Sum of treble the Duties on such Cards, with Condition thereunder-written for the true Payment of his Majesty's Duties on such Cards within the Space of six Weeks next after the Date of every such Bond; any Thing contained in any Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Card-Maker shall, upon Entry of every Quantity of playing Cards, pay down all the Duty payable for the same, the Commissioners for the Stamp-Duties for the Time being shall, upon Payment of the said Duty, allow and pay to such Card-Maker such and the like Allowance as is to be allowed and paid to any Person or Persons for present Payment of the Stamp-Duties, by an Act of the first Year of her late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in her Majesty's Duties upon stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper.

LIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Commissioners for the Time being for managing the Stamp-Duties shall be informed, or have Cause to suspect, that any Person or Persons do make or cause to be made any playing Cards or Dice, in any House or Place whatsoever in Great Britain, without sending or giving Notice thereof in Writing to the said Commissioners at their Head Office, and Affidavit being made thereof by the Person or Persons so informing or giving Notice, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where such Cards or Dice shall be making or made, declaring the Grounds of his or their Knowledge or Suspicion, that then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers employed by or acting under the said Commissioners in the Management of the Duties on playing Cards and Dice, in the Day-time, and in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace (who is hereby required to be aiding and assisting therein) by Warrant from such Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Affidavit shall be made, to be directed to such Officer or Officers as aforesaid (which Warrant the said Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required to grant) to break open the Door, or any Part of such House or Place where any such Cards or Dice are so, as aforesaid, suspected to be so made or making; and to enter into such House or Place, and to seize all such Cards, Dice, Tools or Materials with which they are made or making, that shall be then and there found, and to detain and keep the same in such House and Place as the said Commissioners shall direct or appoint; and in case the same shall not within five Days next after such Seizure be claimed and replevied by the true and lawful Owners thereof, then the said Cards, Dice, Tools and other Materials shall be absolutely forfeited, and shall and may be sold by the Direction of the said Commissioners after the said five Days are expired; one Moiety of the Produce thereof (all necessary Charges being first deducted out of the Whole) to be paid to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Party or Parties who shall so discover the same.

LX. And for ascertaining a Doubt which hath arisen, whether a Person who causeth or procureth a Mark or Stamp to resemble any Mark or Stamp provided or used for the Duties aforesaid, or any of them, to be counterfeited or forged, ought to be adjudged a Felon by Virtue of the Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, or any of them: Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark provided, made or used, or to be provided, made or used, in Pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, or any of them, or causing or procuring any Vellom, Parchment, Paper, Cards or Dice to be marked or stamped with such counterfeit Stamp or Mark, shall and ought to be adjudged to have actually done and committed the same himself, and to be a Felon, and to suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

LXI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Rates or Duties upon Houses, for making good the Deficiencies of the clipped Monies, several Duties upon Houses were granted for the Term therein mentioned; and by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, several new Duties upon Houses having twenty Windows, or more, were granted for the

the Term therein mentioned; which several Duties by subsequent Acts have been severally continued and made perpetual, subject nevertheless to such Redemption as in the same Acts, or some of them, is expressed: And whereas by the said Acts relating to the said Duties on Houses, or some of them, it is enacted, That at the End of every Year the Collectors for the next preceding Year shall cause Copies to be made of the respective Assessments given to them, and at the Bottom thereof shall write or cause to be written the Names of two or more of the most substantial Inhabitants, whom they in their Judgments shall think fit, to be appointed Collectors of those Duties within the said Cities, Boroughs, Towns, Divisions or Places respectively, for the ensuing Year; and the Justices of the Peace, as Commissioners, or any two or more of them, after perusing and examining such Assessments, and allowing the same, are to appoint two Persons named as aforesaid to be the Collectors for the Year ensuing; but it is found by Experience, That in some Places the Collectors do name insolvent Persons to succeed them, who run away and leave a Debt on the Parish or Place, which being answerable for the Collectors, is often vexed with Process, without having any Power, as the Law now stands, to raise the Arrears so incurred by a Re-assessment: For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty the said Justices of the Peace, who are Commissioners for the said Duties, or any three or more of them, shall and may, within their respective Limits, appoint two such Persons as they shall think able and responsible, to be Collectors within the said Parishes and Places, or any of them, of the said Duties on Houses, from Time to Time (whether their Names be or be not presented by the preceding Collectors, as aforesaid;) and in case there be or shall be any Arrear of the said Duty on Houses, by reason of the Failure of any such Collector or Collectors as aforesaid, for which any Parish or Place shall be answerable, it shall and may be lawful to and for any three or more Justices of the Peace, being Commissioners for the said Duties on Houses, to cause such Arrear to be re-assessed within the same Parish or Place respectively, on all such Houses as are liable to Payment of the said Duties on Houses; and to cause the same to be raised, and (for Default of Payment) to be levied by such Ways and Means as the Duties on Houses are to be raised and levied in such Parishes or Places respectively, and to cause the Money so raised or levied, to be paid to the Receiver General of the said Duties, or into the Exchequer, for the respective Uses and Purposes whereunto such Arrears (if they had been duly paid by the said Collectors) are appropriated and appointed by the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf; any Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXII. And whereas divers Ships and Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tons or under, laden with Tobacco, Brandy, Spirits and other customable or prohibited Goods, pretending to be bound for foreign Parts, do frequently lie hovering on the Coast of Ireland with Intention to run the same privately on shore, as Opportunity offers, to the great Diminution of his Majesty's Revenue and Ruin of fair Traders; and Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tons or under do frequently lie hovering on that Coast to take in Wool not lawfully licensed to be brought to England, and other Staple Commodities of Ireland prohibited to be exported: For the better preventing whereof, Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, where any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of fifty Tons or under, laden with customable or prohibited Goods, shall be found at Anchor or hovering on the Coast of Ireland within two Leagues of the Shore, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs of that Kingdom to go on board every such Ship or Vessel, and take an Account of the Lading, and to demand and take Security from the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel in that Voyage, by his own Bond by him to be entered into unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be treble the Value of such Goods then on board, with Condition that such Ship or Vessel (as soon as Wind and Weather and the State and Condition of such Ship or Vessel doth permit) shall and will proceed regularly on such Voyage, and shall (a) land such Goods (except Wool lawfully licensed as aforesaid) in and at some foreign Port or Ports; and if such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall, upon such Demand, refuse to enter into such Bond, or having entered into such Bond shall not depart or proceed regularly on such Voyage (as soon as Wind and Weather and the State and Condition of such Ship or Vessel shall permit) unless otherwise suffered to make a longer Stay by the Collector (or other principal Officer in his Absence) of such Port where such Ship or Vessel shall be, not exceeding twenty Days, then and in either of the said Cases, all the Goods so on board such Ship or Vessel shall and may, by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, by Direction of the Collector or other principal Officer as aforesaid, be taken out of and from such Ship or Vessel, and forthwith brought on shore and secured; and in case the said Goods are customable, the Customs and other Duties shall be paid for the same; and as concerning Wool or any prohibited Goods, or other Goods liable to Forfeiture, which may be found on board such Ships or Vessels at the Time of their Unlading as aforesaid, the same are hereby declared to be subject to Forfeiture, and the Officers of the Customs shall and may prosecute the same, as also the Ship or Vessel, in case she shall be liable to Condemnation.

LXIII. Provided always, That after such Goods are so taken out of such Ship or Vessel, and brought on shore, and secured by such Officer or Officers, such Bonds so to be given as aforesaid shall be void, and delivered up without any Fee or Reward for taking or delivering up the same; and such Bond not being otherwise discharged shall, on a proper Certificate returned under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of two known British or Irish Merchants upon the Place, that such Goods were there landed, or upon Proof by credible Persons, that such Goods were taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas, (the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the Commissioners of the Customs in Ireland) shall be vacated and discharged.

LXIV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners or Sub-Commissioners of Excise respectively, in their respective Limits and Districts in Ireland, or the major Part of them, are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine all Offences against

MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas the Capital or Joint Stock of the Corporation, called by the Name of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, did, at the Time of making the Act of Parliament of the sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling the South-Sea Company to increase their present Capital Stock and Fund by redeeming such publick Debts and Incumbrances as are therein mentioned; and for raising Money to be applied for lessening several of the publick Debts and Incumbrances; and for calling in the present Exchequer-Bills remaining uncanceled; and for making forth new Bills in lieu thereof, to be circulated and exchanged upon Demand at or near the Exchequer, by Computation amount in the Whole to eleven millions seven hundred forty-six thousand eight hundred forty-four Pounds eight Shillings and ten Pence, or thereabouts. And whereas it hath been represented unto us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, That by Virtue and in Pursuance of the said Act several Annuities, Debts and Incumbrances have been subscribed and redeemed, or taken in, which (being computed at the respective Values in and by the said Act prescribed) will make in the Whole twenty-six millions fifty-five thousand seven hundred and seventy-four Pounds five Shillings and two Pence, or thereabouts, to be added to the said Capital or Joint Stock; and that both the said Sums will make the increased Capital or Joint Stock of the said Corporation (which is commonly called the South-Sea Company) to amount in the Whole to thirty-seven millions eight hundred and two thousand six hundred and eighteen Pounds fourteen Shillings, or thereabouts: And that in respect of several of the said Sums comprehended in the said increased Capital or Joint Stock, the said Corporation is and will be entitled to several Annuities or yearly Funds, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid and payable at the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer by weekly or other Payments, out of several Duties, Revenues and other Provisions settled by the said Act for that Purpose, until and for the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven; and afterwards at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the Redemption thereof according to the said Act: And that in respect of several other of the said Sums comprehended in the said increased Capital or Joint Stock, the said Corporation is and will be entitled to several Annuities or yearly Funds, after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid and payable at the said Receipt by weekly or other Payments, out of several Duties, Revenues and other Provisions settled by the said Act for Payment thereof, until and for the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and afterwards at the same Rate, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament according to the said Act; which said Annuities or yearly Funds so payable at the said Receipt of Exchequer are nevertheless liable to such Charges and Incumbrances, as in and by the said Act are expressed or mentioned concerning the same. And whereas the said South-Sea Company, in and by a Proposition agreed to in a General Court of the same holden on or about the second Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and since presented to us your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, have humbly offered, that a Sum not exceeding nine millions of the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, together with an Annuity of five Pounds per Centum per Annum issuing from the Exchequer, and payable weekly, be ingrafted into the Capital Stock of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and be added to their present Capital Stock of five millions five hundred fifty-nine thousand nine hundred ninety-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and eight Pence; and that every Proprietor of the said Sum so to be ingrafted be entitled to a Share in the Capital of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, at the Rate of one hundred and twenty Pounds per Centum, that is to say, for every one hundred and twenty Pounds in the said Sum not exceeding nine millions to be ingrafted, each Proprietor to have one hundred Pounds Stock in the Bank; that the remaining twenty Pounds per Centum, Part of the said Sum not exceeding nine millions, (which, if the Whole be ingrafted, would make one million and an half) be reserved for the common Benefit and Advantage of the Proprietors of the whole Capital so increased; and that a certain Sum be annually allowed to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England towards their Charges of Management: And the said South-Sea Company in the said Proposition have also humbly offered, that a Sum not exceeding nine millions of the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, together with an Annuity of five Pounds per Centum per Annum issuing from the Exchequer, and payable weekly, be ingrafted into the Stock of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and added to their present Capital Stock of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds; and that every Proprietor of the said Sums so to be ingrafted into the Capital of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies be entitled to a Share in the Capital Stock of the same Company, at the Rate of one hundred and twenty Pounds per Centum, that is to say, for every one hundred and twenty Pounds in the last mentioned Sum not exceeding nine millions so to be ingrafted, each Proprietor to have one hundred Pounds Stock in the said East-India Company; and that the remaining twenty Pounds per Centum, Part of the last mentioned Sum not exceeding nine millions (which, if the Whole be ingrafted, will make one million and an half) be disposed and distributed in the Manner therein mentioned; and that a certain Sum be annually allowed to the said East-India Company towards their Charges of Management. And whereas the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in and by a Proposition agreed to in a General Court of that Corporation holden on or about the twenty-ninth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and since presented to us your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, have declared their Willingness to admit, that nine millions of the Capital of the South-Sea Company, together with an Annuity of five Pounds per Centum per Annum issuing issuing from the Exchequer, payable weekly, and free from all Incumbrances, be ingrafted into the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and be added into their present Capital Stock of five millions five hundred fifty-nine thousand ninety-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and eight Pence; and that every Proprietor of the same Sums so to be ingrafted be entitled to a Share in the Capital of the Bank of England, at the Rate of one hundred and twenty Pounds per Centum, that is to say, for every one hundred and twenty Pounds in the same Sum so to be ingrafted, each Proprietor to have one hundred Pounds Stock in the Bank; the remaining twenty Pounds per Centum, Part of the same Sum not exceeding nine millions (which, if the Whole be ingrafted, would make one million and an half) to be reserved for the common Benefit and Advantage of the Proprietors of the whole Capital so increased; and that a certain Sum be annually allowed to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England towards their Charges of Management. And whereas the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in and by a Proposition agreed to in a General Court of that Corporation holden on or about the third Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and since presented to us your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, have declared their Willingness to admit, that a Sum not exceeding nine millions of the Capital of the said South-Sea Company, together with an Annuity of five Pounds per Centum per Annum issuing from the Exchequer, payable weekly, and free from all Incumbrances, be ingrafted into the Stock of the said East-India Company, and added to their present Capital Stock of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds; and that every Proprietor of the same Sum so to be ingrafted be entitled to a Share in the Capital Stock of the said East-India Company, at the Rate of one hundred and twenty Pounds per Centum, that is to say, for every one hundred and twenty Pounds in the same Sum so to be ingrafted, each Proprietor to have one hundred Pounds Stock in the East-India Company; the remaining twenty Pounds per Centum, Part of the same Sum not exceeding nine millions (which, if the Whole be ingrafted, would make one million and an half) to be disposed and distributed in Manner following, that is to say, six hundred and forty thousand Pounds thereof, being after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, upon the said Sum of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, to the then Proprietors of the same Capital of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds: And the Remainder of the said twenty Pounds per Centum to and for the common Benefit and Advantage of all the Proprietors of the whole Capital of the said East-India Company so increased, which Remainder (if the whole nine millions be ingrafted) will amount to eight hundred and sixty thousand Pounds; and that a certain Sum be annually allowed to the said East-India Company towards their Charges of Management. And whereas it is judged, that an Ingraftment of Part of the Capital of the South-Sea Company into the Capitals of the Bank of England and the East-India Company, pursuant to the said several Proposals of the said respective Companies, will contribute very much to the restoring and establishing publick Credit: We your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c. 6 Geo. I. c. 4.

Recital of the Acts about Exchequer-Bills of the sixth of King GEORGE.

XXXVIII. And whereas by Virtue of the aforesaid Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, certain Bills, commonly called Exchequer-Bills, then standing out, which were therein estimated to amount to eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds and ten Shillings, or thereabouts, in Principal Money, were appointed to be called or brought in, and to be changed for new Bills, to be made forth in the Method which was thereby prescribed, and in Pursuance of the same Act several new Bills have been made forth for several Sums of Money, whereof the Principal hath not exceeded the said Sum of eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds and ten Shillings, adding thereunto the Interest that was due upon the old Bills, as by the said Act was directed; and by the same Act the said South-Sea Company, and their Successors, or their Court of Directors on their Behalf, were enjoined, during the Term of seven Years, reckoned from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty, to furnish ready Money for exchanging and circulating the new Exchequer-Bills which should be made forth by Virtue of that Act; and in case any other Act should be made for making forth any further Sum or Sums in Exchequer-Bills to be current at any Time or Times within or during the said Term of seven Years, as is therein mentioned, then the said South-Sea Company, and their Successors, were by the said first mentioned Act (in Part before recited) enjoined and required (during so much of the said Term of seven Years as the Bills to be made forth by such other Act should have a Joint Currency with the Bills to be made forth by the said first mentioned Act) to furnish a proportional Part or Parts of such ready Money as should be sufficient for exchanging and circulating all the Bills so current, which proportional Parts were to be ascertained and determined as by the same Act is prescribed. And whereas by Virtue of another Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making forth new Exchequer-Bills, not exceeding one million, at a certain Interest, and for lending the same to the South-Sea Company at an higher Interest, upon Security of repaying the same and such high Interest into the Exchequer, for Uses to which the Fund for lessening the publick Debts, called the Sinking Fund, is applicable, and for circulating and exchanging upon Demand, the said Bills at or near the Exchequer, several other new Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million in Principal Monies, were made forth for the Purpose in that Act mentioned; and by the same last mentioned Act the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are enjoined and required (so long as the Exchequer-Bills, made forth by Virtue of that Act, should have a Joint Currency, or be current at the same Times with the Bills to be made forth by Virtue of the said first mentioned Act) to furnish out of the Monies of the Fund or Security herein after mentioned, or out of Loans to be made thereupon, a proportional Part of the ready Money which should be sufficient for exchanging and circulating all the Bills which should be jointly current; which proportional Part so to be furnished on Behalf of the Publick, was thereby prescribed to be so much as, together with a proportional Part which, from Time to Time, should or ought to be furnished by the said South-Sea Company, should be sufficient to support the Currency of all the said Bills; and by the Act last mentioned, the Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, then remaining in the Exchequer, and in the same Act particularly specified, and the Monies which (from and after the Application of a certain Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds therein also particularly specified) should arise of or for the Surplusses, Excesses and Overplusses, commonly called the Sinking Fund, therein also mentioned, are declared and enacted to be a Fund or Security for furnishing such Proportions of ready Money as are last before mentioned for or towards exchanging and circulating all the said Exchequer-Bills, during their joint Currency. And whereas in and by the Act last in Part before recited, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury were impowered to issue or cause to be issued by way of Loan or Advance the said Bills not exceeding one million to the South-Sea Company, the same Corporation giving Security upon their Annuity or yearly Fund for Repayment of the Principal Sum so lent, with Interest, within such Time as by that Act was limited; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, and High Treasurer for the Time being, are by that Act directed and required to take especial Care that upon Repayment of the Principal Monies so to be lent, the same, with the Interest or Increase accruing thereupon, should be received and applied in the first Place to the paying off and discharging the said Exchequer-Bills for one million; and that the Surplus thereof, after paying off and discharging the same Bills, should be placed at the Receipt of Exchequer to and for the same Uses to which the Monies of the Surplusses, Excesses and Overplusses, commonly called the Sinking Fund, are applicable; and that the said South-Sea Company shall make just Account of the Principal so borrowed, and the Interest and Increase thereof, and of the Repayment of the same Principal, with the said Interest or Increase thereof, into the Exchequer in Manner, as aforesaid; and

and in Default of paying the said Monies, with the said Interest or Increase thereof, then the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, were thereby authorized and required to cause the Monies so lent to be stopt out of the Monies which weekly or otherwise should be payable to the South-Sea Company at the Exchequer, for or upon their Annuities or yearly Fund, together with so much more as the Interest of the said Monies so unpaid shall amount unto, and to cause the Principal and Interest so stopt, to be applied and placed in the Exchequer, as aforesaid; as by the said several Acts (herein before in Part recited) Relation being thereunto severally had, doth more fully appear. And whereas the said Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, since the making of the Act last before in Part recited, is compleatly satisfied, or sufficient Money is reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose, and pursuant to the same Act, the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, were on the seventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty (as by a Certificate signed by the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer doth appear) issued by way of Loan or Advance to the said South-Sea Company, upon a Security under their Common Seal, by an Instrument or Writing, bearing Date the fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, for Repayment of the same in good and lawful Money of Great Britain into the Exchequer at Westminster at the End of one Year, to be reckoned from the Time of issuing the said Bills, with Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as by the same Instrument or Writing, Relation being thereunto had, may also appear: Now to the End that all the Exchequer-Bills for the said Sum of one million, and the Interest thereof, may effectually be discharged out of the Monies to be repaid by the same Company, with the Interest thereof as aforesaid, at or before the Time herein after limited in that Behalf, whereby the said Joint Currency may cease, and the Publick may be eased of the Burthen and Charge of contributing thereunto; and to the End the said Excesses, Surplusses and Overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund, and other the publick Monies aforesaid, after their being freed from the Incumbrance of the Exchequer-Bills last mentioned, may be at Liberty to be applied towards lessening or reducing the publick Debts and Incumbrances, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act; It is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Corporation, called the South-Sea Company, or their Successors, at their own Costs and Charges, on or before the seventh Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred twenty-two (although any Assignment or Assignments before that Time shall or shall not have been made to the said other Companies, or either of them, in Pursuance of this Act, as aforesaid) shall well and truly repay or cause to be repaid into the said Receipt of Exchequer the said Sum of one million, together with Interest then due for the same; and that upon such Repayment the Monies so repaid, with the Interest or Increase accruing thereupon, shall be applied in the first Place to the paying off and discharging the said Exchequer-Bills amounting to one million, with such Interest as shall be due thereupon; and that the Surplus thereof, after paying off and discharging the Bills last mentioned, shall be placed and applied to the same Uses to which the Monies of the said Sinking Fund are to be applied; and that an Account of the Monies so borrowed and repaid, and of the Interest thereof, shall be made, as by the said former Act was prescribed; and in Default of repaying the said Sum of one million, with the Interest or Increase thereof, according to this Act, then the Annuity and Annuities which shall be then payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the said South-Sea Company (except so much thereof as in the mean time shall or may have been assigned or transferred to the said other Companies, or either of them, as aforesaid) shall and may be stopt by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three of them, or by the High Treasurer for the Time being, or by the Officers of the Exchequer for the Time being; and the said Exchequer-Bills amounting to one million shall and may be called in and cancelled by and with the Monies so stopt, in the Manner prescribed by the said former Act in that Behalf.

South-Sea Company shall repay into the Exchequer by 7 June 1722. 1,000,000l. with Interest, to be applied to paying off the Exchequer-Bills, &c.

In Default their Annuities may be stopt.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after discharging the said Exchequer-Bills amounting to one million, with all the Interest which shall be due thereupon, and after paying off such publick Debts and Incumbrances carrying Interest or Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any higher Interest or Annuity founded upon any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, as may be redeemed before the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, or reserving Money sufficient in the Exchequer for those Purposes; Then all the Monies of the said Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, which then shall or ought to remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, and all the said Overplus (if any be) of the said Interest-Monies, which shall be paid by the said South-Sea Company for the said million lent as aforesaid, shall immediately, or as soon as the Monies then resting of the said Sinking Fund can be computed, shall be applied (so far as the same will extend) towards paying off and discharging so much and such Parts of the Capital Stock, which shall then belong to the said South-Sea Company, and to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to the said East-India Company, and to every or any of them respectively, as by the Tenor and true Meaning of this and the said former Act in that Behalf are to carry Annuities payable at the Exchequer, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, till the Twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and afterwards at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, till Redemption by Parliament, and towards paying off and redeeming so much of the same Annuities which shall then be payable at the Exchequer, in respect of the Capital Stock which shall be so paid off and discharged; which Application of the Monies last mentioned shall be made in Proportion to the respective Quantities of Capital Stock, which in Pursuance of this and the said former Acts shall then appear to belong to the said South-Sea Company, and to the said Bank of England, and to the said East-India Company, and every of them respectively, and not otherwise.

After discharging those Bills, &c.

Then all the Sinking Fund, &c. shall be applied towards paying off Part of the Capital Stock of the three Companies, &c.

XL. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, which after the Application of so much thereof as is in and by this Act before directed to be applied or reserved as aforesaid, shall arise and be brought into the Exchequer, at any Time or Times before the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist which shall be in the Year of

WHEREAS it is of Importance to the Welfare of this Kingdom, That the Trade to and from the East-Indies, as the same is now regulated, be carried on in such Manner, as that the British Nation may have and enjoy the full Fruits and Advantages thereof: And whereas by Virtue of several Acts of Parliament and Letters Patents the whole Trade to and from the East-Indies and other Places beyond the Cape of good Hope, in the said Acts and Letters Patents mentioned, is now solely vested in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies; notwithstanding which, and notwithstanding the Prohibitions, Injunctions and Penalties contained in such Acts and Letters Patents for securing the said Trade to the said Company, several evil-minded Persons, Subjects of his Majesty, preferring their own private Gain to the Good of their Country, have not only clandestinely, and without any Authority from the said Company, trafficked and traded to and from the East-Indies, but have also, by Colour or upon Pretence of Commissions obtained from foreign Governments, openly and publickly, in Defiance of the said Laws

II. And it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Contracts and Agreements whatsoever, at any Time from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, made or entered into by any of his Majesty's Subjects, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them, for or upon the Loan of any Monies by way of Bottomry on any Ship or Ships in the Service of Foreigners, and bound or designed to trade in the East-Indies or Parts aforesaid; and all Contracts and Agreements whatsoever made by any of his Majesty's Subjects, or any Person or Persons in Trust for them, for the loading or supplying any such Ship or Ships with a Cargo or Lading of any Sort of Goods, Merchandise, Treasure or Effects, or with any Provisions, Stores or Necessaries, and all Copartnerships or Agreements in the Nature of Copartnerships, made or entered into, relating to any such Voyage or the Profits thereof, and all Agreements for the Wages of any Person or Persons serving on board such Ship or Ships to be employed in such Voyage, shall be and are hereby declared to be void.

After 24 June 1721, all Contracts for Loans by way of Bottomry on any Foreigners Ships bound for the East-Indies, and for loading such Ships, and all Copartnerships and Agreements for Wages, declared void.

III. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That every Person and Persons, Subject and Subjects, of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, who shall at any Time or Times from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one sail, go or repair to the said East-Indies or Places aforesaid, contrary to the Laws now in Being, shall be deemed and accounted to be a Trader, and to have traded and trafficked there; and all the Goods and Merchandizes that shall be there bartered or trafficked for, or be purchased by any such Offender or Offenders, or shall be found in his Custody, or in the Custody of any other Person or Persons by his, or their Order or Procurement, shall be forfeited, together with double the Value thereof.

Any of his Majesty's Subjects repairing to the East-Indies contrary to the Laws, shall be deemed a Trader, and all Goods in his Custody shall be forfeited.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Goods, Merchandise, Treasure and Effects that shall at any Time or Times from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one be shipped or put on board any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, bound to the East-Indies or Parts aforesaid (other than and except the Goods, Merchandise, Treasure and Effects of the said Company, or such as are licensed by them, or the Naval Stores, Provisions and Necessaries for such Ship or Ships performing their Voyage) and all and every the Goods, Merchandise, Treasure and Effects (except as before is excepted) that shall, from and after the Time aforesaid, be taken out of any such Ship or Vessel in her Voyage homeward from the East-Indies or Parts aforesaid to England, before her Arrival there, the same and every of them shall be forfeited, together with double the Value thereof; and the Master or Commander, and other Officers of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, for the Time being, knowingly permitting or suffering any such Goods, Merchandise, Treasure or Effects to be shipped or put on board any such Ship or Ships so bound to the East-Indies, or to be taken out of any such Ship or Ships bound from the East-Indies or Parts aforesaid to England, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of one thousand Pounds, and moreover shall not be entitled to have, demand or receive any Wages whatsoever; nor shall the said Company be obliged or compelled or compellable to pay any Wages to, or to the Use or upon the Account of any such Master, Commander or Officer, for or in respect of the Voyage so made or to be made by such Master, Commander or Officer, but shall have an Allowance or Deduction in respect thereof out of the Monies payable by them on Account of the Ship to which such Master or Officers belong.

All Goods shipped for the East-Indies, or taken out of Ships coming from thence (except Goods of the Company, or licensed by them) forfeited, together with double Value.

Masters of such Ships to forfeit 1000l. lose their Wages, &c.

V. But forasmuch as it happens many Times, that the above-mentioned illegal Trade is carried on and managed so artfully and covertly, that the said United Company cannot come to the Knowledge and Proof of the same, and at most cannot ascertain the Quantities, Qualities and Values of the Goods, Merchandise, Treasure and Effects so traded for, nor therefore obtain any Satisfaction or Compensation for the Damages by them sustained, to their great Loss and Detriment, and to the great and apparent Lessening of his Majesty's Revenue: Therefore it is provided and further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Attorney General for the Time being, at the Relation of the said Company, or by his own Authority, to exhibit a Bill or Bills of Complaint in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer against any Person or Persons Trading, Dealing, Trafficking or Adventuring, at any Time from and after the said twenty-

X. And whereas by an Act passed in the fourth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5: for granting to their Majesties certain additional Impositions upon several Goods and Merchandizes, for the prosecuting the War against France, the several Duties charged by that Act upon Amber Beads, Amber Rough, Coral Beads, and polished Coral, and upon Cowries, are to be repaid to the Merchants exporting the same, if exported within three Years from the Importation thereof, which Act is now in Force: And whereas by several other Acts of Parliament now in Force, the Time for Exportation of some foreign Goods by British Merchants is limited to the Space of twelve Months, and of other foreign Goods to the Space of eighteen Months, or thereabouts, from the Times of the Importation thereof: And whereas the Time for Exportation of some foreign Goods, by Aliens or Merchant Strangers, is limited to the Space of nine Months, and of others to the Space of fifteen Months, or thereabouts, from the Times of importing the same; but forasmuch as it hath been found by Experience, that the said respective Times of nine Months, twelve Months, fifteen Months, and eighteen Months afore-mentioned, are too short, and very inconvenient to Traders; and for as much also as it will be for the Benefit of the Trade of this Kingdom, if the Time given for repaying or drawing back the Duties upon the Exportation of all Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesty's Plantations, and all other foreign Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever, be enlarged; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Times for Exportation of all Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesty's Plantations, and all other foreign Goods and Merchandizes, as the same are now limited by any Law or Laws in being, shall from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, be extended and enlarged, so that in all Cases where Repayments, Allowances or Drawbacks are made upon the Exportation of any Goods and Merchandizes of his Majesty's Plantations, and all other foreign Goods and Merchandizes imported, and afterwards exported, by Virtue of any Law now in Force, all Merchants and Traders, Bodies Politick and Corporations, shall from thenceforth have and be allowed three Years Time, from the Importation of such Goods, to export the same, accounting such Importation from the Master's Report of the Ship; and all and every such Merchant and Merchants, Trader and Traders, Bodies Politick and Corporations, shall have the like Repayments, Allowances and Drawbacks by and for such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within the respective Times before-mentioned, or any other Times limited by any Law now in being for that Purpose; such Law, or any other Law, Rule, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, That Certificates and Oaths be made, and all other Requisites performed according to the Laws now in being relating to the Importation and Exportation of such Goods.

1 Geo. I. Stat. 2. c. 43. sect. 5.

After 24 June 1721. Three Years allowed for the Exportation of foreign Goods, after the Importation thereof.

But Certificates and Oaths shall be made according to the Laws now in being.

XI. And whereas by the several Acts which granted the Duties of fifteen per Centum upon Muslins and White Calicoes imported (which Acts are now in Force) the Importers, before the landing thereof, are to give Security by Bond for Payment of the said Duties, as soon as the same shall be sold, and for exposing the said Goods to Sale openly and fairly by Way of Auction or Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of twelve Months after the Importation thereof; and in case the said Goods shall, within the Time limited, be fairly sold, as aforesaid, and in case the Importers shall pay down the said Duties in ready Money, within twenty Days after such Sale, they are to have an Allowance after the Rate of five Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of Duties so paid: And whereas by several Acts of Parliament now in Force for granting, continuing, and better securing the Duties payable ad valorem upon unrated East-India Goods, and for ascertaining the Values according to which such Duties shall be paid, the Importer or Importers thereof are, in like Manner, to give Security by Bond for Payment of the said Duties according to the real Values of the said Goods, to be ascertained according to the respective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made (except Coffee) as soon as the said Goods shall be sold, and also for exposing the said Goods to Sale openly and fairly by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of twelve Months after the Importation thereof; and for as much as the restraining the said Muslins, White Calicoes, and unrated East-India Goods to be sold within twelve Months from the Importation thereof, may some times be detrimental to the Revenue; and that the enlarging the said Time of Sale will be for the Benefit of the Trade of this Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for such of the said Goods as are at present imported and unsold, or shall, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, be imported, the Importer or Importers thereof may, at any Time within the Space of three Years from the Importation of such respective Goods, expose the same to Sale, and after such Sale there shall be allowed the like Discounts on Payments of the respective Duties on such Goods, as if the same had been exposed to Sale within the Time of twelve Months, as before-mentioned, or any other Time heretofore limited by Law; and from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, the Condition of the Bond or Bonds to be given by the Importers for Payment of Clause for enlarging to three Years the Time for Sale of Muslins, White Calicoes, and unrated East-India Goods.

of the said Duties on the Goods before-mentioned, shall be to expose the same to Sale within the Space of three Years from the Importation thereof; and the Importer or Importers of the said Goods shall be intitled to the same Discounts, Allowances, and Payment of the Duties upon the said Goods, as if the same had been sold within the said Time of twelve Months; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

3 & 4 Ann. c. 4.
Clause for repealing so much of any former Act, as relates to, or allows the Importing of Tea by Licence or Certificate.

6 Geo. 1. c. 21.

XII. And whereas by an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, for continuing Duties upon Low-Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins, and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callico, China Ware and Drugs; It is enacted, That any Person or Persons may import into this Kingdom Tea, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of her Majesty's Customs of the Quantity and Quality of the said Tea so intended to be imported, and the Place in which they intend to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any three of them, for the landing and importing thereof, as aforesaid, which Act hath been since continued, and is now in Force: And whereas the Method of granting those Licences, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, is altered and explained: And whereas under the Colour of such Licences great Frauds are committed, to the Prejudice of his Majesty's Revenue; and forasmuch as it hath been found by Experience, That the allowing the Importation of Tea, by Virtue of such Licences or Certificates from Ostend, and other Places, not being the Place of its Growth, tends to promote the illegal Trade carried on by his Majesty's Subjects to the East-Indies under foreign Commissions, and in Conjunction with Foreigners, and is very prejudicial to the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom; For the preventing thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, so much of the said Act of the third Year of her said late Majesty, and of the several Acts continuing the same, and so much of the said Act of his present Majesty which pass the last Sessions of Parliament, and every other Act which relates to or allows of the importing Tea by Licence or Certificate, as aforesaid, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, annulled and made void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

3 Geo. 1. c. 13.
10 Geo. 1. c. 17.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said United Company shall for the future be allowed to ship out Stores, Provisions, Utensils of War, and Necessaries for maintaining their Garrisons and Settlements, free of all Duties, so as such Duties, if they had been to be paid, would not have exceeded or do not exceed in any one Year the Sum of three hundred Pounds.

XIV. And whereas Frauds are frequently committed in clandestinely running of Goods out of Ships and Vessels homeward bound, as well from the East-Indies as other Parts, on Pretence of Boats plying with Pilots for such Ships and Vessels at a great Distance from the proper Stations of such Pilots, by Means whereof they escape the Inspection of the Officers of the Customs, and several Mischiefs and Inconveniencies have happened, as well to his Majesty's as to Merchant Ships, by the Disorders and Negligences of Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, which are not sufficiently prevented by an Act made in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better regulating of Pilots for conducting of Ships and Vessels from Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, up the River of Thames and Medway; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load-Manage, and of the Masters and Wardens of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity-House of the Cinque-Ports, or the major Part of them, at an Assembly commonly called a Court of Load-Manage, to be held by the said Lord Warden or his Deputy, during the Continuance of the said Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, to make such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as shall be thought fit and convenient, and to order and direct a proportionable and sufficient Number of the respective Pilots, residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, not less than eighteen, to ply constantly at Sea, at all seasonable Times, to be ready to conduct such Ships and Vessels up the said Rivers of Thames and Medway, as shall have Occasion for them; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, during the Continuance of the said Act, with the Assent of the said Commissioners, and the Master and Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship, for the Time being, or the major Part of them, at a Court of Load-Manage to be held, as aforesaid, to suspend or deprive any of the said Pilots for breaking such Rules or Orders, or omitting any Thing required by the same, or for acting in any wise contrary to such Rules or Orders; and if any of the said Pilots so suspended or deprived, during the Time of such Suspension or Deprivation, shall take upon him or themselves to conduct any Ship or Vessel by or from Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, to any Place or Places in or upon the said River of Thames or Medway, such Pilot or Pilots shall be liable to all such Pains and Penalties, to be recovered and applied in like Manner and Form as are provided by the said Act of the third Year of his present Majesty, against such Person or Persons as shall conduct Ships from and to the Places aforesaid, without being first examined and approved by the Master and Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship at the said Court, and admitted into the said Society. This Clause is continued by 10 Geo. 1. c. 17. sect. 2. and 8 Geo. 2. c. 21. and 23 Geo. 2. c. 26.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said yearly Fund, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum (subject nevertheless to such proportionable Reduction or Abatement upon Redemption of Part of the said Annuities as is provided by this Act) is and shall, by Virtue of this Act, be charged and chargeable upon and be payable out of all the Revenues, additional Revenues, Duties and Branches whatsoever, settled or appointed for the Support of his Majesty's Household and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown as aforesaid, as well those which are hereditary in the Crown, as those which were granted during his Majesty's Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Time and Term of his Majesty's natural Life (which God long preserve) unless all the said Annuities shall sooner be completely redeemed according to the Provision and Power of Redemption herein after contained in that Behalf; and that the Sum and Sums of Money, which from Time to Time, during his Majesty's Life, shall be issued or paid for or upon the said yearly Fund, after the said Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be and be deemed and reckoned to be Part of the yearly Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds above-mentioned.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of his Majesty's Demise before the complete Redemption of all the said Annuities, then the said yearly Fund after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum (subject nevertheless to such proportional Reduction or Abatement as aforesaid) is and shall, by Virtue of this Act, be charged and chargeable upon and be paid and payable out of the hereditary Revenues, Duties and Branches before-mentioned, and every of them, until the complete Redemption of all the said Annuities to be purchased upon this Act; and that all the Payments for or upon the said yearly Fund, shall be made with Preference to all other Payments whatsoever, which shall or may hereafter be charged upon the said Revenues, Duties or Branches, or any of them.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for explaining and making more effectual the several Acts concerning Bankrupts.

WHEREAS Merchants, and other Traders in Goods, have been very often obliged, and more especially of late Years, to sell and dispose of their Goods and Merchandizes to such Persons as have Occasion for the same, upon Trust or Credit, and to take Bills, Bonds, Promissory Notes, or other Persons Securities for their Monies, payable at the End of three, four or six Months, or other future Days of Payment, and the Buyers of such Goods becoming Bankrupts, and Commissions of Bankruptcy being taken out against them before the Money upon such Bonds, Notes, or other Securities became payable, it hath been a Question whether such Persons, giving such Credit on such Securities, should be let in to prove their Debts, or be admitted to have any Dividend, or other Benefit by the Commission, before such Time as such Securities became payable, which hath been a great Discouragement to Trade, and great Prejudice to Credit within this Realm: For Remedy whereof be it enacted and declared by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons, who have given Credit, or at any Time or Times hereafter shall give Credit on such Securities, as aforesaid, to any Person or Persons who is, are, or shall become Bankrupts, upon a good and valuable Consideration bona fide, for any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, which is or shall not be due or payable at or before the Time of such Person's becoming Bankrupt, shall be admitted to prove his, her and their several and respective Bills, Bonds, Notes, or other Securities, Promise or Agreements for the same, in like Manner as if they were made payable presently, and not at a future Day; and shall be intitled unto, and shall have and receive a proportionable Part, Share and Dividend of such Bankrupt's Estate in Proportion to the other Creditors of such Bankrupts, deducting only thereout a Rebate of Interest, and discounting such Securities payable at future Times, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum for what he shall so receive, to be computed from the actual Payment thereof to the Time such Debt, Duty or Sum of Money should or would have become due and payable in and by such Securities, as aforesaid.

Persons taking Bills, Bonds, &c. payable at a future Day for Goods delivered to such as after become Bankrupt, shall be admitted to prove their Bills, &c. and be intitled to a proportionable Part of the Bankrupt's Estate, discounting such Securities after the Rate of 5*l.* per Cent. for what they receive.

Bankrupts shall be discharged of such Securities.

No such Creditor shall join in suing forth a Commission, till such Debt become due.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, who now are or shall become Bankrupts, shall be discharged of and from all and every such Bond, Note, or other Security, as aforesaid, and shall have the Benefit of the several Statutes now in Force against Bankrupts, in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Sum of Money had been due and payable before the Time of his becoming a Bankrupt.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That no such Creditor shall be deemed or taken to be a sufficient Creditor, for or in respect of such Debt, to petition or join in any Petition for the obtaining or suing forth any Commission of Bankruptcy, until such Time as such Debt shall become actually due and payable. This last Section is repealed by 5 Geo. 2. c. 30. sect. 22.

S T A T. II.

An Act for making several Provisions to restore the Publick Credit, which suffers by the Frauds and Mismanagements of the late Directors of the South-Sea Company, and others.

Preamble reciting the Act of 6 Geo. 1. c. 4.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling the South-Sea Company to increase their present Capital Stock and Fund, by re-deeming such publick Debts and Incumbrances as are therein mentioned; and for raising Money to be applied for lessening several of the Publick Debts and Incumbrances; and for calling in the present Exchequer-Bills remaining uncanceled; and for making forth new Bills in Lieu thereof, to be circulated and exchanged upon Demand at or near the Exchequer, it was enacted, That the said Company should pay into the Receipt of his his Majesty's Exchequer the Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, by such Proportions, and at such Times, as were thereby appointed for the Payment thereof; and such further Sums to be computed after the Rate of four Years and an Half's Purchase, and such further Sums to be computed after the Rate of one Year's Purchase, as are therein mentioned, by quarterly Payments, at such Feast-Days as were thereby limited for Payment of the same; and in and by an Act of Parliament of the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the South-Sea Company to ingraft Part of their Capital Stock and Fund into the Stock and Fund of the Bank of England, and another Part thereof into the Stock and Fund of the East-India Company; and for giving further Time for Payments to be made by the said South-Sea Company, to the Use of the Publick, It is provided, declared and enacted, That the said Company shall pay, and be obliged, by Force and Virtue of that Act, to pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer the said Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and the said several Sums after the Rate of four Years and an Half's Purchase, and one Year's Purchase; and that the same shall be payable by such Proportions, and at or by such respective Days or Times of Payment, as are therein limited and appointed, and herein after mentioned for the Payment thereof, and not otherwise; that is to say, One full and equal fourth Part of the respective Sums so payable, shall be paid on or before the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; one other full and equal fourth Part thereof, on or before the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; one other full and equal fourth Part thereof, on or before the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; and the remaining full and equal fourth Part of the said respective Sums so payable, on or before the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ, which shall be in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; and that the said South-Sea Company, and their Stock and Funds, (except as therein is excepted) are and shall be subject and liable to the Payment of the said several Sums at or before the said respective Days and Times by the last mentioned Act appointed for the Payment thereof, without any Deduction, Defalcation or Abatement whatsoever: And it is thereby further enacted, That in case Default shall be made by the said South-Sea Company in the Payment of all or any Part or Parcel, Parts or Parcels, of the said several Sums of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and of the said Sums to be paid after the Rate of four Years and an Half's Purchase, and one Year's Purchase, or any of them, at the respective Days or Times by that Act limited for the Payment thereof, then the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, or the Officers of the Exchequer for the Time being, shall, and they respectively are thereby authorized, enjoined and required, to cause the Money, whereof such Default in Payment shall be made, with Interest for the same, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, (to be computed as is therein mentioned) to be stopt out of the Monies which, weekly or otherwise, shall be payable to the said Company at the Exchequer, for or upon their Annuities or yearly Funds (except as therein is excepted) and to cause the Principal and Interest so stopt, to be applied as is therein after directed in that Behalf; as by the said several Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto respectively had, may more fully appear: And whereas by the many Frauds, Abuses, and Breaches of Trust, which were committed by the late Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor, and Directors of the said Company, and others in Confederacy with them, or some of them, the said Company has suffered an immense Loss and Damage, and the Publick Credit (as well as the Credit of the said Company) hath been extremely reduced and disordered, contrary to the Purport and true Meaning of the Act of Parliament first above in Part recited, whereby the said Company is become unable to comply with all the Payments required to be made by the Act of Parliament last in Part before recited; and if their Capital Stock, and the Annuities and yearly Funds payable in respect thereof, should continue subject and liable to all the said Payments, and to such Stoppages as are directed by the said Act last mentioned, the Credit of the said Company would be utterly impaired, and the Sufferings of the Members would be extremely increased: And whereas in regard to the Inability of the said Company, under the bad Circumstances to which the same is reduced, and to the Intent that the said Company may be obliged and better enabled to give some further Relief (as this Act directs) to the several Proprietors and Persons concerned in Interest in or with the said Company, in order to the ascertaining and settling their respective Properties and Interests, and the re-establishing of the Publick Credit, and thereby quieting the Minds of his Majesty's Subjects, it is thought meet, that the said Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and the said several and respective Sums, which were intended to be computed after the said respective Rates of four Years and an Half's Purchase, and one Year's Purchase, be remitted and discharged, so as from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, the Sum of two millions Sterling, Part of the Capital Stock which shall then belong to the said Company, be reduced and annihilated, and so as a proportionable Part of their Annuities or yearly Funds, in respect of the said two millions, do from that Time cease and determine for the Benefit of the Publick; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Sum of four millions one hundred fifty-six thousand three hundred and six Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, and the said several and respective Sums, which were intended to be computed and paid after the said several and respective Rates of four Years and an Half's Purchase, and one Year's Purchase, and all Actions, Suits, Executions, Demands, Stoppages, Detentions, and other Remedies for recovering or obtaining the same, or any Part thereof, are and shall, by Force and Virtue of this present Act, be and be deemed and adjudged to be remitted, released, and for ever discharged.

II. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, the full Sum of two millions of Pounds Sterling, Part of the Capital Stock which shall then belong to the said Company, shall by Force and Virtue of this Act, be and be deemed and adjudged to be reduced, sunk and annihilated for ever; and that a proportional Part of their Annuities or yearly Funds, payable at the Exchequer in respect of two Millions, shall, by Force and Virtue of this Act, from and after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be no longer payable, but shall from thenceforth for ever

For putting an End to all Disputes between the Company and the Proprietors of subscribed redeemable Funds, and the Proprietors of the four Money Subscriptions:

III. And whereas several Persons or Corporations, who were intitled to several redeemable Debts and Annuities, payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer, or by the Cashier of the Bank of England, or otherwise, and who were enabled to subscribe the same into the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, did subscribe, or cause or procure to be subscribed, many of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities; and the Proprietors of such of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities as were payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer, or at particular Pay-Offices at or near the Exchequer, did deliver in their respective Orders, Tallies, Tickets or other Securities, for Payment of such Debts or Annuities to Persons for that Purpose appointed; and the Accounts of the Proprietors of such of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities as were payable by the said Cashier of the Bank of England, were debited in the Books of the Bank; and an additional Capital Stock was, upon Books or Duplicates signed and attested by three or more of the Directors or Managers in that Behalf appointed, created or settled by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be allowed to the said Company for or in respect of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities; which said redeemable Debts and Annuities were subscribed, or pretended to be subscribed, at several high Rates or Prices in Stock, exceeding the Rate or Price of four hundred per Centum; and a General Court of the said Company, on or about the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, towards relieving those Proprietors, did agree that the same redeemable Debts and Annuities should be taken in at Par, being one hundred Pounds for each one hundred Pounds Principal Money of those redeemable Debts and Annuities; and that the Proprietors of the same should be entitled to the Interest due thereon, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and be paid for the Principal Sums in the Stock of the said Company, at the Rate of four hundred per Centum, with an Addition of ten per Centum in Stock for a Dividend at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty: And whereas the said Company, or their late Court of Directors, did exhibit, or cause to be exhibited, Books for taking Subscriptions of Money for purchasing Stock of the said Company, commonly called the Four Money Subscriptions; whereupon several Persons or Corporations did advance, or cause to be advanced, Monies amounting to a large Sum; and the General Court of the said Company, on or about the ninth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty, did resolve that no more Money than what had been then actually paid on the said Four Money Subscriptions, should be demanded or insisted on, and that Stock should be given for the Money actually paid by the respective Proprietors in the said first Money Subscriptions, at three hundred per Centum, with the Dividend of Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty, of ten per Centum in Stock; and that Stock should be given for the Money actually paid by the respective Proprietors in the said second Money Subscription, at four hundred per Centum, with the like Dividend; and a General Court of the said Company, on or about the eighteenth Day of the said Month of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty, did resolve that Stock should be given for the Monies paid on the said third and fourth Money Subscriptions at the Rate of four hundred per Centum, with the like Dividend of ten per Centum in Stock: Now in order to put an End to all Disputes between the said Company and the Proprietors of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities subscribed into the said Company, and between the Proprietors of the said Money Subscriptions; and for the further Relief, as well of the Proprietors of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities, as also of the Proprietors of the said second, third and fourth Money Subscriptions, who now have or (pursuant to the said Resolutions of the said General Court) may have Stock allowed them at the said Rate of four hundred per Centum, with the Dividend of Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in Stock as aforesaid; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Corporation, called the South-Sea Company, shall, and the same is hereby enjoined and required to allow and make an Addition after the Rate of thirty-three Pounds, six Shillings and eight Pence, in Stock, upon every one hundred Pounds Stock already allowed or allowable, as aforesaid, to the respective Proprietors of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities, and to the respective Proprietors of the said second, third and fourth Money Subscriptions; which said Addition of thirty-three Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence, in Stock to the said Proprietors of redeemable Debts and Annuities, together with the Stock already allowed them at the Rate of four hundred per Centum, with the Dividend at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in Stock as aforesaid, shall be in full Discharge and Satisfaction of their respective Debts and Annuities which were redeemable, and were subscribed or intended to be subscribed, as aforesaid, and for which the Securities were delivered up, or for which the Books at the Office of the Bank were debited, and for which an additional Stock was created by the Commissioners of the Treasury as aforesaid; and the said Addition of thirty-three Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence, in Stock, to the Proprietors of the Monies which were actually paid upon the said second, third and fourth Money Subscriptions respectively, together with the Stock already allowed or allowable to them at the Rate of four hundred per Centum, with the Dividend at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in Stock as aforesaid, shall be in full Discharge and Satisfaction of the Monies which were actually paid upon the second, third and fourth Money Subscriptions respectively, notwithstanding any Defect or Error, or supposed Defect or Error, in taking in the said Subscriptions of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities, and the said Money Subscriptions, or any of them, or any Mistake, Mistaking or Omission of Entry of Money paid for the said Money Subscriptions in any wise, and notwithstanding any Doubt or Question touching or concerning the Validity of the Subscriptions of the said redeemable Debts and Annuities in any wise; and to the Proprietors of the second, third and fourth Money Subscriptions, which shall be in full Discharge.

An Act for taking off the Duty upon all Salt used in the curing of Red Herrings, and laying a proportionable Duty upon all Red Herrings consumed at home only; and for ascertaining the Customs and Excise payable for the Sugar-Houses in Scotland; and for making an Allowance for Salt lost in any Harbour or River of this Realm; and for the better securing the Duties on Salt delivered in Scotland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt, it is enacted, That all Curers of Fish shall be allowed to import foreign Salt, or take from any Salt-works or Salt-pits any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same is allowed by Law, for curing of Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper, for curing Fish for foreign Markets, without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof; in consequence whereof all Red Herrings spent within this Realm are or should be cured with Salt that has paid the Duties; but in regard the same are cured promiscuously, it is difficult to distinguish them from such as are intended to be exported, whereby his Majesty may be defrauded in his Revenue without a proper Remedy for preventing the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at the Proprietor of Salt, &c. to express the Quantity of Red Herrings entered for home Consumption.

5 Geo. 1. c. 18. Owner of Fish may cause them to be destroyed in Presence of an Officer, whose Certificate shall be admitted instead of Certificate of Exportation required by the Act 5 Geo. 1. c. 18.

Duty of 1s. 8d. per thousand upon Red Herrings shall cease, or be lessened, in Proportion to Duties on Salt. Recital of Part of 5 Geo. 1. c. 19.

1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 19. sect. 19.

the Beginning of every Fishing Season for Herrings the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty-free for the curing of Herrings for Exportation, pursuant to the said Act, or his or their Agent or Agents, shall, instead of the Oath required by the said Act, make Oath in Writing before the Officer for the Duty on Salt, at the Office nearest to the Place where the said Salt is lodged (who is hereby impowered to administer the same) declaring the Quantity of the Foreign or British Salt respectively lodged for curing of Fish, and that all the said Salt is intended for the curing of Fish for Exportation only, and shall not by his or their Order, Consent or Connivance, directly or indirectly, be sold, given away, or any way delivered, but for the Purpose aforesaid, except so much thereof as shall be used for curing such Red Herrings, as shall be entered with the Officer of the Place for home Consumption, and charged with the Duties by this Act chargeable thereupon.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Maker or Curer of Red Herrings, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, before he remove any Red Herrings (except for Exportation) from the Office or Place where the same shall be cured, shall from Time to Time make Entry thereof at the next Salt-Office, and shall pay to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Duty of one Shilling and eight Pence for every thousand of Red Herrings so to be removed, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity: And that in case such Red Herrings shall be packed or put up in Casks, then the Number of Herrings in each Cask shall be marked on the Head thereof; and upon Entry and Payment of the Duty, and marking each Cask as aforesaid, a Permit shall be given gratis by the Salt-Office, expressing the Number of Red Herrings for which the Duties shall be paid as aforesaid, and the Marks and Numbers of such Casks, and for what Place the same are intended, and whether to be sent by Land or Water Carriage, on Pain of forfeiting all the Red Herrings that shall be removed or carried away before Entry be made, and the Duty paid, and without the Casks being marked, and Permit obtained as aforesaid, and of the Cask or Vessel in which such Herrings shall be found, and also the Sum of forty Shillings for every thousand of Red Herrings so removed, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered from the Person or Persons who shall so remove or carry away the same; one Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall seize, sue or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered and levied in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Attigatton, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated by any Law of Excise, or by Act of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster: And all and every Officer and Officers of his Majesty's Customs, Excise or Duties upon Salt are hereby authorized and impowered to seize all such Red Herrings so removed or carried before Entry and Payment of Duty, and all other Things performed as aforesaid, and the said Cask or Vessels wherein they shall be found.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty-free for curing Red Herrings for Exportation, his or their Agent or Agents, shall, in the Account which after the End of every Fishing Season they are to deliver in Writing into the Salt-Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, as by the former Law is directed (and under the Penalties thereby prescribed) express also the Quantity of Red Herrings entered for home Consumption, on which such Salt has been used or consumed.

IV. And whereas by the aforesaid Act in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, the Proprietor or Proprietors of Salt delivered Duty-free for the curing of Fish for Exportation are required at the End of every Fishing Season to deliver an Account in Writing into the Salt-Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entered and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officers of the several Ports where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account: And whereas it may happen, that such Fish may never be exported, for want of an Opportunity to ship them while they are good and merchantable, so that the Proprietors of the Salt can have no such Certificate as is by the said Act required: Be it therefore enacted, That in such Case the Owner of the Fish may cause them to be destroyed in the Presence of an Officer of the Salt-Duties; and the Officer's Certificate that such Fish were destroyed in his Presence, shall be admitted to verify the Account of the Proprietor of the Salt used in curing them, instead of the Officer's Certificate that they were shipped for Exportation, required by the said Act.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Duties of Excise on Salt (which now amount to three Shillings and four Pence per Bushel on home-made Salt, and six Shillings and eight Pence per Bushel on foreign Salt) or any of them, shall cease, determine or be redeemed by Parliament, then the Rate or Duty of one Shilling and eight Pence per thousand hereby imposed upon Red Herrings, shall cease or be lessened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease, determine or be redeemed; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds for publick Services by Sale of Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and to authorize a Treaty concerning private Rights, claimed by the Proprietors of the Sugar-Houses in Scotland, it was (inter alia) enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, should be and they were thereby impowered to treat with the Proprietors of the Sugar-Houses in Scotland for such Sum or Sums of Money as might be a reasonable Satisfaction for such private Rights of Exemption from Custom and Excise, to which the said Proprietors were entitled: And whereas the said Proprietors of the four Sugar-Houses in Scotland, commonly called the Easter, Wester and South Sugar-Houses of Glasgow and the Sugar-Houses of Leith, in Pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in Consideration of their being released and discharged of and from all Claim and Demand which the Crown might might have upon them for Custom or Excise, pretended to be due by them, have proposed to surrender and disclaim all Right, Title and Privilege which they either had or pretended to have, to any Exemption from Custom or Excise; which Proposition appearing to be just and reasonable, and tending to settle the Trade upon the same Foot in Scotland, as it is in England; Therefore be it enacted by the Authority of the Proprietors of Sugar-houses in Scotland to pay the like Duties as other Subjects.

That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two the said Proprietors shall be subject and liable to pay for their Sugars and other Commodities the same and such like Duties of Custom and Excise, as any other of his Majesty's Subjects are liable to pay by the Acts of Parliament now in Force; any Right or pretended Right in the said Proprietors to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all conditional Bonds or other Securities whatsoever, which, on or before the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, have been entered into by the said Proprietors, or either of them, for Payment or Security of any Duties of Custom or Excise, pretended to be due or payable by the said Proprietors, or either of them, as Proprietors of the said Sugar-houses, for which they claimed Exemptions, and for which such Bonds or Securities were given as aforesaid, be and the same are hereby declared to be void and of no Force or Effect; and the proper Officer in whose Power or Custody such Bond or Security is or shall be, is hereby authorized and required to deliver up the same to be cancelled.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Proprietors, their Executors and Administrators, and every of them, shall be and are hereby discharged, released, and indemnified from the Payment of any Duty of Custom and Excise due or pretended to be due from them, as Proprietors of the said Sugar-houses, and for which they claimed such Exemption as aforesaid, before the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two.

IX. And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts; and for the better securing the Duties on Salt, Directions are given, that at the End of every fishing Season, the Officers for the Duty on Salt shall take a particular Account of the Quantity of Foreign and British Salt respectively remaining in Hand, which remaining Salt shall be immediately locked up in the joint Custody of the said Officer and Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents; and the Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, of the said Salt, using the said Salt as aforesaid, shall, as soon as possible, after the End of every fishing Season, deliver an Account in Writing into the Office for the Duty on Salt, containing the Quantity of Fish exported, or entered and shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used and consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officer of the several Ports where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, which said Account delivered into the said Office as aforesaid, shall be affirmed by the Oath of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, using the said Salt as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents, who have used the same; and such Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Persons concerned, who shall for the Space of six Months after the End of every fishing Season, neglect or refuse to deliver such Account attested upon Oath as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such other Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit forty Pounds: And whereas some Doubts have arisen touching the Periods of the several fishing Seasons, and that for the Want of ascertaining the Time when the Accounts aforesaid were to be delivered to the proper Officers, the Merchants Exporters of Fish have in many Places neglected to account for the Salt received by them Duty-free, under Pretence that the fishing Seasons have no End: For Remedy whereof, and for the better securing of his Majesty's Revenues, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Quantities of Foreign or British Salt, as have been delivered Duty-free, into the sole Custody of any Person whatsoever, for the curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, since the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and before the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and which shall not be accounted for as the said Act directs, on or before the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, shall be accounted for as the said Act directs, on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, under the Penalty of ten Shillings per Bushel, to be recovered of the Proprietor or Proprietors, Person or Persons to whom, or for whose Use or Account the said Salt was delivered, for every Bushel so delivered to, or received by them Duty-free, for the curing of Fish for Foreign Markets.

X. And for the more regular accounting for such Salt as shall be delivered Duty-free, for the curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Quantities of Foreign or British Salt, as shall be so delivered after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, shall be accounted for yearly, as the aforesaid Act directs, within three Months after the Expiration of each Year; and every Person or Persons, who shall receive into his or their sole Custody any Quantity of Foreign or British Salt Duty-free, for curing of Fish for Foreign Markets, that shall neglect or refuse to weigh over to the proper Officer what of that Salt shall remain in his or their Hands, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver to the proper Officers yearly, within three Months after the Expiration of each respective Year, such Accounts of the Salt received as aforesaid, and of the Fish cured therewith, and exported as the Act directs, together with a Certificate or Certificates by the proper Officers of the several Ports where the said Fish was shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account (which Certificates the said Officers are hereby required to give gratis, and without Delay) shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose ten Shillings per Bushel, to be recovered of the Proprietor or Proprietors, Person or Persons, to whom, or for whose Use or Account the said Salt was delivered, for every Bushel so delivered to, or received by them; one Moiety of all which Penalties aforesaid to be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who shall sue or inform for the same, to be sued for, recovered and levied, in such Manner and Form, and with such Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated, by any Law of Excise; or by Act of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, XI. And whereas by Storms and violent Rages of the Tides from Sea, into several Ports and Harbours of this Realm of England, divers Ships, Barges, and Lighter-Boats, laden with Salt, for which the Duty and Excise charged thereon were duly paid, have been stranded, overset, sunk, and cast away, within the Bounds and Limits of the same Ports and Harbours, before the same Salt, or any Part thereof hath been landed or delivered on Shore, whereby the said Salt hath perished and been wholly lost, and many of his Majesty's good Subjects, Owners of such Salt, have sustained great and heavy Damages thereby, for which no Relief or Redress in respect to the said Duty and Excise have hitherto been provided: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the second Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is, among other Things, provided and enacted, That in such Cases, where any Salt, for which the said Duty hath been paid, shall by violent or stormy Weather be lost at Sea, any Merchants, or other Persons, Owners of the said Salt, being Subjects of this Realm, shall upon due Proof made thereof before such Justices at such Times, and in such Manner, and with such Restrictions as in the same Act are set forth, receive a Certificate of such Proof as is therein directed, upon producing thereof to any the Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt, the said Officer or Officers shall let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in such Certificate to be lost, without paying any Duty or Excise for the same, as in and by the said Act is expressed: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Merchants, and others as aforesaid, who shall be Owners of any Salt, which after due Payment of the said Duty shall perish or be lost in any of the Ports or Harbours, or Rivers of this Realm, by Storms or Rages of the Tides from Sea, or otherwise, as aforesaid, shall, upon such Proofs to be made thereof, in all Points, and in Manner as by the said recited Act is directed, be intitled to such Certificate, and thereupon to such Right and Privilege in all Respects, as any Owners of the like Salt lost at Sea in the like Case, are entitled to by Virtue of the said Act; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34.

13 & 14 W. 3. c. 4.

Where any Quaker is permitted to make the Declaration of Fidelity required by 1 W. & M. Sess. 1. c. 18. or the Affirmation prescribed by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34. or to make the Effect of the Abjuration enjoined by 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 6. he shall make the following Declaration of Fidelity. The Declaration.

I. WHEREAS for giving some Ease to scrupulous Consciences, an Act was made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, whereby (among other Things) a Declaration of Fidelity, in the Form therein expressed, is appointed to be made and subscribed by certain Persons, Dissenters from the Church of England, who scruple the taking of any Oath: And whereas an Act was made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act that the Solemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People called Quakers, shall be accepted instead of an Oath in the usual Form, under the Provisions therein mentioned, which Act being at first temporary, was afterwards farther continued by an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty, and the same Act is made perpetual by an Act made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, by which last mentioned Act a Form, importing the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, is prescribed to be taken by the said People called Quakers: And whereas the Inconveniencies to the said People called Quakers, and their Families, and to others requiring their Testimony, in many Cases are not sufficiently avoided, by Reason of Difficulties among the said Quakers, relating to the Forms of the Declaration, Affirmation and Abjuration before mentioned, as the same are now prescribed: And whereas it is evident, that the said People called Quakers, have not abused the Liberty and Indulgence allowed to them by Law, and they have given Testimony of their Fidelity and Affection to his Majesty, and the Settlement of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and it is reasonable to give them farther Ease and Relief: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases, where by Law any Quaker is or shall be required or permitted to make and subscribe the Declaration of Fidelity in the Form prescribed by the said first mentioned Act, or to make the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, or to take the Effect of the Abjuration Oath in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, every such Quaker shall, instead of such first mentioned Declaration of Fidelity, make and subscribe a Declaration of Fidelity in the following Words, viz.

I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare, That I will be true and faithful to King George; and do solemnly, sincerely, and truly profess, testify and declare, that I do from my Heart abhor, detest and renounce, as impious and heretical, that wicked Doctrine and Position, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatsoever. And I do declare, that no Foreign Prince, Person, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath or ought to have, any Power, Jurisdiction, Superiority, Preheminence or Authority, Ecclesiastical or Spiritual, within this Realm.

And instead of the Affirmation in 7 & 8 W. 3. shall make the following Affirmation.

And instead of the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, in the Form prescribed by the said Act of the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, every such Quaker shall make the Solemn Declaration or Affirmation following, viz.

The Affirmation.

I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm.

And instead of the Form prescribed by the said Act of the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, every such Quaker shall take the Effect thereof in the following Words, viz.

And instead of the Form of the Abjuration by 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 6. shall take the Effect thereof as follows. Effect of the Abjuration Oath.

I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly acknowledge, profess, testify and declare, That King GEORGE is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and of all other his Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging; and I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe the Person pretended to be the Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease, pretending to be, and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of James the Third, or of Scotland, by the Name of James the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, nor any other the Dominions thereunto belonging; and I do renounce and refuse any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do solemnly promise, that I will be true and faithful, and bear true Allegiance to King GEORGE, and to him will be faithful against all traitorous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown or Dignity. And I will do my best Endeavour to disclose and make known to King GEORGE, and his Successors, all Treasons and traitorous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be made against him, or any of them. And I will be true and faithful to the Succession of the Crown against him the said James, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown, to the late Queen ANNE, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants; and as the same, by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands settled and intailed, after the Decease of the said late Queen, and for Default of Issue of the said late Queen, to the late Princess Sophia, Electress and Dutches Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge, promise and declare, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly and truly.

The Persons required to administer the former Declaration, shall administer the same in the Words appointed by this Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Declaration of Fidelity, and Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, and the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, appointed by this Act for the said People called Quakers, instead of the respective Forms prescribed for the same by the said recited Acts, shall respectively be adjudged and taken to be of such and the same Force and Effect, and no other, to all Intents and Purposes, in all Courts of Justice and elsewhere, as if such Quaker had made and subscribed the Declaration of Fidelity, or had made the Solemn Affirmation or Declaration, or had taken the Effect of the Abjuration Oath, in the respective Forms appointed by the said recited Acts: And if any Person making such Affirmation or Declaration, as is appointed by this Act to be made, instead of the Affirmation or Declaration in the Form prescribed by the before-mentioned Act of the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, shall be lawfully convicted of wilful, false and corrupt Affirming or Declaring any Matter or Thing, which is sworn in the common or usual Form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, every such Person so offending shall incur and suffer such and the same Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are inflicted or enacted by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, against Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

c. 3.

I. WHEREAS by an Act passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarentine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man; and to hinder the Spreading of Infection, It is, amongst other Things enacted, That if any Person infected with the Plague, or obliged to perform Quarentine, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair within convenient Time, after due Notice for that Purpose given to him, her or them, by the proper Officer, to the Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place, duly appointed for him, her or them, or having been placed in such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place, shall escape, or attempt to escape out of the same, whilst he, she or they shall continue infected, or before Quarentine fully performed respectively, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen, and other Persons appointed to see Quarentine performed, by any Kind of Violence, that the Case shall require, to compel every such Person so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, and every such Person so escaping, or attempting to escape as aforesaid, to repair or return unto such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place so appointed for him or her as aforesaid; and every such Person so refusing or neglecting to repair within convenient Time after such Notice as aforesaid, into such Ship, House, Lazaret, or other Place appointed for him or her as aforesaid, and also every Person actually escaping as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy: And it is by the said recited Act also further enacted, That if at any Time or Times hereafter, any City, Town or Place within Great Britain or Ireland, shall be infected with the Plague, It shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to cause one or more Line or Lines, Trench or Trenches, to be cast up or made about such infected City, Town or Place, at a convenient Distance from the same, in order to cut off the Communication between such infected City, Town or Place, and the rest of the Country; and to prohibit all Persons, Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever, to enter, pass, or be carried over such Lines or Trenches, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions for Performance of Quarentine, as shall be directed or permitted by any Order or Orders made, or to be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Council, and notified by Proclamation; and in Case any Person or Persons, being within such Lines or Trenches, or any of them, shall, during the Time of such Infection, presume or attempt to come out of the same, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions for Performance of Quarentine, as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made or to be made, and notified as aforesaid; it shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen, or Persons appointed to guard or secure such Lines or Trenches, or any of them, by any Kind of Violence that the Case shall require, to compel all and every such Person and Persons to return back within such Lines or Trenches, and in Case any Person shall actually come out of such Lines or Trenches, or any of them (unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions as aforesaid) every such Person shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy: And whereas the Execution of the Powers and Authorities mentioned in the said recited Clauses might be very grievous to the Subjects of this Kingdom; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Clauses, and the Powers therein mentioned, and all other Powers in the said Act, to compel any Person or Persons to remove from his, her or their Habitations, to any Ship, Lazaret or other Place, shall be and are hereby repealed and made void from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two.

This Act shall not repeal any Powers or Penalties in the former Act, relating to Persons obliged to perform Quarentine, &c.

C A P. XI.

An Act for restoring and rebuilding the Haven and Piers of Bridport in the County of Dorset, and for making a Sluce there. PR.

I. WHEREAS good Harbours and Ports for Shipping are the greatest Encouragement to Trade and Navigation, upon which the Riches and Strength of this Kingdom do chiefly depend: And whereas the Borough or Town of Bridport in the County of Dorset, was heretofore by Reason of the Haven or Port there, a Place of great Trade and Commerce, and as such hath been taken Notice of by several Charters of his Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and other antient Records; but by Reason of a great Sickness, which heretofore happened in the said Borough or Town, and swept away the greatest Part of the wealthy Inhabitants thereof, and by other Accidents, the said Haven became neglected and choaked with Sands, and the Piers thereof fell to Ruin, to the great Decay of the Trade of the said Borough; and as now there is no Security for Ships that happen to come, or be driven by Strefs of Weather into the deep and dangerous Bay, wherein the said Haven formerly was, Shipwrecks frequently happen, and the Lives and Estates of many of his Majesty's Subjects are lost, which might be prevented, if the said Haven and Piers were restored and rebuilt with proper and convenient Sluce or Sluces to scour and cleanse the same, and the antient Trade of the said Borough thereby might be revived, his Majesty's Customs much augmented, and the Value of Lands adjacent be greatly improved: To the End therefore that the said Haven or Harbour, and Piers, may be restored and rebuilt, and such Sluce or Sluces made, with proper and convenient Keys, Wharfs and Landing-places, for loading and unloading of Ships: Be it enacted, &c.

The Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Bridport in Com. Dorset. appointed Trustees for repairing the Haven and Piers there, &c. And they or their Assigns may, after June 24, 1721. assign a Place near Bridport Mouth, where the said Harbour, Piers, Sluces, &c. shall be made, where the Materials shall be laid, &c. The major Part of the Bailiffs, &c. may remove Rocks and Stones on the Sea-Shore, within three Miles from Bridport Mouth; may have free Passage, &c. But they shall agree with the Owners, &c. of the Ground. If any Persons refuse to agree, or through Disability cannot, two Justices of Dorsetshire may issue Precepts to the Sheriff of that County, for impanelling a Jury. The Sheriff to return twenty-four qualified Persons, to whom the Parties interested may have legal Challenges. The first twelve being sworn, shall assess Damages to the Proprietors. The Justices to give Judgment for the Sums assessed. There shall be paid to the Collectors for every Weigh of Salt, Last of Wheat, Rye, &c. Chaldron of Coals and Tun of other Goods, imported and exported, 12 d. Every Ship, &c. of ten Tun Burthen, or above, to pay 2 d. per Tun. The Bailiffs, &c. may convey the Duties as a Security for Money borrowed. When the Bailiffs, &c. are repaid the Money laid out, the Duties shall cease: And from thenceforth each Weigh of Salt, Last of Wheat, &c. Chaldron of Coals and Tun of other Goods, &c. imported or exported, shall pay only 6 d. And each Ship, &c. 1 d. per Tun. Saving to the Lords of Symondsbury, Burton and Botenhampton, all their Rights, &c.

C A P. XII.

An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

I. WHEREAS in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, a good Law was made for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesty's Plantations in America, by an Act which commenced the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and five, and continued from thence forward for the Space of nine Years; and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, the aforesaid Act is continued from the Time of the Expiration of the same, for the further Term of eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; and by the Act last mentioned, Encouragement is given for the Importation of Naval Stores from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to that Part of Great Britain called England, during the Remainder of the Time limited for granting Premiums to the Importers of Naval Stores from America, by the said Acts: And whereas, in Consequence of the said Encouragement, it is found by Experience that great Quantities of good and merchantable Pitch and Tar (Part of the Naval Stores mentioned in the said Acts) have been imported into this Kingdom from the said Plantations in America, which Pitch and Tar have been found useful for the Service of his Majesty's Navy, and it is necessary to give further Encouragement therein: And whereas it is probable that the Owners of large Tracts of Land in the said Plantations, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, lying near the Sea, and upon navigable Rivers, would be induced to sow the same with Hemp, if farther Encouragement were given for that Purpose: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Premium or Reward of six Pounds, given by the said Acts for every Con of Hemp water-rotted, bright and clean, each Con containing twenty gross Hundreds and six Pounds, shall be continued from the Expiration of the said Act of the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, for and during the Term of sixteen Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and shall be paid and payable in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Methods and Restrictions, as are prescribed in and by the said former Acts or either of them, touching the same; and all such Hemp, being lawfully imported into this Kingdom after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, shall be free and clear of and from all Duties, Customs and Impositions whatsoever, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; any Law, Custom or other Matter or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Premium for Ton of Hemp &c. continued from Expiration of the Act 12 Ann. for 16 Years, &c. Further continued by 16 Geo. 2. c. 26. and 24 Geo. 2. c. 57.

Hemp imported after 24 June, 1722, Duty-free.

II. And whereas great Quantities of Wood and Timber, and of the Goods commonly called Lumber, herein after particularly enumerated, (that is to say) Deals of several Sorts, Timber Balks of several Sizes, Barrel Boards, Clap Boards, Pipe Boards, or Pipe Holt, White Boards for Shoemakers, Boom and Cant Spars, Bow Staves, Capravens, Clap Holt, Ebony Wood, Headings for Pipes, and for Hogsheds and Barrels, Hoops for Coopers, Oars, Pipe and Hogsheds Staves, Barrel Staves, Firkin Staves, Trunnels, Speckled Wood, Sweet Wood, Small Spars, Oak, Plank and Wainscot, or some of them, have usually been imported into this Kingdom from foreign Countries at excessive Rates or Prices, especially in Time of War, and Foreigners have thereby found Opportunities to export the coined Monies of this Realm; and it is well known that the said Commodities, being of the Growth and Product of his Majesty's Plantations in America, may be furnished from thence, if due Encouragement was given in that Behalf: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who, within the Term of one and twenty Years, to be reckoned from the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, shall import or cause to be imported into Great Britain, directly from any of his Majesty's British Plantations or Colonies in America, in any Ship or Vessel,

Penalties on Offenders.

Vessel, Ships or Vessels, which may lawfully trade to or from his Majesty's said Plantations or Colonies, and which shall be navigated according to Law, any Sort of Wood, Plank or Timber whatsoever, wrought or unwrought, or any of the Goods called Lumber, before in this Act enumerated, such Wood, Plank, Timber and Lumber, being of the Growth and Product of the said Plantations or Colonies, or some of them, (except Masts, Mards and Bowsprights, touching which Duties and Premiums are ascertained by former Acts in that Behalf) shall and may import the same free from all Customs and Impositions whatsoever, granted to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

III. And to the End his Majesty's Royal Navy may, from Time to Time, have the Benefit of so much of such Hemp, as shall be requisite for the Service thereof; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Importation of any Hemp, for which any Bounty or Premium is by this or any former Act given, the Pre-emption or Refusal of such Hemp shall be offered and tendered to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, or some of their Agents for the Time being, upon landing the same; and if within the Space of twenty Days after such Tender, the said Commissioners shall not contract or bargain for the same, it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners of such Hemp, otherwise to dispose thereof, as by Law they may, for his, her or their best Profit and Advantage.

IV. And whereas in and by the said Act, made in the third and fourth Years of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesty's Plantations in America, a Reward or Premium was given for Tar, brought into this Kingdom directly from her Majesty's Plantations in America, after the Rate of four Pounds for every Ton of good and merchantable Tar, under such Rules, Regulations, and Provisoos, as are therein mentioned; which Act was continued by one other Act made in the twelfth Year of the same Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing an Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesty's Plantations in America; and for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland to that Part of Great Britain called England, and is still in Force; and by the said last mentioned Act the like Reward or Premium of four Pounds per Ton, was extended to and given for Tar brought from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland to that Part of Great Britain called England, under the like Rules, Regulations and Provisoos, as in the Case of Plantation Tar: And whereas by one other Act passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act against clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods; and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, the said Reward or Premium is to be allowed for such Tar only as should be clean, good, merchantable, and well conditioned, and fit for making Cordage; and nevertheless, the Tar imported from the said Plantations has hitherto been found to retain an hot and thick Quality, whereby it is not so fit for making Cordage, as the East Country Tar: Wherefore for Remedy thereof for the future, and to the End his Majesty's Navy may have the Benefits intended by the said Acts, in being supplied with Plantation Tar fit for making Cordage; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, no Certificate be made out by any Officer of his Majesty's Customs, in any Port of this Kingdom, for any Tar which shall be imported into this Kingdom, from any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, nor any Bill made out by the Commissioners or principal Officers of his Majesty's Navy, whereby to entitle the Importer of such Tar to any Reward or Premium, unless the Certificate of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Collector of the Customs, and Naval Officer, or any two of them, (which Certificate is by the said Act of the third and fourth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, directed to be by them made out in such Terms, Manner and Form, and for such Intents and Purposes as are therein mentioned) do express, That it has appeared to them (the Persons so certifying) by the Oath of the Owner or Maker of the Tar, for which such Certificate shall be granted (such Oath to be made before any Justice of the Peace within the Colony or Plantation where such Tar shall be made, who is hereby authorized to administer the same) that the Tar therein mentioned was made from green Trees prepared for that Purpose, after the following Manner; that is to say, That when such Trees were fit to bark, the Bark thereof was stripped eight Foot, or thereabouts, up from the Root of each Tree, a Slip of the Bark of about four Inches in Breadth having been left on one Side of each Tree; and that each Tree, after having been so barked, had stood during one Year at the least, and was not before cut down for the making of Tar; any Thing herein, or in any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And whereas the Laws already made, and still in Force, for the Preservation of White Pine-Trees in his Majesty's Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or King's Province, and Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, for the Masting the Royal Navy, have been found insufficient for that Purpose, so that a further Provision is necessary to be made therein: And forasmuch as there are great Numbers of White Pine-Trees, fit for Masting the Royal Navy, growing in his Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia in America; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, no Person or Persons within the said Colonies or Plantations of Nova Scotia, New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, Rhode-Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or King's Province, and Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, or within any of them, do or shall presume to cut, fell or destroy any White Pine-Trees, not growing within any Township, or the Bounds, Lines or Limits thereof, in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, without his Majesty's Royal Licence for so doing first had and obtained, on Pain that every Person so cutting, felling and destroying such Pine-Trees, or who shall be aiding or assisting therein, or in drawing away the said Pine-Trees, after the same shall have been so cut, felled or destroyed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the several and respective Sums following; That is to say, for every White Pine-Tree, of the Growth of twelve Inches Diameter and under, at three Foot from the Earth, the Sum of five Pounds; for every such Tree, from twelve Inches to eighteen Inches Diameter, the Sum of ten Pounds; for every such Tree, from eighteen Inches to four and twenty Inches Diameter, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and for every such Tree, from four and twenty Inches Diameter and upwards, the Sum of fifty Pounds; which several Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be sued for within six Months after the Offence committed, by Plaintiff or Informer, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before the Judge of the Admiralty, or his Deputy, within the Colony or Plantation, where such Pine-Tree shall be cut, felled or destroyed; one Moiety of such Penalties and Forfeitures to be to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, the other Moiety to the Informer who shall sue for the same; and in Case any Dispute shall arise whether such Tree, when cut, felled or destroyed, was growing within any Township, or the Bounds, Lines or Limits thereof, as aforesaid, the Proof shall lie upon the Owner; and on Conviction of such Offender for such Offence, as aforesaid, if he shall refuse or neglect to pay the Penalty and Forfeiture thereby incurred by the Space of twenty Days after such Conviction, that then such Judge or his Deputy shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Offender, rendering the Overplus, if any be, to the Owner; and when no sufficient Distress can be found, such Judge or Deputy shall commit the Offender to Prison, within the Colony or Plantation where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, during such Time as such Judge or Deputy shall appoint, not exceeding twelve Months, nor less than three Months, or until such Offender shall pay the Penalty or Sum of Money so recovered; and after such Payment made, shall likewise find sufficient Security for his Good Behaviour, during the Space of three Years, to be accounted from the Time of such his Conviction: And it is hereby declared, that all White Pine-Trees, Masts or Logs made from such Trees, which from and after the said one and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two shall be found cut or felled without such Licence as aforesaid, in any of his Majesty's said Colonies or Plantations, shall be forfeited and seized for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; any former Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

How to be recovered.

White Pine-Trees, Masts, &c. felled without Licence, forfeited to the King.

VI. And whereas by one other Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, 9 Ann. c. 17. intituled, An Act for the Preservation of White and other Pine-Trees growing in her Majesty's Colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, and Province of Main, and Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or King's Province, Connecticut in New England, and New York, and New Jersey, in America, for the Masting her Majesty's Navy, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That no Person or Persons, within the said Colonies and Plantations, should cut, fell or destroy any White Pine-Tree, fit for Mast (not being the Property of any private Person) such Tree being of the Growth of four and twenty Inches Diameter and upwards, at twelve Inches from the Earth, without her Majesty's Licence, on the Penalty of one hundred Pounds Sterling, to be recovered, levied and distributed, as therein is mentioned; Be it hereby further enacted, That so much of the said Act as relates to the cutting, felling or destroying such White Pine-Trees, and the Penalties to be incurred thereby, shall, from and after the one and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be and stand absolutely repealed.

C A P. XV.

An Act for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom; and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported; and for reducing the Duties upon Beaver-Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs imported; and for the Importation of all Furs of the Product of the British Plantations, into this Kingdom only; and that the two Corporations of Assurance, on any Suits brought on their Policies, shall be liable only to single Damages and Costs of Suit.

I. MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas the Wealth and Prosperity of this Kingdom doth very much depend upon the Improvement of its Manufactures, and the profitable Trade carried on by the Exportation of the same, which Trade ought, by all proper Means, to be encouraged, for the more comfortable Support and Maintenance of great Numbers of your Majesty's Subjects employed in the Making or Working of such Goods, and for the Enlargement of the Commerce of Great Britain: And whereas the Manufacture of Silk Stuffs, and of Stuffs mixed with Silk, which is one of the most considerable Branches of the Manufactures of this Kingdom, has, of late Years, been greatly improved in this Kingdom, and there is Reason to believe, that the Exportation of them into foreign Parts would considerably increase, were it not obstructed and hindered by Reason of the high Duties payable upon the Importation of raw and thrown Silk, without any Allowance being made upon the said Silks, when wrought up and exported; and in Regard the said raw and thrown Silk, when exported unmanufactured, do draw back great Part of the Duties paid inwards; and it seems just and reasonable that the said Silks, when made up, should also enjoy the same Benefit and Allowance upon the Exportation of them; and for that there is a Waste of the raw and thrown Silk, used in the Manufacture: Therefore we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray your Majesty, That it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and Allowances to Exporters of Commodities manufactured in Great Britain. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Sum and Sums of Money, as shall arise by Virtue of this Act, for the said reduced Duties upon Beaver-Skins imported, and for such Pepper delivered out of the Warehouses for Home Consumption, and for the said reduced Duties upon Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs imported (the necessary Charges of Management excepted) are and shall be appropriated and applied to and for the same respective Uses, and in such or the like Proportions, Manner and Form, and subject to such respective Powers of Redemption, as the present Duties upon Beaver-Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs, at or before the making of this Act, were by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force respectively appropriated and applicable; and that all the Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament for appropriating and applying the said present Duties upon Beaver-Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs, every or any of them, shall be continued, practised and put in Execution, for appropriating and applying the Monies to arise by Virtue of this Act, for and upon the said respective Duties upon Beaver-Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs, according to this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, upon Exportation of any of the said Mace, Cloves or Nutmegs, or any of them, within the Time allowed by Law, for which the Duties chargeable by this Act shall have been first paid or secured, there shall be allowed certain Drawbacks, as shall bear such or the like Proportion to the Sums charged by this Act upon Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs respectively, as the former Drawbacks allowable on Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs exported respectively did bear to the Duties thereupon, before the making of this Act, and no more; which proportional Drawbacks shall be made and allowed, according to such Rules and Methods as Drawbacks are allowed by any Laws now in Force relating to the Customs.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned, shall and may be prosecuted and determined by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and one Moiety of the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the Use of the King's Majesty, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as will sue for or prosecute the same.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in Pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

XXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Beaver-Skins, and other Furs of the Product of any of the British Plantations in America, Asia or Africa, shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be imported directly from thence into Great Britain, and laid on Shore there, and not elsewhere, under the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in an Act passed in the twelfth Year of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increasing Shipping and Navigation, in relation to Sugars, Tobacco and other enumerated Goods, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the English Plantations therein mentioned, to be recovered and distributed in such Manner, as the Penalties and Forfeitures relating to the said enumerated Goods are, by the said recited Act, to be recovered and distributed.

XXV. And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better securing certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majesty by two Charters, for Assurance of Ships and Merchandizes at Sea; and for lending Money on Bottomry; and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned, his Majesty was enabled to erect two distinct Corporations for Assurance of Ships, Goods and Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; which said Corporations are by the said Act obliged, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of the same Corporations respectively, to cause such a Stock of ready Money to be provided and reserved, as shall be sufficient to answer, from Time to Time, all just Demands upon their Policies of Assurance for any Losses whatsoever which shall happen, and to satisfy, pay and discharge the same Demands, from Time to to Time, according to the Tenors of their respective Policies of Assurance, and the true Meaning of the said Act; and in Case of Refusal and Neglect to pay the same, the said Corporations are by the said Act respectively subjected to pay double Damages, besides full Costs of Suit, to be recovered by Action, Bill, Suit or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster: And whereas his Majesty hath been graciously pleased (pursuant to the said Act) to erect two distinct Corporations for the Purposes aforesaid, one by the Name and Title of the Governor and Company of the Royal Exchange Assurance, and the other by the Name and Title of the Governor and Company of the London Assurance; and the said Corporations have accordingly provided Stocks of ready Money for answering the Purposes of the said Act, but do find themselves under Discouragements and Inconveniencies by being subjected to pay double Damages, besides full Costs of Suit in Actions, which they cannot avoid, there being no Provision in the said Act to oblige the Parties assured, to make Discovery to the said Corporations of their true Losses, before any Action brought; and unreasonable Suits in doubtful Cases are encouraged, for the Sake of such double Damages, and full Costs: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act, as subjects the said Corporations, or either of them, to pay double Damages, besides full Costs of Suit, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that in all Cases where by the said Act or Charters the said Corporations, or either of them, are subjected to pay double Damages, beside full Costs of Suit, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover against the same Corporation or Corporations only single Damages, and full Costs of Suit; any Thing in the said recited Act, or in the Charters of the said Corporations, or either of them, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Royal Exchange Assurance and London Assurance, liable to single Damages and Costs of Suit only.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty-free, for curing White Herrings for Exportation, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, his or their Agent or Agents, shall, in the Account which after the End of every Fishing-Season, they are to deliver in Writing into the Salt-Office, containing the Quantity of Fish exported or entred, and shipt to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, as by the former Law is directed (and under the Penalties thereby prescribed) express also the Quantity of White Herrings entred for home Consumption, on which such Salt has been used or consumed.

V. And whereas an Act passed in the eighth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and for better preventing Frauds on Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; in which Act there were several Regulations enacted to be complied with, in order to entitle the Exporters of Tobaccoes to their Debentures; which new Regulations being made to commence from the seven and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, by which Time the same could not be known in Scotland, several Parcels of Tobaccoes through Ignorance were exported from thence, without Regard to the Regulation laid down in the said Act, the Debentures of which Tobaccoes have been refused to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants upon that Account only; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Tobaccoes exported from Scotland after the seven and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten, and before the seventh Day of May next following, the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland shall cause the Debentures to be made forth and allowed to the Merchants, according to the Law then in Force, before the seven and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ten; any Thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in foreign Parts; and for better securing the Duties on Salt; it is enacted, That the Curers of Fish shall be allowed to import foreign Salt, or take from any Salt-Works or Salt-Pits any such Quantity of British Salt, where the same is allowed by Law for curing Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for curing Fish for foreign Markets without paying any Duty to his Majesty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation thereof: And whereas the Refiners of Salt from Rock-Salt cannot have equal Benefit of the said Act with the Proprietors of other Salt, the said Refiners being obliged to pay, or give Security to pay, the Duty before the Rock-Salt be removed from the Pits, and cannot draw it back, there being no Provision made in what Manner the said Duty shall be drawn back; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, it shall and may be lawful for any Refiner of Rock-Salt to deliver in the Presence of an Officer of the Salt-Duties, to any Curer or Curers of Fish, any such Quantity of refined Salt, where the same is allowed by Law for curing Fish for Exportation, as they shall think proper for curing Fish for foreign Markets; and the Collector of the Salt-Duties shall give a Certificate under his Hand, expressing the true Quantity delivered, and to whom, and whither to be carried; and the Officer of the Place whither the same shall be carried for the Curing of Fish for foreign Markets, shall give a Certificate of the true Quantity brought thither, and lodged in a Warehouse under the Lock and Key of the said Officer, as well as the Proprietor of the said Salt; and if it shall appear to be the full Quantity that was first delivered (making reasonable Allowance for Waste) such Certificate shall be accepted by the Collector of the Duties on Salt at the Rock-Pits, towards discharging the Security given for the Duty on the Rock-Salt made Use of in making the said refined Salt; and that upon the warehousing any such refined Salt, or any other Salt delivered Duty-free, for the curing Fish for foreign Markets, that has been brought by Sea in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, the Master or his Mate, or the Boatswain of such Ship or Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer of the Salt-Duties (who is hereby impowered to administer the same) that all the Salt he took in or loaded at the Place of Loading (mentioning the Quantity) is truly delivered to be lodged in a Warehouse under the Lock and Key of the Officer, and that there was no Salt added to it or taken from it at such Place of Loading, or since he came from it, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, under the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that shall be otherwise delivered, and ten Shillings per Bushel; and if it shall happen that the Vessel on which such refined Salt as aforesaid, is shipped, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies, with such Salt on board her, that in such Case any Merchant or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them; and upon producing the said Certificate to the Collector of the Salt-Duties at the Rock-Pits, such Certificate shall be accepted by such Collector, towards discharging the Security given for the Duty on the Rock-Salt made Use of in making such refined Salt.

I. WHEREAS it is just and reasonable that all British Merchants trading to Portugal, should proportionably contribute to the Relief of shipwrecked Mariners, and other distressed Persons, your Majesty's Subjects there, and to the other pious and charitable Purposes herein after mentioned: And whereas it hath been usual for the Consul General for the Time being, appointed for all Persons trading from the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, to the Kingdoms and Dominions of Portugal, or his Deputy Consuls, with the Majority of the British Merchants and Factors there, to receive and recover (for the Purposes aforesaid) from all British Merchants and Factors residing in Portugal, and all others your Majesty's Subjects trading thither from any of your Majesty's Dominions, so much Money as should not exceed four Reis per Mill Reis, upon the Valuation of their Goods in the Customhouse of Lisbon; and for all Corn, Grain, Butter, and other Goods, which pay no Custom to the King of Portugal, so much Money as should not exceed four Reis per Mill Reis, and what they should be valued at, to be paid to such Treasurer as should be annually chosen by such Consul, and the Majority of the British Merchants and Factors, in the same Manner as two Reis per Mill for Relief of shipwrecked Mariners, and other distressed Persons, your Majesty's Subjects, have been usually collected; and that such Treasurer should, out of the said Money, pay yearly to the Minister residing there, three hundred Mill Reis per Annum, for his Maintenance and Subsistence, to pray, preach and exercise his Ministerial Function; and that the Remainder of the said Money should be disposed of, from Time to Time, according to the Directions of the said Consul, with the Majority of the said Merchants and Factors: And whereas several Persons have of late consigned Goods and Merchandizes exported from this Kingdom, Ireland, and other your Majesty's Dominions, unto Strangers and Foreigners residing at Lisbon, and elsewhere in the Dominions of the King of Portugal, and have thereby not only eluded the pious and charitable Purposes aforesaid, but have occasioned an unequal Charge on your Majesty's other trading Subjects: And whereas it will be for the Ease and Advantage of your Majesty's Subjects in general trading to Portugal, to alter the Payments before-mentioned, and put the National Expence of the said Trade upon a just and equitable Foot: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, That it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, it shall be lawful to and for such Person or Persons as shall be authorized and appointed, from Time to Time, by the Majority of the British Merchants and Factors residing in Portugal, being assembled with the Consul General for the Time being, appointed or to be appointed for your Majesty's Subjects trading to Portugal, or with his Deputy-Consul or Deputy-Consuls, or any of them, in any of the Ports or Places in Portugal, or any of the Dominions thereof, to receive and recover from all Masters, or other Chief Officers or Commanders of all British Ships or Vessels trading from Great Britain or Ireland, or any other Part of your Majesty's Dominions, to any of the Kingdoms or Dominions of the King of Portugal, the following Sums (to be employed for the pious and charitable Purposes herein mentioned) that is to say, Any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding two hundred Reis per Ton, on all Tonnage Goods, (except Wheat, Barley, Rye, Coals, Timber, Boards and Lumber) and any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding one hundred Reis per Ton, on all Wheat, Barley, Rye, Coals, Timber, Boards and Lumber; and all Bills of Lading of such Ships and Vessels, shall specify to pay the said Monies accordingly, under the Denomination of Contribution, as per Act of Parliament, or to that Effect; and the Persons paying the same shall be reimbursed by their respective Freighters, or by the Persons to whom the said Goods and Merchandizes shall be consigned, or who shall receive the same: And in case no Bill of Lading shall appear, or no Freight or Tonnage is settled between the Owner or Owners of the Goods or Merchandizes and the Master or Commander of any British Ship or Vessel trading as aforesaid, then the Freight or Tonnage of such Goods or Merchandizes shall be valued by two indifferent British Merchants on the Place; one to be chosen and appointed by the Consul General, or his Deputy Consul, and the other by the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel, within ten Days next after unloading the said Goods; and in case the two Persons so chosen shall not agree and award the same in five Days next after such Appointment, such two Persons shall then chuse a third Person (being a British Merchant on the Place) as an Umpire who shall decide and determine the said Valuation of Freight or Tonnage in three Days, and such Sums shall be paid in either Case (for the Purposes aforesaid) as shall be agreeable to this Act.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Masters, Commanders, or other Chief Officers of all British Ships and Vessels, trading from Great Britain or Ireland, or any other of your Majesty's Dominions, to any of the Dominions of the King of Portugal, and unloading or delivering the Ship or Vessel, or any of the Cargo there, shall, within ten Days after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, deliver to the Consul General, or Deputy Consul residing there, or to such other Person or Persons as shall be appointed for that Purpose, as aforesaid, a true Manifest in Writing upon Oath, specifying the Particulars of the whole Cargo of such Ship and Vessel so unloaded or delivered, or of such Part thereof as shall be unloaded or delivered there, and to whom consigned, which Oath such Consul General, Deputy Consul, or other Person or Persons to be appointed as aforesaid, is and are hereby respectively impowered and required to administer gratis, upon Request.

FORASMUCH as the Laws already made to prevent the secret landing of prohibited and uncustomed Goods have been found insufficient for that Purpose, it being notorious that such infamous and pernicious Practices are still continued in open Defiance of the Laws, to the great Diminution of the publick Revenues, the Discouragement of honest Traders, and during the Time of Infection abroad, to the endangering the Health and Lives of many thousands of his Majesty's innocent Subjects, by bringing into this Kingdom, from infected Places, Goods apt to retain Infection: And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act against clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods; and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs, it was enacted, That any Ship, Vessel or Boat of the Burthen of fifteen Tuns, or under, wherein any Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever should be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek thereof (except as therein is excepted) such Ship, Vessel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, or the Value thereof, should be forfeited and lost, and should and might be seized, recovered, broke up and sold, as therein mentioned, which Forfeiture is, by an Act passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office and House-Money, extended to Vessels of thirty Tuns: And whereas to elude the Intent of the said Laws many Persons do now carry on a clandestine Trade by importing those Goods in Ships and Vessels above the Burthen of thirty Tuns: For the Prevention thereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any foreign Brandy, Arrack, Strong Waters or Spirits of any Kind whatsoever shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek thereof, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat of the Burthen of forty Tuns or under, according to the Admeasurement prescribed in the last mentioned Act (except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship, Vessel or Boat, not exceeding two Gallons for each such Seaman) every such Ship, Vessel or Boat, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, as also all such Brandy, Arrack, Strong Waters or Spirits, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall and may be prosecuted and divided in such Manner and Form, as is prescribed in the said Acts concerning Ships, Vessels and Boats of fifteen or thirty Tuns as aforesaid; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel or Boat, the principal Officers of his Majesty's Customs in the the Port or Place where the same shall be at the Time of such Condemnation, are hereby directed to cause the Hull of such Ship, Vessel or Boat to be burnt and wholly destroyed, and the Tackle, Furniture and Apparel thereunto belonging, to be publicly sold to the best Advantage, and the Produce thereof to be divided as herein after mentioned, the reasonable Charges of prosecuting, selling and burning as aforesaid being first deducted.

III. And whereas many Frauds are committed to the Prejudice of the Revenue in the clandestine Running of Goods imported, and in relanding Certificate Goods, as well as in exporting Wool and the Coin of this Kingdom, by Watermen and others in Boats, Wherries, Pinnaces, Barges and Gallies, which are sometimes rowed with six, eight or twelve Oars, built on Purpose for the Smuggling Trade; and in case they are pursued by the Officers, do make their Escape, which may be also a Means of bringing in the Infection: For the preventing whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, if any Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, rowing or made or built to row with more than four Oars, shall be found upon the Water or in any Bargehouse, Workhouse, Shed or other Place within any of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent or Essex, or in the River of Thames, either above or below London-Bridge, or within the Limits of the Ports of London, Sandwich or Ipswich, or the Members or Creeks to them, or either of them respectively belonging, such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, with all her Tackle and Furniture, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs; and the Owner or Owners thereof, or any Person using or rowing in such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Pounds; and such Seizure and Forfeiture shall and may be prosecuted in the Manner herein after mentioned; and after the Seizure and Condemnation of such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, the principal Officers of his Majesty's Customs in the Port or Place where the same shall be at the Time of such Condemnation, are hereby directed to cause such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley to be burnt and wholly destroyed, and the Tackle, Furniture and Apparel thereunto belonging to be publicly sold to the best Advantage, the Produce whereof to be divided as herein after mentioned; the reasonable Charges of prosecuting, selling and burning as aforesaid being first deducted.

Boats, &c. rowing with more than four Oars, above or below London Bridge, &c. forfeited.

Owner, &c. to forfeit 40 l.

To what Barges, &c. this Act shall not extend.

Returning into Great Britain or Ireland, Felony.

Offender before Conviction discovering two Accomplices within two Months, to have 40 l. for each, and acquitted, &c.

IV. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to any Barge or Galley belonging to or to belong to his Majesty, or the Royal Family, or any of them, or to any Long-Boat, Paul or Pinnace belonging to and used in the Service of any Merchant-Ship or Vessel, or to such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, as shall be licensed by the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the major Part of the same Commissioners for the Time being; which Licences shall be in Writing, signed by the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the major Part of such Commissioners for the Time being, and shall be granted without any Fee or Charge whatsoever.

V. Provided always, That no such Licence shall be granted, but upon sufficient Security to be given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Owner or Owners of such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, by Bond, in such Penalty as the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, shall find to be reasonable, with Condition that the same shall not be made use of in the clandestine Running of uncustomed and prohibited Goods; which Security the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, who shall grant such Licence, are hereby empowered and required to take for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two all and every Person and Persons, who shall be found passing (knowingly and willingly) with any foreign Goods or Commodities landed from any Ship or Vessel, without the due Entry and Payment of the Duties by Law charged thereon, in his, her or their Custody, from any of the Coasts of this Kingdom, or within the Space of twenty Miles of any of the said Coasts, and shall be more than five Persons in Company, or shall carry any offensive Arms or Weapons, or wear any Mask, or other Disguise, when passing with such Goods or Commodities as aforesaid, or shall forcibly hinder or resist any of the Officers of the Customs or Excise in the seizing or securing any Sorts or Kinds of run Goods or Commodities, shall be deemed and taken to be Runners of foreign Goods and Commodities within the Meaning of this present Act, and (being convicted of or for any of the said Offences, for which he, she or they so convicted are by this present Act declared to be deemed and taken to be Runners of foreign Goods and Commodities) shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall, for such his, her or their Offence, be transported as a Felon to some or one of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, there to remain for the Space of seven Years, in the same Manner as Felons are appointed to be transported by an Act made in the fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the preventing of Robbery, Burglary and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons and unlawful Exporters of Wool; and for declaring the Law in some Points against Piracies; and by another Act made in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the further preventing Robbery and Burglary and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons; and if any such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain or Ireland before the Expiration of the said seven Years, he, she or they so returning shall suffer as Felons, and have Execution awarded against him, her or them, as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Runner of foreign Goods or Commodities as aforesaid shall, within two Months after such his Offence, and before his Conviction, discover two or more of his Accomplices therein to the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in England or Scotland respectively, so as they, or two of them at least, be convicted of such Offence, the Offender or Offenders so discovering shall have and receive the Sum of forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, as a Reward for such his Discovery; so as the Value of the Goods recovered for the Use of his Majesty on such Discovery shall exceed the Sum of fifty Pounds, Pounds; and such Person so discovering shall be clearly acquitted and discharged of such his or her Offence.

Other Persons discovering in three Months, to have 40l. over and above any other Reward.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, if any other Person or Persons shall, within three Months after such Offence shall have been committed, discover to the said Commissioners respectively any Person or Persons who shall have been guilty of such Offence, so as such Offender or Offenders be convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall have and receive the like Reward of forty Pounds for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, over and above any other Reward or Recompence, which he or they may be entitled unto, on Account of the Goods so carried or conveyed away, which shall be recovered by Means of such his or their Discovery, or on Account of the Penalties which shall be recovered for the Running of the said Goods, so as the Value of the said Goods recovered for the Use of his Majesty on such Discovery shall exceed the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Reward to be paid by the Receiver General and Cashiers of the Customs and Excise, by Order of the Commissioners in England and Scotland respectively.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in England and Scotland respectively shall cause the several Rewards of forty Pounds for the Discovery of the Offenders before-mentioned, to be paid by the respective Receiver General or Cashier of the Customs and Excise for the Time being, out of any publick Money in his or their Hands under the Management of the said Commissioners, in Proportion to the Duties payable on the Goods so clandestinely run, for which such Person or Persons shall be convicted, upon producing to them a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of the Judge or Justice of the Court before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be tried, certifying the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, and the Money paid by any Receiver General or Cashier as aforesaid shall be accepted of and allowed in his Accounts, as so much Money paid to his Majesty, and such Receiver General or Cashier is and shall be hereby discharged thereof accordingly; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons receiving Goods, &c. clandestinely run, &c. forfeit 20l.

X. And forasmuch as the Persons using such clandestine Trade are greatly encouraged to continue the same, by reason great Numbers of Persons, for their private Lucre, receive and buy the Goods and Merchandizes so by them clandestinely imported contrary to Law, which may be a Means of bringing in the Infection: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall receive or buy any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes so clandestinely run or imported, before the same shall have legally been condemned, knowing the same to be so clandestinely run or imported, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted upon his, her or their Appearance or Default, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Party, by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Division or Liberty where such Offence shall be committed, or the Offender shall be found (which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer) the Person so convicted shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid; and for want of such Distress every such Offender shall by such Justice or Justices be committed to Prison, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Months.

All Dealers in foreign Brandy, &c. to keep them separate from British Spirits, on Penalty of 10s. for every Gallon British, and Forfeiture of Casks.

XI. And whereas several considerable Dealers in foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters have and keep very large Stocks or Quantities of foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale, many whereof live upon or near the Coasts of this Kingdom, and thereby have or may have Opportunities for furnishing themselves with the said Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, either by running the same themselves, or procuring it from others who have or shall run it: And whereas many of the said Dealers are gotten into a Practice of receiving into their Custody great Quantities of Spirits made in this Kingdom, which for the most part are brought to them from London, with Permit or Certificate that the Duties of the same have been paid, which Spirits are either drawn so low, or by mixing the same with Water made of so mean a Quality, that of themselves they are of little or no Value, and by having those Spirits in their Custody, the said Dealers have Opportunities of increasing their Stocks of foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, which they either run themselves, or procure others to do it for them; and when such Increase is discovered by the Officers of the Excise, the same is pretended to have been made by a Mixture of the said mean British Spirits with their foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, whereas in Truth they really destroy the said British Spirits, and do not mix the same with their foreign Goods, whereby the Practice of running the same is become difficult to be found out and discovered, and the pernicious Trade of running the said foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters successfully carried on: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two all Dealers in foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, who shall then have, or from thenceforth receive into their Custody, any British Spirits, shall keep the same separate and apart, and in separate Cellars, Vaults or other Places, from their foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of ten Shillings for every Gallon of British Spirits which shall be found in any Vault, Cellar or other Place, where any Dealer in foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters shall have or keep any foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, together with the Casks and other Vessels wherein the same British Spirits shall be found.

Increase of foreign Brandy, &c. found by Officer after former Survey, to be deemed as Brandy without Permit, &c.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer of the Excise shall find any Increase of foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters in the Hands of any such Dealer, over and above the Quantity which such Officer found in such Dealer's Custody at the Time of such Officer's last preceding Survey upon such Dealer, such Increase shall be deemed and taken to be made by foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, for which no Duties were paid, and which had been privately brought by such Dealer into the Place where such Increase shall be found, without any Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duty thereof, or any previous Entry or Notice to any Officer of Excise of bringing the same; and so much of the said foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, as shall be found so increased, shall, together with the Cask or other Vessel wherein the same shall shall be so contained, be forfeited and lost; and shall and may be seized and secured by such Officer and Officers of Excise who shall so find and discover the same, unless the Owner thereof shall make it appear, that such Increase was made either by mixing some of his Stock of British Spirits, whereof the Officer of Excise had taken an Account, with his foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters in the Presence of the Officer of Excise of the Division where the said Increase shall be found, or by foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters brought into the Place where such Increase shall be found, with a Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duties thereof, or that the same had been formerly condemned, or was Part of some Person's Stock in Hand on the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and that due Notice was given to the Officer of Excise at the said Division of the bringing in the same, before the same was so brought in.

XIII. And whereas many Retailers of foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters are furnished with the Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters which they retail by Persons who run the same, or their Accomplices, in small Quantities, viz. less than one Gallon at a Time, and when the Officers of the Excise find such small Quantities in the Hands of such Retailers, they refuse to produce any Permit or Certificate for the same; alledging, that no such Permit or Certificate are required by Law for any Quantity of such Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters under the Quantity of one Gallon, whereby the Runners thereof find Means to dispose of great Quantities of such run Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two no foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, although the same be under the Quantity of one Gallon, shall be received or taken into the Custody or Possession of any such Retailer, or any Person or Persons for the Use of any such Retailer, without a Permit or Certificate signed by some Officer of the Customs or Excise, signifying that the Duties thereof were paid, or secured to be paid, or that the same had been condemned as forfeited, or was Part of some Person's Stock in Hand on the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty, upon Pain of forfeiting all such foreign Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, as shall be so found in the Custody of such Retailer or any other Person or Persons for the Use of any such Retailer, without a Permit or Certificate, together with the Cask, Bottle or other Vessel wherein the same shall be so found; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Foreign Brandy, tho' less than one Gallon, without Permit, &c. forfeited, with Cask.

XIV. And whereas by Virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, obliging all such Ships, Persons and Goods coming from Places that are or shall be mentioned in his Majesty's Proclamation, to perform Quarentine, it is enacted, That in case any Commander, Master or other Person taking Charge of any Ship liable to perform Quarentine shall not, within convenient Time, after due Notice given for that Purpose by the proper Officer, cause such Ship or Vessel, and the Lading thereof, to perform Quarentine respectively, then such Ship or Vessel is forfeited, and the Commander, Master or other Person as aforesaid forfeits two hundred Pounds: And whereas the Commanders, Masters or other Persons taking Charge of such Ships or Vessels do pretend, after they are put into the Place or Places to perform Quarentine, to be bound to Parts beyond Seas, or some other Port or Place of this Kingdom, and do frequently depart from such Places without the Licence of the proper Officer appointed to see the Quarentine duly performed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Commander, Master or other Person taking Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarentine, shall depart with or permit or suffer such Ship or Vessel to depart from the Place or Places appointed for the Performance of Quarentine, without Leave or Licence of the proper Officer or Officers appointed to see the same performed, such Ship or Vessel, with her Cackle, Furniture and Apparel, shall be forfeited to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Commander, Master or other Person as aforesaid shall also forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer or Prosecutor.

Ships departing without Licence from Place appointed for Quarentine forfeited, and Commanders, &c. to forfeit 200 l.

XV. And whereas several Persons guilty of the clandestine Running of Brandy or other customable and prohibited Goods, or of receiving such Goods, knowing the same to have been so run, do frequently remove from their usual Places of Abode into some other County, and are there called by other than their true Names, to avoid their being prosecuted with Effect for such their notorious Offences; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be guilty of any Offence or Offences contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this or any other Act of Parliament made for the preventing clandestine Running of Brandy or other customable or prohibited Goods, or of receiving such Goods into his or their House, Shop or Warehouse, Custody or Possession, knowing the same to be so run, such Person and Persons shall and may be prosecuted for any of the Offences or Matters aforesaid, by Action, Bill, Plaint or Information, and thereupon a Capias in the first Process, specifying the Sum of the Penalty sued for, shall and may issue; and such Person or Persons shall be obliged to give sufficient Bail or Security by natural-born Subjects or Denizens, to the Person or Persons to whom such Capias shall be directed, to appear in the Court out of which such Capias shall issue at the Day of Return of such Writ, to answer such Suit and Prosecution, and shall likewise, at the Time of such appearing, give sufficient Bail or Security by such Persons as aforesaid in the said Court, to answer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for such Offence or Offences, in case he or they shall be convicted thereof, or to yield his or their Body or Bodies to Prison.

How Persons running Brandy, &c. removing from their Abode, &c. may be prosecuted.

XVI. And whereas by two several Acts passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, the one, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise upon several imported Commodities, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; the other, intituled, An Act for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten; and for taking off the Over-Sea Duty on Coals exported in British Bottoms; and for preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods, and other Purposes therein mentioned, it is thereby respectively enacted, That if any Sort of Goods whatsoever, liable to the Payment of Duties, be unshipped with Intention to be laid on Land (Customs and other Duties not being first paid or secured) or if any prohibited Goods whatsoever be imported into any Part of Great Britain, or in case any Tobacco or other foreign Goods contained or specified in any Certificate, whereupon any Drawback is to be

be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for such Drawback, shall, when shipped for Exportation, be landed again in any Part of Great Britain (except as therein is excepted) the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses and other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever, used in the Landing, Relanding, Removing, Carriage or other Conveyance of the aforesaid Goods, shall be forfeited and lost, and may be sued for, recovered and distributed in such Manner as by the said Act is provided and directed; which Laws have not had the good Effects thereby proposed, in regard that the keeping and maintaining the Horses so seized, from the Time of Seizure to the Time of Condemnation in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, is very chargeable, and for that the Charge of condemning such Vessels, Boats and Horses as aforesaid is very great, whereby Officers are discouraged from making such Seizures, and the Smugglers encouraged in their illegal Practices: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Seizures of Vessels or Boats of the Burthen of fifteen Tuns, or under, which shall be made after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, by Virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, for carrying or conveying uncustomed or prohibited Goods from Ships inward or for relanding Certificate or Debenture Goods from Ships outwards, and that all Seizures of Horses, or other Cattle or Carriages whatsoever, which shall be made after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, for being used in the Removing, Carriage or Conveyance of such Goods, contrary to the said Acts, or any of them, shall and may be examined into, proceeded upon, heard, adjudged and determined by and before two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near the Place where such Seizure shall be made, in such Manner, and after such Summons or publick Notice given, as by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office and House-Money, Seizures of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits or Strong-Waters (except as therein is excepted) may be examined into, proceeded upon, heard, adjudged and determined, before two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and such their respective Judgments shall be and are hereby declared to be taken and adjudged to be good, valid and effectual in the Law, and final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and not liable to any Appeal, or any Writ or Writs of Certiorari; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any two or more Justices of the Peace of the Cities of London and Westminster, shall have the like Power and Authority in the summoning, examining, proceeding, hearing, adjudging and determining such Seizures, as are or shall be made within the Cities of London or Westminster respectively, as any two Justices of the Peace of any other County or Place have; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And whereas Foreign Goods are frequently taken in at Sea by Masters of coasting Vessels, who privately land the same, to the Prejudice of the Revenue, and the Encouragement of the foul Traders: For the Prevention whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Goods brought or coming into any Port within the Kingdom of Great Britain, from any other Port within the said Kingdom, by Coast Cocquet, Transire, Let-pals or Certificate, in any Ship or Vessel, shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be unshipped to be landed or put on Shore, before such Cocquet, Transire, Let-pals or Certificate, shall be delivered to the Customer or Collector and Comptroller of the Port or Place of her Arrival, and Warrant or Sufferance made and given from such Customer, Collector and Comptroller for the landing or discharging thereof, the Master, Purser, Boatswain, or other Mariner, taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, out of which the Goods shall be landed or put on Shore, knowing and consenting therunto, shall forfeit the Value of the Goods so unshipped; and if any Goods of Foreign Growth, Production or Manufacture, coming Coastwise, as aforesaid, shall be landed without the Presence of an Officer of the Customs, such Foreign Goods, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing of Frauds and Abuses on damaged Wines, and for lengthening the Time for the Drawbacks on the Exportation of Wines, it is enacted, That in case any Merchant or other Person importing Wines, shall find the same, or any Part thereof so damaged, corrupt or unmerchantable, that he shall refuse to pay or secure the Duties of such Wines, and shall thereupon stave, spill or otherwise destroy the same, as by the said Act he is allowed to do, in the Manner therein mentioned, such Merchant or other Person, shall, as a Compensation for the Freight and other Charges, have the Sum of four Pounds for every Tun of Wine, containing two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duties as such, and of the Growth of France, so staved, spilt, or otherwise destroyed, and the Sum of eight Pounds per Tun, for every Tun of Wine of the Growth of Spain, Portugal, or elsewhere, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid in the Manner thereby directed; which several and respective Allowances were made with Regard to the Distances of the Places from whence the said several Sorts of Wine are usually imported: And whereas since the making of the said Act, great Quantities of mean and corrupt Wines have been imported from the Isle of Man, the Freight whereof was inconsiderable, and staved for the Benefit of the above-mentioned Allowances for Freight and Charges, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, which fraudulent Practice may not only, from the Encouragement before-mentioned, be continued from the said Island, but also be carried on by ill-disposed Persons from Ireland, and the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, or other Places and Parts beyond the Seas, to the lessening of his Majesty's Revenues, and Prejudice of fair Traders: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Allowance shall be made by Virtue of the said Act, for the Freight or Charges of any Wine which shall be imported after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, unless such Wine be imported in Casks on board such Merchant Ship or Vessel, directly from the Country or Place of the Growth of such Wine, or the usual Port or Place of its first shipping; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Ship or Vessel having Wines on board, shall by Strefs of Weather, or any other Accident be stranded, then and in such Case, the Wines on board the said Ship or Vessel which shall be saved, may be put on board any other Ship, Vessel or Boat, and be carried to any of the lawful Ports or Places for landing of Goods in this Kingdom, and be intitled to the same Allowances for such of them as shall be staved, split or destroyed, as if they came in the Ship or Vessel in which they were first loaded; any Thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, it is enacted, That every Licence taken out for the Importation of Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace or Cinnamon, in the Manner therein directed, shall be delivered to the Merchant demanding the same, to be produced and delivered up by the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port at the Time of entering the Ship, which Act is evaded for want of Penalty to enforce the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of any Ship, importing any of the said Spices from any Place or Places beyond the Seas, other than directly from the East-Indies, shall not deliver up such Licence to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port into which the said Spices shall be imported, at the Time of his or their entering the said Ship, regularly indorsed, as in and by the said Act is directed, and also annex such Licence to the Entry or Report of the Ship; and in case each Cask of Nutmegs, Cloves or Mace so imported, shall not contain neat three hundred Pound-Weight, and each Bale of Cinnamon neat seventy Pound-Weight, as by the said Act is directed; then and in any of the said Cases, such Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace or Cinnamon shall be forfeited, and deemed to be imported without a Licence, granted or to be granted by Virtue of the said Act, or any former Law, and such Spice shall and may be prosecuted, as also the Ship importing the same, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force relating to the Customs, as if such Spice had been imported without Licence; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XX.

An Act for paying off and cancelling one million of Exchequer-Bills, and to give Ease to the South-Sea Company, in respect of its present Obligation, to circulate or contribute towards circulating Exchequer-Bills; and to give further Time to that Company for Repayment of one million which was lent to them; and for issuing a further Sum in New Exchequer-Bills, towards his Majesty's Supply, to be discharged and cancelled, when the said Company shall repay the million owing by them; and that the Exchequer-Bills, which are to continue, may be circulated at easy and moderate Rates; and for appropriating the Supplies granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament; and for Relief of the Sufferers at Nevis and Saint Christophers, by an Invasion of the French in the late War; and for laying a further Duty on Apples imported; and for ascertaining the Duties on Pictures imported.

Geo. 1. c. 4.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign, whereas amongst divers Matters and Things contained in an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling the South-Sea Company to increase their present Capital Stock and Fund, by redeeming such publick Debts and Incumbrances as are therein mentioned; and for raising Money to be applied for lessening several of the publick Debts and Incumbrances; and for calling in the present Exchequer-Bills remaining uncanceled; and for making forth new Bills in lieu thereof, to be circulated and exchanged upon Demand at or near the Exchequer. It was recited or mentioned, That after the Application of such Monies as are therein specified, the Principal Monies to remain due upon Bills, commonly called Exchequer-Bills, made forth by Virtue of former Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, and would then be in or out of the Exchequer uncanceled and undischarged, would by Estimation amount unto eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds ten Shillings or thereabouts, besides Interest on them or some of them; and it was thereby enacted, That the said Residuary Bills should be brought in to be changed for new Bills, upon such Notice, and in such Manner, as was thereby prescribed; and that the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, should cause new Bills to be prepared and made forth at the Receipt of the Exchequer, for any Sum or Sums of Money, whereof the Principal should not exceed the said eight hundred ninety-six thousand six hundred sixty-two Pounds ten Shillings, adding thereunto the Interest Monies which should appear to be due thereupon; and that such new Bills shall bear an Interest not exceeding the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem; and it was thereby enacted, That the said Company, or their Court of Directors in their Behalf, should, from Time to Time, during the Term of seven Years, to be reckoned from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty, furnish, supply and pay to Trustees to be chosen or constituted, as is therein mentioned, so much ready Money, in the lawful Coins of this Realm, as should be sufficient to enable such Trustees to exchange all such of the said Bills to be made forth by Virtue of that Act, as should be demanded at the publick Office of the said Trustees, at any Time or Times within the said Term of seven Years, by paying (in such ready Money) upon every such Demand, all the Principal Monies contained in every such Bill, and the Interest which should then be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as any such Bill should be demanded; and in case, during that or any future Session or Sessions of Parliament, any other Act or Acts of Parliament was or should be made for making forth any further Sum or Sums in Exchequer-Bills, to be circulated by Trustees at or near the Exchequer, and to be current at any Time or Times, within or during the said Term of seven Years, or for any Part of the same Term, at the Exchequer, and in the publick Revenues and Taxes, upon Credit of such Fund or Security, or of such Monies to be borrowed thereupon, as by Authority of Parliament should be established or appointed, to support the Currency thereof, then the said Company were thereby enjoined and required by themselves, or their Court of Directors for the Time being (from Time to Time, during the said Term of seven Years, or for so much of that Term as the Exchequer-Bills, to be made forth by such other or future Act or Acts of Parliament, should have a joint Currency with the said Bills to be made forth by Virtue of the Act in Part before recited, or be current together or at the same Time) to furnish, supply and pay to such Trustees in lawful Coins of this Realm, a proportional Part of such ready Money, as should be sufficient to enable the same Trustees to exchange all or any of the Bills which should be so current, whether they were Bills made forth by Virtue of the Act in Part before recited, or any other Act or Acts of that or any future Session of Parliament, as often as any such Bills shall be demanded within the said Term of seven Years, by paying all the principal Monies contained in such Bill, and the Interest which should upon every such Demand be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as the same should be demanded; and that such proportional Parts should, from Time to Time, be ascertained and determined in the Manner thereby prescribed (that is to say) as the Sum Total of the principal Monies contained in all the said Bills then uncanceled and undischarged, should be to ten hundred thousand Pounds, so the whole Sum, which at any Time or Times during the said Term should be necessary and called for to support the Currency of all the said Bills, should be to the proportional Part to be furnished by the said Company toward supporting such Currency: And it was thereby provided and enacted, That if at any Time or Times thereafter, Provision should be made by Authority of Parliament, of so much Money in the lawful Coins of this Kingdom, as should be sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Principal and Interest which should be due on the said Exchequer-Bills, to be made forth by Virtue of that Act as aforesaid, or any Proportion thereof at a Time; and if by like Authority the same coined Monies should be actually brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for that Purpose, then the same should be applied for or towards the paying off and discharging the same Bills, or such Proportion thereof, so far as such Money would extend, by paying to the respective Bearer or Bearers of the same Bill or Bills then standing out, the Principal and Interest which should be due thereupon, and placing such coined Money, or any Part thereof, in Lieu of any the said Exchequer-Bills which should be made forth by Virtue of that Act, and should then be in the Office or Offices of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, to answer such Payments whereunto the same Bills so remaining in such Office or Offices should then be legally subject or liable, and that such Payments should be answered under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities as were prescribed by any former Law or Statute concerning the Money for which such Bills did lie in the Exchequer, to prevent the Diverting or Misapplying the same; and from and after such Payments to the Bearer or Bearers, or such placing of Money in Lieu of Bills in the said Office or Offices of the said Teller or Tellers, to answer such Payments as aforesaid, (and not sooner) the several and respective Bills themselves, which should be so paid off, or for which coined Money should be so placed, should be cancelled, and the said Company should repay to the respective Tellers, so much Interest as remained due on the same Bills respectively, at the Time or Times when they were last paid into the Exchequer, before the Cancelling thereof, as by the said Act in Part before recited, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas in and by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the said sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making forth new Exchequer-Bills, not exceeding one million, at a certain Interest; and for lending the same to the South-Sea Company at an higher Interest, upon Security of repaying the same, and such high Interest, into the Exchequer, for Uses to which the Fund for lessening the publick Debts (called the Sinking Fund) is applicable; and for circulating and exchanging upon Demand the said Bills at or near the Exchequer, the Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, were authorized, at any Time or Times within one Year, reckoning from the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, to prepare and make, or cause to be prepared and made, at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, in such Method and Form as they shall think most convenient, any Number of new Exchequer-Bills, so as the principal Sums to be contained therein, should not in the whole exceed one million of Pounds (over and above the Exchequer-Bills which were to be current, pursuant to the Act first before recited) and that the said new Bills so to be prepared and made, should bear an Interest not exceeding the Rate of two Pence per Centum per Diem, and to be payable to the Bearers thereof respectively; nevertheless such Interest is thereby enacted to be abated and saved upon such of the said Bills, as should at any Time or Times be in the Receipt of the Exchequer, or in the Hands or Power of any Receiver or Collector of any Taxes, Aids or Revenues whatsoever, payable to your Majesty, your Heirs or Successors, during such Time or Times respectively, as such Bills should be or remain in the said Receipt, or in such Hands or Power as aforesaid; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, were thereby empowered to issue, or cause to be issued, by way of Loan or Advance, all such Bills as should be prepared by Virtue of that Act, not exceeding as aforesaid, to the said South-Sea Company, or to some Person or Persons in Trust for them, the same Company giving Security upon their then present and to be increased Annuity or yearly Fund, and upon their weekly or other Payments to be made at the Exchequer, for or upon Account of their said Annuity or yearly Fund, for Repayment of the principal Sums so lent, with an Interest not exceeding the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, at such Day or Days, Time or Times, as should be agreed upon by and between the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, on Behalf of the Publick, and the said Company, or their Court of Directors on their Behalf, so as no such Day or Time should be more remote than the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, or the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and the High Treasurer for the Time being, were thereby directed and required to take especial Care, that upon Repayment of the principal Money so to be lent, the same, with the Interest or Increase accruing thereupon, should be received and applied, in the first Place, to the paying off and discharging the said new Exchequer-Bills to be made forth in Pursuance of that Act; and that the Surplus thereof (after paying off and discharging the same new Exchequer-Bills) should be placed at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, to and for the same Uses, Intents and Purposes, to which the Monies of the Surplusses, Excesses and overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, were applicable; and in Default of paying the said Monies so to be lent, with the said Interest or Increase thereof, at the Day or Days, Time or Times, to be limited pursuant to that Act, then the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the said High Treasurer for the Time being, were thereby authorized and required to cause the Money so lent, to be stopt out of the Monies, which weekly or otherwise shall be payable to the said South-Sea Company at the Exchequer, for or upon their then present or to be increased Annuity or yearly Fund, together with so much more as the Interest of the Money so unpaid should amount unto at the said Rate, not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and to cause the Principal and Interest so stopt, to be applied and placed in the Exchequer as aforesaid; and to the End the said Bills should be made forth by Virtue of the Act last mentioned, might the better obtain a Currency for so long Time as they were intended to be current, in Pursuance of that Act; it was thereby enacted, That as well the Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, then remaining in the Exchequer, which was advanced by the said Company, pursuant to an Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and the Monies which (from and after the Application of the Sum of five hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, for discharging and cancelling Exchequer-Bills made forth by former Acts in that Behalf, or reserving sufficient thereof in the Exchequer for that Purpose) should arise of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplusses, commonly called the Sinking Fund, should be a Fund or Security for furnishing such Proportions of ready Money, from Time to Time, as are therein mentioned, for and towards exchanging and circulating the Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by Virtue of that and the said other Act of that Session of Parliament, or either of them, as often as the same Bills or any of them should be demanded, during their joint Currency; and it was thereby further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, should (so long as the said Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by Virtue of that Act, should have a joint Currency with the said Bills, to be made forth by Virtue of the said first recited Act, or be current together or at the same Time) furnish, supply and pay, to the said Trustees for the Time being, out of the Monies, from Time to Time, being in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Fund or Security before in that Act settled for that Purpose, in the lawful Coins of this Realm, on Behalf of the Publick, a proportional Part of such ready Money, as shall be necessary to enable the said Trustees to exchange all or any of the Bills which should be so current (whether they be Bills made forth by Virtue of that or the said other Act of the same Session of Parliament) as often as any such Bill should be demanded, or within twenty-four Hours after, by paying all the principal Monies contained in every such Bill, and the Interest, which shall, upon every such Demand, be due thereupon, and so toties quoties, as often as the same shall be demanded; which proportional Part so, from Time to Time, to be furnished on Behalf of the Publick, shall be so much as, together with the proportional Part, which, from Time to Time, should or ought to be furnished by the said Company as aforesaid, should be sufficient to enable the Trustees to support the Currency of the said Bills from Time to Time; and in the Act last mentioned there is inserted a Proviso, That if at any Time or Times hereafter Provision should be made by Authority of Parliament, of so much Money in the lawful Coin of this Kingdom, as should be sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Principal and Interest, which should be due upon the said Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by Virtue of that Act, or any Proportion thereof at a Time; and if by like Authority the same Monies should be actually brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for that Purpose, then the same should be applied for or towards paying off the same Bills, or such Proportion thereof, so far as such Money would extend, by paying to the respective Bearer or Bearers of the same Bills then standing out, the Principal and Interest which should be due thereupon, and by placing such coined Money, or any Part thereof, in Lieu of any of the same Exchequer-Bills, which should then be in the Office or Offices of any Teller or Tellers of the Exchequer, to answer such Payments whereunto the same Bills so remaining in such Office or Offices, should then be legally subject and liable; which Payments should be answered with the said Money in Specie, under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as are prescribed by any former Laws or Statutes concerning the Money for which such Bills did lie in the Exchequer, to prevent the diverting or misapplying the same; and from and after such Payments to the Bearer or Bearers, or such placing of Money in Lieu of Bills in the said Office or Offices of the said Teller or Tellers, to answer such Payments as aforesaid, and not sooner, the several and respective Bills themselves, which shall be so paid off, or for which coined Money shall be so placed, should be cancelled; and it is thereby also provided and enacted, That if before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, or before the End of the Session of Parliament then next ensuing, coined Monies shall not be raised and brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, sufficient to pay off and discharge all the Exchequer-Bills which should be made forth by Virtue of that Act, that then and in such Case, immediately upon the End of such Session of Parliament next after the said first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, all or any of the Monies then remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the said Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny (if the same, or any Part thereof, shall then remain there not issued to the Purposes in the last mentioned Act directed) and all the Monies which, from and after the End of the said Session of Parliament next after the said first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, should quarterly arise into the Exchequer of or for all the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplusses, denominated the Sinking Fund, as aforesaid, or of or for such Increase thereof, as shall be made by repaying the Money which should be lent to the said Company as aforesaid, with Interest, and all or any the Monies (if any should be then remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer) of the Loans which might have been made there by Virtue of that Act, for answering the said Proportions for circulating and exchanging the said Bills, or so much of the Monies aforementioned, as should be sufficient to discharge or compleat the discharging of all the Exchequer-Bills, which shall have been made forth by Virtue of that Act, shall be applied for and towards discharging and cancelling the same, until they should all be paid off, discharged and cancelled, or so much of the said Monies should be reserved in the Exchequer, as should be sufficient for that Purpose, as by the Act last in Part recited, Relation being thereunto had, also may more fully appear: And whereas, pursuant to the Act last mentioned, the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, were on the seventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, issued by way of Loan or Advance to the said South-Sea Company upon a Security under their common Seal, by an Instrument or Writing bearing Date the fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, for Repayment of the same in good and lawful Money of Great Britain, into the Exchequer, at the End of one Year, which was to be reckoned from the Time of issuing the said Bills, with Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum: And whereas among many Matters and Things contained in another Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the South-Sea Company to ingraft Part of their Capital Stock and Fund into the Stock and Fund of the Bank of England, and another Part thereof into the Stock and Fund of the East-India Company; and for giving further Time for Payments to be made by the said South-Sea Company for the Use of the Publick, It was provided, enacted and declared, That the said South-Sea Company, at their own Costs and Charges, on or before the seventh Day of June which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, should well and truly repay, or cause to be repaid, into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, the said Sum of one million, together with the Interest then due for the same, and that upon such Repayment the Monies so repaid, with the Interest or Increase accruing thereupon, should be applied in the first Place, to the paying off and discharging the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, with such Interest as should be due thereupon; and in Default of repaying the said Sum of one million, with Interest and Increase thereof, according to the last mentioned Act, then the Annuity nuity and Annuities, which should be then payable at the Receipt of Exchequer to the South-Sea Company, should and might be stopt by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or by the High Treasurer for the Time being, or by the Officers of the Exchequer for the Time being, and the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, should and might be called in and cancelled, by and with the Monies so stopt in the Manner prescribed by the said former Act in that Behalf; and in the Act last in Part recited there is contained a Proviso, That if at any Time or Times thereafter, Provision shall be made by Authority of Parliament, of the lawful Coins of this Realm placed in the Exchequer, for paying off and discharging the said Exchequer-Bills for the said Sum of one million, the Bills themselves that should be so paid off, or for which such coined Money should be reserved in the Exchequer as is prescribed in that Act, should be discharged therewith, and cancelled, as is thereby directed; and if before the said first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, or before the End of the Session of Parliament then next ensuing, coined Money shall not be raised and brought into the Exchequer for discharging the Bills last mentioned, then all or any of the Monies which should then remain in the Exchequer, of the said Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny (if any such be) and all the Monies which from and after such Session of Parliament should quarterly arise of or for the said Surplusses and overplus Monies, called the Sinking Fund or otherwise, as is mentioned in the Act last in Part recited, should be applied for or towards discharging the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, till they shall be all compleatly paid off and cancelled in the Manner and Form in the same Act prescribed and intended, as by the same Act, Relation being thereunto likewise had, may more fully appear: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, which were created to be lent to the said Company, and were lent accordingly, may soon be paid off and cancelled, and being willing to give Ease to the said Company, in respect to their present Obligation for circulating or contributing towards the Circulation of Exchequer-Bills, and further Time for Repayment of the principal Sum of one million, which was lent to the said Company as aforesaid, they paying such Interest for the same as is herein after mentioned; and that a Number of new Exchequer-Bills, not exceeding one million, may be made forth and issued towards the Supply granted to your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, and that the million to be repaid by the said Company on or before the Time herein after limited for the Repayment thereof, may be applied to cancel and discharge the said new Exchequer-Bills to be made forth by Virtue of this Act, and that all the Exchequer-Bills made forth or to be made forth, which are to continue, may be circulated at easy and moderate Rates, do therefore most humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That so much Money as at the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well of or for the said Sum of three hundred twenty-eight thousand six hundred seventy-three Pounds four Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny as of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies commonly called the Sinking Fund, or so much thereof as will not exceed the Sum sufficient to pay off and discharge the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to one million, which were created to be lent, and were lent to the South-Sea Company as aforesaid, shall be applied for or towards discharging and cancelling the same; and if at the said Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, the Money by this Act so appointed to discharge the said Exchequer-Bills which were created to be lent as aforesaid, shall not be sufficient for that Purpose, then so much of the Money afterwards to arise into the Exchequer, of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplusses, called the Sinking Fund, as together with the said Monies which shall have been applied, pursuant to this Act, towards discharging the same Bills) shall be sufficient to discharge and cancel the same, shall and may be applied to compleat and finish the paying off, discharging and cancelling the same Exchequer-Bills; any former or other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Money remaining in the Exchequer on 25 March 1722, &c. not exceeding the Sum sufficient to pay Exchequer-Bills lent, &c. applied towards discharging the same.

If not sufficient, then so much as shall afterwards arise, to be applied to cancelling them.

II. And whereas by an Instrument in Writing, bearing Date the ninth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty, under the Hands and Seals of the then Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, sundry principal Sums therein mentioned, amounting together to eleven millions one hundred seventy-two thousand five hundred ninety-three Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence, were declared to be added to the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company; and in Respect of such Stock several yearly Sums, making together five hundred thirty-nine thousand thirty-six Pounds three Shillings and eleven Pence, were thereby declared to be added to the Annuity or yearly Fund of the said Company, and to commence or take Place from the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel then last past: And whereas seven millions five hundred fifty-eight thousand three hundred and fifteen Pounds ten Shillings and three Pence, Part of the said additional Stock of eleven millions one hundred seventy-two thousand five hundred ninety-three Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence, was for principal Sums subscribed into the said Company the fifteenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and twenty, for which an Annuity at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, was payable at the Bank of England, by Virtue of an Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, according to one Duplicate of a Book of Subscriptions, signed and attested by three of the late Managers for taking such Subscriptions, as in the said Instrument is more fully and at large set forth: And whereas it is evident, That the said principal Sum of seven millions five hundred fifty-eight thousand three hundred fifteen Pounds ten Shillings and three Pence was a mistaken principal Sum, for that the said late Managers, or those employed under them, in bringing over the Totals of sundry Pages in the said Duplicate-Book, to make one Total at the End thereof, had omitted to bring over a Subscription of two thousand Pounds contained in the said Book under the Letter B, (Page thirty-three) and several Subscriptions under the Letter M, beginning Page thirty-three and ending Page forty, and the Subscriptions so omitted to be brought over, do amount to sixty-seven thousand eight hundred thirty-one Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence; and by Means of the said Mistake, the said Company have had less additional Stock and additional Annuity declared by the said Instrument than they ought to have had; That is to say, sixty-seven thousand eight hundred thirty-one Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence in Stock, and three thousand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eleven Shillings and four Pence less in additional Annuity for that Stock, which Annuity was to commence and take Effect, in Point of Payment, from the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel one thousand seven hundred and twenty as aforesaid: Now for rectifying the said Mistakes, and to the End the said Company may have and enjoy so much as is their Right; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall and may rectify the Mistakes or Errors committed as aforesaid, by any new Instrument or Instruments under their Hands and Seals, thereby declaring, settling and determining, that the principal Sums, amounting to the said Sum of sixty-seven thousand eight hundred thirty-one Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence, are and shall be added to the present Capital or Joint Stock of the said Company; and that the yearly Sum of three thousand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eleven Shillings and four Pence, being computed at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum on the said principal Sum of sixty-seven thousand eight hundred thirty-one Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence, is and shall be added in Respect of such their additional Stock, to the present Annuity or yearly Fund of the said Company, and shall commence and take Effect from the said Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and continue and be payable for such Time and Times, and in such Manner and Form, and out of such particular Duties, Rates, Revenues and other Provisions as in and by the Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign were prescribed or intended, in case such Mistakes had not been made, and subject to such Reduction, Powers of Redemption, Conditions, Restrictions and other Matters and Things as in and by the same Act, or any other Act now in Force, were provided or intended touching or concerning the same; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or High Treasurer for the Time being, by such their Instrument or Instruments in Writing, shall and may declare, settle and determine, that every Member of the said Company in Proportion to his, her or their respective Shares in the Capital Stock thereof, increased by such Addition, hath and shall have Credit in the Books of the said Company, for his, her or their Proportion or Share, of and in the whole Capital Stock so increased, according to the true Meaning of the Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf.

III. And whereas by an Instrument in Writing, bearing Date the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, under the Hands and Seals of the then Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, amongst other Matters and Things therein contained, several Sums, amounting to eight millions five hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred and eighteen Pounds fifteen Shillings, were declared to be added to the Capital Stock of the said Company, and in Respect of such Stock, several yearly Sums, making together four hundred twenty-seven thousand five hundred and eighty Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum, were thereby declared to be added to the Annuity or yearly Fund

Fund of the said Company, to commence and take Effect from the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary then last past, according to a Duplicate of a Book of Subscriptions made on the twenty-third Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, signed and attested by three of the late Managers for taking in such Subscriptions, as in the said Instrument is more fully and at large set forth: And whereas it is evident, that the said principal Sum of eight millions five hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred eighteen Pounds and fifteen Shillings was a mistaken principal Sum, for that the said late Managers and Directors, or those employed under them, did in one of their Duplicates, containing Part of the said eight millions five hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred eighteen Pounds and fifteen Shillings, and the Annuity to be paid to the said Company thereupon (Page eighty) insert a subscribed Annuity of Sir Harcourt Master, as if the same had been forty-five Pounds per Annum, and a Credit was taken therein of nine hundred Pounds Stock for the same, although in Truth the Annuity which he actually subscribed, was no more than twenty-five Pounds per Annum, and the Company's Stock for the same should have been no more than five hundred Pounds, and the Addition which ought to have been made to the said Company's Annuity or yearly Fund in Respect thereof, ought to have been twenty-five Pounds per Annum, and no more: Now for rectifying the Mistake last mentioned, which tends to the Wrong and Prejudice of the Publick, and to the End the Publick may have Right done in Respect thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, shall and may, by any proper Memorandum or Memorandums, to be endorsed or made upon the said Instrument, dated the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and upon the Subscription-Books, wherein the Errors or Mistakes last mentioned are inserted or comprehended, cause the Sum of four hundred Pounds, Part of the said capital Sum of eight millions five hundred fifty-one thousand six hundred eighteen Pounds and fifteen Shillings, and twenty Pounds per Annum, Part of the said Sum of four hundred twenty-seven thousand five hundred eighty Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence per Annum, to be abated and sunk from the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty; and if any Payment of the said Sum of twenty Pounds per Annum has been received by the said Company at the Exchequer, it is hereby enacted, That the Money so received shall be repaid into his Majesty's Exchequer, or be kept and refunded out of the next Payment to be there made to the said Company.

Money received, to be repaid into the Exchequer.

Treasury to examine Duplicates, &c. of the present or late Managers,

IV. And whereas it doth or may hereafter appear, that several other Mistakes and Errors have been or may have been committed in the Duplicates of the Subscription-Books, transmitted to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, by the late or present Managers for taking such Subscriptions, or in the Instruments of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury founded thereupon, in some Cases to the Wrong and Prejudice of the said Company, and in other Cases to the Prejudice of the Publick: Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, to inspect and examine any the Duplicates which were transmitted by the present or late Managers for taking any Subscriptions for increasing the Capital Stock of the said Company, and if they or he shall find any Errors or Mistakes therein to the Prejudice of the said Company or of the Publick, to rectify the same, by making Additions to the Stock and Annuity of the said Company, or by making Subtractions from the same, as the Case may require, in such or the like Manner as by this Act is prescribed for rectifying the several Errors and Mistakes above in this Act particularly mentioned and expressed.

I. WHEREAS the Number of Persons committing Piracies, Felonies and Robberies upon the Seas is of late very much increased; and notwithstanding the Laws already made and now in Being, many idle and profligate Persons have turned Pirates, and betaken themselves to that wicked Course of Life, whereby the Trade and Navigation into remote Parts will greatly suffer, unless some further Provision be speedily made for bringing such Persons, and all others, who shall be any ways aiding and assisting, or in Confederacy with them, to condign Punishment; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal Temporall and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Commander or Master of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person or Persons, shall from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, any wise trade with any Pirate, by Truck, Barter, Exchange, or in any other Manner, or shall furnish any Pirate, Felon or Robber upon the Seas, with any Ammunition, Provision or Stores of any kind, or shall fit out any Ship or Vessel knowingly, and with a Design to trade with, or supply, or correspond with any Pirate, Felon or Robber upon the Seas, or if any Person or Persons shall any ways consult, combine, confederate or correspond with any Pirate, Felon or Robber on the Seas, knowing him to be guilty of any such Piracy, Felony or Robbery, such Offender and Offenders, and every of them, shall in each and every of the said Cases be deemed, adjudged and taken to be guilty of Piracy, Felony and Robbery, and he and they shall and may be inquired of, tried, heard and adjudged of and for all or any the Matters aforesaid, according to the Statute made in the twenty-eighth Year of King HENRY the Eighth for Pirates, and the Statute made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual suppressing of Piracy, which by an Act made in the sixth Year of his present Majesty is made perpetual, and he and they being convicted of all or any the Matters aforesaid, shall suffer such Pains of Death, Loss of Lands, Goods and Chattels, as Pirates, Felons and Robbers upon the Seas, ought to suffer; and in case any Person or Persons belonging to any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, upon meeting any Merchant-Ship or Vessel on the High Seas, or in any Port, Haven or Creek whatsoever, shall forcibly board or enter into such Ship or Vessel, and though they do not seize and carry off such Ship or Vessel, shall throw over-board, or destroy any Part of the Goods or Merchandizes belonging to such Ship or Vessel, the Person or Persons who shall be guilty thereof, shall in all Respects be deemed and punished as Pirates as aforesaid.

After March 25, 1722. Commanders of Ships or others, trading with Pirates, furnishing them with Stores, corresponding with them, &c.

shall be adjudged guilty of Piracy, &c. according to the 28 H. 8. c. 15. and 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. See 18 Geo. 2. c. 30.

Persons belonging to any Vessel, forcibly boarding any Merchant-Ship, and throwing any Goods overboard, shall be punished as Pirates.

Ships fitted out to trade with Pirates, and the Goods forfeited, Half to the Crown, Half to the Discoverers.

To be sued for in the Admiralty.

Persons declared Accessories to Piracy by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. shall be deemed Principals, and after March 25, 1722. suffer as such.

Offenders convicted on this Act, excluded the Benefit of Clergy.

Seamen maimed in Fight against Pirates, shall receive the Rewards in 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 11. and be admitted into Greenwich Hospital.

Masters or Seamen not defending themselves against Pirates, or who shall utter any discouraging Words, shall, if the Ship be taken, forfeit their Wages to the Owners, and suffer six Months Imprisonment.

Masters shall not advance to any Seaman above Half his Wages, while beyond Sea, on Forfeiture of double the Sum advanced, to be recovered in the Admiralty by the Informer.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Ship or Vessel which shall be fitted out with a Design to trade with, or supply, or correspond with any Pirate, and all and every Goods and Merchandizes put on board the same for any Intent or Purpose to trade with any Pirate, Felon or Robber on the Seas, shall be ipso facto forfeited; one Moiety thereof to the Use of the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall first make Discovery, and give Information of such Intent or Design; and such Person or Persons who shall first make such Discovery, shall and may sue for and recover the said Ship or Vessel, and all and every the Goods and Merchandizes on board the same, in the High Court of Admiralty.

III. And whereas there are some Defects in the Laws for bringing Persons, who are Accessories to Piracy and Robbery upon the Seas, to condign Punishment, if the Principal who committed such Piracy and Robbery, is not or cannot be apprehended and brought to Justice; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who by the said Statute made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, are declared to be Accessary or Accessories to any Piracy or Robbery therein mentioned, are hereby declared, and shall be deemed and taken to be principal Pirates, Felons and Robbers, and shall and may, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, be inquired of, heard, determined and adjudged, in the same Manner as Persons guilty of Piracy and Robbery may and ought to be inquired of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged by the said Statute made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of his late Majesty King WILLIAM, and being thereupon attainted and convicted, shall suffer such Pains of Death, Loss of Lands, Goods and Chattels, and in like Manner as Pirates and Robbers ought by the said Act to suffer.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Offender or Offenders convicted of any Piracy, Felony or Robbery by Virtue of this Act, shall not be admitted to have the Benefit of Clergy, but be utterly excluded of and from the same.

V. And to the End that a further Encouragement may be given to all Seamen and Mariners to fight and defend their Ships from Pirates, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Seaman or Mariner on board any Merchant-Ship or Vessel, or any other Ship or Vessel, shall be maimed in Fight against any Pirate, every such Seaman and Mariner, upon due Proof of his being maimed in such Fight, shall not only have and receive the Rewards already appointed by a Statute made in the twenty-second and twenty-third Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the delivering up of Merchant-Ships, and for the Increase of good and serviceable Seamen, but shall also be admitted into and provided for in Greenwich Hospital, preferable to any other Seaman or Mariner who is disabled from Service or getting a Livelihood merely by his Age.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Commander, Master, or other Officer, or any Seaman or Mariner of any Merchant-Ship or Vessel which carries Guns and Arms, shall not when they are attacked by any Pirate, or by any Ship or Vessel on which any such Pirate is on board, fight and endeavour to defend themselves, and their said Ship or Vessel from being taken by the said Pirate, or shall utter any Words to discourage the other Mariners from defending the Ship, and by Reason thereof the said Ship or Vessel shall fall into the Hands of such Pirate, then and in every such Case every such Commander or Master, or other Officer, and every Seaman or Mariner, who shall not fight and endeavour to defend and save the said Ship or Vessel, or who shall utter any such Words as aforesaid, shall lose and forfeit all and every Part of the Wages due to him and them respectively, to the Owner and Owners of the said Ship or Vessel, and shall not be permitted to sue for or recover the same, or any Part thereof, in any Court either of Law or Equity, and as a farther Punishment shall suffer six Months Imprisonment.

VII. And for Prevention of Seamen or Mariners deserting Merchant-Ships or Vessels abroad in the Plantations, or in any other Parts beyond the Seas, which is the chief Occasion of their turning Pirates, and of great Detriment to Trade and Navigation, and is chiefly occasioned by the Owner or Owners of Ships or Vessels, paying Wages to the Seamen or Mariners when abroad: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Master or Owner of any Merchant-Ship or Vessel shall pay or advance, or cause to be paid or advanced to any Seaman or Mariner, during the Time he shall be in Parts Parts beyond the Seas, any Money or Effects upon Account of Wages, exceeding one Moiety of the Wages which shall be due at the Time of such Payment, until such Ship or Vessel shall return to Great Britain or Ireland, or the Plantations, or to some other of his Majesty's Dominions whereto they belong, and from whence they were first fitted out; and if any such Master or Owner of such Merchant-Ship or Vessel shall pay or advance, or cause to be paid or advanced, any Wages to any Seaman or Mariner above the said Moiety, such Master or Owner shall forfeit and pay double the Money he shall so pay or advance, to be recovered in the High Court of Admiralty, by any Person who shall first discover and inform of the same.

Commander of a Man of War, who after Sept. 29, 1722. shall receive any Goods on Board, except Gold, Silver, &c. shall forfeit his Command, be incapacitated, and lose his Wages. So much of this Clause, as directs the Punishment to be inflicted by a Court Martial on any Captain or other Officer, is repealed by 22 Geo. 2. c. 33.

VIII. And whereas great Interruptions and Inconveniencies may attend his Majesty's Service, by the Captains or Commanders, or other Officers of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, their receiving on board such Ships or Vessels Goods and Merchandizes, and trading therewith contrary to Instructions, which strictly forbid their doing the same: To prevent therefore the said Interruptions and Inconveniencies for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Captain, Commander, or other Officer of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, whether such Ship or Vessel shall be employed at Home or Abroad, shall from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, receive on board, or permit to be received on board, such Ship or Vessel of War, any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, in order to trade or merchandize with the same, either upon his own or any other Person's Account, except Gold, Silver or Jewels, and except the Goods or Merchandizes belonging to any Merchant-Ship or Vessel which may be shipwrecked, or in imminent Danger of being shipwrecked either on the High Seas, or in any Port, Creek or Harbour, within his Majesty's Dominions at Home or Abroad, or elsewhere, in order to the preserving them for their proper Owners; and except such Goods or Merchandizes as they shall at any Time be ordered to take or receive on board, by Order of the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing that Office for the Time being, or any three or more of them; every such Captain, Commander or Officer of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War so offending, shall upon his being convicted thereof by a Court Martial, lose and forfeit the Command and Office he then shall have in the said Ship or Vessel of War, and shall be, and he is hereby for ever afterwards rendered incapable to serve any longer in the same, or in any other Place or Office in the Naval Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and such Captain, Commander, or other Officer offending as aforesaid, shall as a further Punishment for his said Offence, lose and forfeit to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all the Wages due to him for his Service in the Ship or Vessel of War whereunto he shall belong, when or at any Time after such Offence shall be committed.

Such Commander and the Proprietors of the Goods shall forfeit the Value thereof, to the Discoverer, and Greenwich Hospital.

To be recovered in the Admiralty.

To extend to Asia, &c. To be taken as a publick Act, and be in Force for seven Years, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Captain, Commander, or other Officer of the said Ship or Vessel of War, and all and every the Owners and Proprietors of such Goods or Merchandizes put on board such Ship or Vessel of War as aforesaid, shall lose, forfeit and pay the Value of all and every such Goods and Merchandizes so put on board as aforesaid; one Moiety of such full Value to such Person or Persons as shall make the first Discovery, and give Information of or concerning the said Offence, the other Moiety of such full Value to and for the Use of Greenwich Hospital, all which Forfeitures shall and may be sued for and recovered in the High Court of Admiralty.

X. And be it also enacted, That this Act shall extend to all his Majesty's Dominions in Asia, Africa and America, and shall be taken as a Publick Act, and shall continue in Force for seven Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. Made perpetual by 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 7.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for supplying some Defects in the Statute of the twenty-third of King HENRY the Eighth, intitled, An Act for Obligations to be taken by two Chief Justices, the Mayor of the Staple, and the Recorder of London, and for setting down the Time of signing Judgments in the Principality of Wales, and Counties Palatine.

23 H. 8. c. 6.

In what Manner the Rolls appointed by 23 H. 8. c. 6. to be made of Recognizances in the Nature of a Statute-Staple, after March 25, 1722. shall be varied.

I. WHEREAS Recognizances in the Nature of a Statute-Staple, which are by the Statute of the twenty-third of King HENRY the Eighth, appointed to be taken by the two Chief Justices, the Mayor of the Staple, and the Recorder of London, are common and beneficial Securities; but in regard the same are liable to Damage and Loss that may happen by Fire, and otherwise, and by Reason of Difficulties arising by Defects in the said Statute, great Inconveniencies do accrue to his Majesty's Subjects: For Remedy thereof, and for making the said Security more effectual, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, the Rolls appointed by the said recited Statute to be made of such Recognizances, shall be varied and made in Manner following; (that is to say) The Clerk of the said Recognizances for the Time being, or his Deputy, shall yearly from thenceforth prepare and keep three Parchment-Rolls as usual, and shall at the Times of acknowledging of every such Recognizance, fairly write or ingross, instead of the Heads or Contents thereof, on the said Rolls, the full Tenor, in hæc verba, of every such Recognizance; and that one of the said Rolls shall contain all the Recognizances to be taken before the Chief Justice of the King's Bench for the Time being; and one other of them shall contain all the Recognizances to be taken before the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the Time being; and the other of them shall contain all the Recognizances before the Mayor of the Staple at Westminster and Recorder of London for the Time being; and that at the Time of every such Acknowledgment the respective Persons, before whom such Recognizances shall be taken, and also the Party and Parties acknowledging the same, shall also sign their respective Names to the Roll or Inrolment of every Recognizance so taken under the Inrolment thereof, as well as sign and seal the same Recognizance; and that all the said three Rolls so signed shall at the End of every Year be fired together, and be thereby made one Roll, as accustomed, and be and remain in the Custody of the Clerk of the Recognizances, Recognizances, or his Deputy, in his Publick Office in London or Middlesex, who shall keep a Docket to refer to the said Roll or Rolls, for the Benefit of Searches by Purchasers and others (as used to be) to which Docket also shall be added the Day, Month and Year of every such Acknowledgment.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Loss or Damage shall happen to any such Recognizance, the same shall and may, from any of the said Rolls, so to be kept in the Custody of the said Clerk, or his Deputy, in order to have Process thereon, be by him or them, by Certificate under his or their Seal, certified into Chancery in like Manner as Recognizances by the said recited Act are directed, and as if the said Recognizance had not been lost or damaged; and that to such Certificate, and all other Certificates of such Recognizances, shall be annexed a true Transcript of the Entry of such Recognizance to be taken from the said Roll or Rolls in his or their Custody; and further, that in case of any such Loss or Damage, a like Certificate, with such Transcript annexed as aforesaid, shall be made, and be left and remain with the Clerk of the Petty-Bag-Office in Chancery, and shall be as good and effectual as if the said Recognizance under Seal had been left in the same Office, as hath been used upon the issuing out of Process in the same Office; and that in order to prove such Statutes and Recognizances, in case of any such Loss or Damage, a true Copy or Copies from the said Roll or Rolls, in the Custody of the said Clerk, or his Deputy, made and signed by the said Clerk or his Deputy, and duly proved, shall be deemed good Evidence of such Recognizances, and be of the same Validity, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said original Recognizances were produced under Seal.

III. And whereas by the said Statute of the twenty-third of King HENRY the Eighth, there was due to his Majesty a Fee of one Half-penny in the Pound (according to the Value or Sum entred into and contained in every such Recognizance) to be paid on sealing the first Process on every such Recognizance, as in the said Act is appointed, which is very heavy on every Prosecutor on every such Recognizance, by Reason such Sum so entred into, is sometimes only intended as a Penalty for the Payment of a lesser Sum, or for securing Damages for the Non-performance of Covenants, or otherwise; And whereas the Fees and Charges taken or demanded by Sheriffs in getting an Extent or Execution, and Liberate and Possession or Seisin, executed on every such Recognizance, are very expensive, in regard the same are not settled: For Remedy in all and every the said Cases, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Prosecutor of every such Recognizance shall, at the Time of suing out the first Process, or a Writ of Extent thereon, deliver in to the Officer (who shall make out such Process or Extent) a Note in Writing under his Hand, testifying the Sum or Value of the Damages thereby intended to be extended or levied thereon, which Sum or Value the said Officer shall insert in the said Writ to be only extended or levied thereon, and no more; and that the said Poundage of one Half-penny payable on all Process as aforesaid, shall be taken and paid only for every Pound, according to the said Sum or Value so inserted, and intended to be extended or levied as aforesaid, and not otherwise.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case it shall, at any Time or Times, before or after the Filing or Returning of any Liberate or Liberates sued out on any such Extent or Extents, be made appear to the Court of Chancery, that sufficient has not been extended and levied, or sufficiently extended and levied, to satisfy such Recognizance, or that any Omission, Error or Mistake has happened in making, suing out, executing or returning any of the said Writs, or any Process thereupon; or should it happen that any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall hereafter be evicted from any Person or Persons, who shall have extended the same by Virtue of any such Writ or Process as aforesaid; that then and in every such Case the said Court of Chancery shall and may award one or more Re-extent or Re-extents for the satisfying the same as aforesaid, and that Writs of Liberate or Liberates may be sued out thereupon; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Sheriff of any County shall take for the Extent and Liberate, and Habere facias Possessionem or Seisinam, on the Real Estate, and levy on the Personal Estate, by Virtue of such Extent, any more than the same Fees as are appointed by an Act made in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better regulating the Office of Sheriffs, and for ascertaining their Fees, and the Fees for suing out their Patents and passing their Accounts, for executing a Writ of Elegit and Habere facias Possessionem or Seisinam, under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and to be in like Manner recovered against every Sheriff or Person therein offending, as the same are mentioned and appointed in and by the same Act.

VI. And whereas the Provision which by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, was made for setting down the Day of the Month and Year of signing Judgments in his Majesty's Courts of Westminster, hath proved very beneficial to Purchasers, but hath not yet been extended to the Courts of the Principality of Wales, or of the Counties Palatine: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, any Judge or Officer of any of the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales, or Courts of Session in the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, that shall sign any Judgments, shall at the signing the same, without Fee for doing the same, set down the Day of the Month and Year of his so doing, upon the Paper-Book, Docket or Record which he shall sign, which Day of the Month and Year shall be also entred upon the Margin of the Roll of the Record where the said Judgment shall be entred, and that such Judgments, as against Purchasers bona fide for valuable Consideration of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be charged thereby, shall in Consideration of Law, be Judgments only from such Times as they shall be so signed, and shall not relate to the first Day of the Session whereof they are entred, or the Day of the Return of the Original or Filing the Bail; any Law, Usage or Course of any Court to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clerk of the Recognizances to keep a Docket for Searches.

Any Loss happening to such Recognizance, shall be certified by the Clerk, or his Deputy, into Chancery.
23 H. 8. c. 6.
A Transcript of the Entry to be annexed to such Certificate;

and in case of Loss, a Copy from the Roll, signed, &c. shall be good Evidence of such Statute.

23 H. 8. c. 6.
The Prosecutor shall deliver into the Office a Note testifying the Sum intended to be extended.

One Half-penny per Pound only, to be taken as Poundage.

In what Cases the Chancery may award Re-extents.

No Sheriff shall take more Fees than are appointed by the Act

An Act for better supplying the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Parts adjacent, with Water.

I. WHEREAS by Reason of the great Increase of Buildings and Inhabitants in and about the City of Westminster, the Liberty thereof, and divers other Places in the County of Middlesex, there are greater Occasions for Water, for the Safety and necessary Uses of the said Inhabitants, than are supplied by the Water-works now in Being, and for want thereof, many great and dangerous Inconveniencies do happen, which would be remedied, and great Advantages accrue, if new Waterworks were erected in convenient Places for providing and supplying the said Inhabitants with good and wholesome Water from the River Thames, by one or more Cut or Cuts to be made at any convenient Place or Places between the Grounds belonging to the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, and the Houses or Grounds, commonly called the Neat Houses, in the County of Middlesex, into Canals and Ponds proper for receiving the same; and from thence to convey and raise such Water into convenient Reservatories, to be erected or made at any Place or Places between the Places called Oliver's Mount and Hyde Park, for the Purposes of this Act: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c.

Commissioners appointed for supplying the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Parts adjacent with Water from the Chelsea Water-works. Persons interrupting, pulling down, &c. the Waterworks, shall forfeit to the Commissioners treble Damages, &c. The Crown may by Letters Patents incorporate the Commissioners, who may purchase Lands not exceeding 1000*l.* per Annum. The Crown may likewise by Letters Patents empower them to make By-Laws, and inflict Penalties for the Breach thereof. The Commissioners may maintain and cleanse their Watercourses, make new Ponds, &c. Persons casting into the Watercourses, &c. any Filth, &c. or doing other Annoyance thereto, shall forfeit 40*s.* with double Damages and full Costs of Suit. Commissioners, before they intermeddle with any Lands, &c. shall first agree with the Proprietors. They may lay Pipes in Highways, but shall repair the same. They may lay Pipes through any Streets or common Grounds about Westminster, making good the same, and carrying away the Rubbish. At the Request of the Inhabitants the Commissioners shall set up Pipes upright in the Likeness of Pumps, for conveying Water into Fire-Engines. Locks to be fitted to such Pipes, and Churchwardens to keep the Keys. This Act shall not hinder the New River Company, &c. from enjoying all lawful Rights, &c. No Proprietors of Waterworks shall hinder, &c. the laying, &c. of the said Pipes, &c. No Shareer shall transfer his Share till Water be brought into the Reservatory intended to be made near Oliver's Mount. P R.

An Act for the better preventing Abuses committed in weighing and packing of Butter in the City of York.

I. FOrasmuch as Butter is one of the chief Commodities of the Product of several Parts of the County of York, and County of the same City, and great Quantities thereof are brought into the City of York, from thence to be transported beyond the Seas, and otherwise disposed of: And whereas there hath, Time out of Mind, been within the said City a Free Market for Butter, which for many Years last past hath been kept in Micklegate in the said City: And whereas the bringing of Butter to the said Market, where the same was searched and weighed, hath been found to be the most effectual Means of preventing the false weighing and packing of Butter, and did formerly gain a great Reputation, both at Home and Abroad, to Butter brought to the said Market; but of late Years several Farmers of Dairies, Owners, and other Traders in Butter, the better to conceal the false weighing and packing of their Butter, to be by them disposed of, have neglected to bring the same to the said Market to be searched and weighed, by Means whereof not only the Traders in the said Commodity at Home, but Foreigners also have been greatly deceived in the Weight, Goodness and Soundness thereof, and thereby the said Commodity yields not that Price, nor is sold in such Quantities, as otherwise it would be: For Remedy whereof, and for the better encouraging the said Butter-Trade, and (in order thereunto) for the better preventing the Frauds and Abuses in the weighing and packing of Butter; May it please your most excellent Majesty (at the humble Request of the Mayor and Commonalty of the said City) That it may be enacted, &c.

After March 25, 1722. Micklegate, or any other Place in York, (at the Election of the Mayor, &c.) shall every Day in the Week, except Sundays, be a Free Market for Butter. All Butter brought to York to be sold, exported, &c. shall be weighed, searched and sealed at the Market at one Half penny a Firkin, &c. Dairy-Farmer, &c. selling or transporting Butter before it be brought to the Market to be viewed, &c. shall forfeit for every Firkin, &c. 3*s.* 4*d.* One Half to the Poor, where, &c. the other to the Informer. If any Firkin, &c. of Butter, shall be faulty in Quantity or Quality, the Owner shall be liable to the Forfeitures in 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 26. Prosecution to be in four Months. The Mayor to appoint the Searcher, who shall be sworn at Easter Sessions. Persons aggrieved may appeal to Quarter-Sessions, whose Determination shall be final. This Act shall not extend to any Vessel, containing only four Pounds or under. P R.

An Act for supplying the Records of the Commissary Court of Aberdeen, burnt or lost in the late Fire there.

I. WHEREAS an accidental dreadful Fire happened within the Town of Aberdeen, on or about the thirtieth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, whereby the Office, commonly called the Commissar Clerks Office, was suddenly consumed, and at the same Time the Registers and Records therein of all Testaments and Confirmations, all Acts of Curacy, Judicial Renunciations, Ratifications, Decreates, Dispositions, Bonds, Bills, and other Writs and Evidences, together with the Principal Writings themselves, then in the said Office as the Warrants of Extracts and Precepts, were intirely burnt and destroyed, whereby many Persons are and will be in great Danger of losing their Rights, by Reason the Extracts of such Writings and Precepts as are in their Hands, will not be sufficient, as the Law now stands, to defend them against Actions of Improbation: For relieving therefore of such Persons, and for preventing any Inconveniency or Prejudice that may at any Time happen to them from such Actions of Improbation, Be it enacted, &c.

This Act is made more effectual by 9 Geo. 1. c. 25. Persons who before March 25, 1723. shall be possessed of any Extract or Precept given out of the Commissary Court of Aberdeen since October 30, 1621. and before October 30, 1721. may, before March 25, 1723. tender the same to the Clerk of the Commissariat, which shall be marked by the Commissar, who, together with his Clerk shall sign a Minute, &c. which shall be of the same Authority as the old Extracts before they were burnt. The Extracts delivered in shall remain in the Office. Extracts produced in Process shall be deemed sufficient to satisfy the Production in any Action of Improbation, &c. The Lords of Session are to find the Production satisfied in any Action of Improbation, by the deposited Extract. The Lords of Session shall make up the Tenor of such Writings, as they think sufficient Evidence that such Writings were recorded. The Clerk or his Deputy to give Notice to Persons interested in Writings so burnt. P R.

An Act for preventing Delays in the Execution of the Trust reposed in the Governors of the Hospital of King JAMES, founded in Charter-House, at the Charges of Thomas Sutton, Esquire, for the Benefit of the said Hospital.

WHEREAS the Governors of the Hospital of King JAMES, founded in Charter-House within the County of Middlesex, at the humble Petition and only Costs and Charges of Thomas Sutton, Esquire, are a Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of the Governors of the Lands, Possessions, Revenues and Goods of the Hospital of King JAMES, founded in Charter-House within the County of Middlesex, at the humble Petition and only Costs and Charges of Thomas Sutton, Esquire. And whereas the Number of the said Governors is sixteen, and consequently, whilst the said Number is full, by Law there must be nine of the said sixteen present to make any corporate Assembly, or do any corporate Act: And whereas by Reason of the great Quality and Stations of several of the Governors, and the Distance of their respective Habitations and Places of Abode, it is by Experience found difficult to get an Assembly of nine, so often as the Affairs of the said Corporation do require; and inasmuch as by Law the Consent of five is sufficient to do a corporate Act, supposing nine be present: May it therefore please your Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c.

The Acts and Deeds of any five of the Governors of the Charter-House, duly assembled there, shall be deemed the Acts and Deeds of the Corporation, as if done at a corporate Meeting by all the Governors. P R.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That such Notice so to be given or left, and the Notice which the said Speaker of the said House of Commons did, on the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, pursuant to an Order of the same House, give or leave at the said Office, for redeeming all such Annuities, purchased after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the Act first above recited, as had not been subscribed into the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company, shall, by Force and Virtue of this Act, be and be deemed, adjudged and taken to be good and sufficient Notice, within the true Intent and Meaning of the said several Acts of the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, for redeeming as well the said Annuities, amounting to ten thousand one hundred ninety-one Pounds four Shillings and three Pence per Annum, as the said Annuities amounting to one thousand five hundred seventy-three Pounds thirteen Shillings and eight Pence per Annum, at the said Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, and the same shall be redeemable accordingly; any Thing in the said Acts of the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, or either of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

6 Geo. 2. c. 33. I. WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament of the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, (for laying a Duty on wrought Plate, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned) amongſt other Things it was enacted, That the Contributors for the Purchase of the Annuities thereby directed to be ſold, ſhould, upon Payment of their whole Purchase-Money, have Orders for the Payment of their ſaid Annuities, until Redemption thereof by Parliament: And whereas by another Act of Parliament of the ſaid ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for appointing Commiſſioners to examine, ſtate and determine the Debts due to the Army, and to examine and ſtate the Demands of ſeveral foreign Princes and States, for Subſidies during the late War; and alſo in and by another Act of Parliament of the ſeventh Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for appointing Commiſſioners to examine, ſtate and determine the Debts due to the Army, amongſt other Things it was enacted, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treasury ſhould be impowered to iſſue ſtanding Orders for paying at the Receipt of the Exchequer, the Annuities for the Principal Sums contained in the Debentures by the ſaid two laſt mentioned Acts reſpectively directed to be made forth: And whereas by another Act of Parliament of the eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign (For paying off and cancelling one million of Exchequer-Bills, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned) amongſt other Things it was enacted, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treasury ſhould be impowered to iſſue ſtanding Orders for paying at the Receipt of Exchequer, the Annuities for the Principal Sums contained in the Debentures therein recited to have been made forth for the Sufferers at Nevis and Saint Chriſtophers; and by the ſaid ſeveral Acts it was enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Annuities ſhould be deemed to be perſonal Eſtates, and the reſpective Proprietors thereof ſhould have Power to aſſign or deviſe his or their Eſtate of and in any ſuch Annuity, or any Part thereof, and ſo toties quoties; and that no ſuch Aſſignment ſhould be revocable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will ſhould be made in Books kept for that Purpoſe in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, within three Months after ſuch Aſſignment or Death of the Deviſor; and that upon producing ſuch Aſſignment or Will, or Probate thereof, in the ſaid Office of Receipt to be entred as aforeſaid, the Party ſo producing the ſame, ſhould bring therewith an Affidavit, taken before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, of the due Execution of the ſaid Aſſignment or Will; which Affidavits ſhould be ſeverally filed in the ſaid Office, as by the ſaid Acts of Parliament (Relation to them reſpectively being had) more fully may appear: And whereas the Method preſcribed by the ſaid Acts for aſſigning the ſaid Annuities, and producing therewith Affidavits taken before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, of the due Execution of ſuch Aſſignments, is found to be chargeable, troubleſome and inconvenient to the Proprietors thereof; and 'tis doubted whether Aſſignments by Endorſements on ſuch Orders are good and available in Law; which has occaſioned large Diſcounts thereon, to the Prejudice of publick Credit: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the reſpective Proprietors of the ſaid ſtanding Orders, made forth or to be made forth, in Purſuance of the ſaid Acts, or any or either of them, ſhall or may from Time to Time, by proper Words of Aſſignment to be endorſed on his, her or their Order, aſſign or transfer his, her or their Right, Title, Interſt and Benefit of ſuch Order or Orders to any other Perſon or Perſons; which being notified in the Office of Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, the Officers there ſhall, without producing ſuch Affidavit as aforeſaid, cauſe an Entry or Memorial thereof to be made in the Book of Registry for ſuch Orders, without Fee or Charge; and after ſuch Entry made, ſuch Aſſignment ſhall entitle ſuch Assignee, his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Assigns to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon, and ſuch Assignee may in like Manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof; any Thing in the ſaid former Acts, or any or either of them to the contrary notwithstanding.

Assignments may be made by In-dorſement on the Order.

II. And for as much as it may happen, That several of the said Orders, which at first were made out for small Sums, may in Time come into the Hands of one and the same Person, who may be willing and desirous to have several of the said Orders for small Sums exchanged for, and turned into one or more Order or Orders for larger Sums, which may be an Ease and Convenience; not only to the Owners of such Orders for small Sums, but also to the Officers of the Exchequer; in the Payment thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, may (if he or they shall so think fit) direct the turning several Orders for small Sums of five hundred Pounds principal Money a-piece, or under, into one or more Order or Orders for larger Sums, and may cause to be made forth and signed new standing Orders accordingly, for and in Lieu of such Orders for small Sums; in which Case the said former Orders for small Sums, so to be turned into an Order or Orders for larger Sums, shall be delivered up and cancelled; and the said new Order or Orders, to be made out in Lieu thereof, shall be made payable to the Person or Persons, who shall appear to be the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Orders for small Sums so delivered up and cancelled at the Time of such Delivery up as aforesaid; And the said Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid shall constantly take Care, on the making out of such new Orders, not to mix any Order or Orders made out in Pursuance of any one of the said Acts of Parliament, with any Order or Orders made out in Pursuance of any other of the said Acts of Parliament, to prevent any Confusion in the Accounts to be kept thereof; and that such Entries and Memorandums be made upon the said new Orders, as may denote their being made out in Lieu of such Orders for small Sums delivered up and cancelled, and as may secure the Publick against any double Payment, for or by Reason of the making out or issuing such new Orders in Manner aforesaid.

Orders for small Sums may be turned into Orders for greater.

III. And whereas it may so happen in Process of Time, that several of the said standing Orders may become defaced, obliterated or incumbered with many Assignments endorsed thereon; and by Reason thereof, or some other Defects therein, it may become necessary that the said defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders should be taken in and cancelled, and new Orders made forth and delivered to the Owners and Proprietors of the Orders so to be cancelled in Lieu thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all or any of the said Cases any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, may (if he or they shall so think fit) from Time to Time cause to be made forth new standing Orders for and in Lieu of such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders, so as such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Order or Orders be at the same Time delivered up and cancelled, and the new Order or Orders to be made out in Lieu thereof, be made payable to the Person or Persons who shall appear to be the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Order or Orders so delivered up and cancelled at the Time of such Delivery up as aforesaid; and the Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid shall always take Care, that such Entries or Memorandums be made upon the said new Orders, as may denote their being made out in Lieu of such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders cancelled, and as may secure the Publick against any double Payment, for or by Reason of the making out or issuing such new Orders in Manner aforesaid.

New Orders may be made out in Lieu of such as are defaced, &c.

IV. And for the preventing all Frauds and Abuses in or about the said standing Orders, or any Assignments thereof, or the receiving the Annuities due or to grow due thereon; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the second Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly or wilfully aid and assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Order or Orders made forth or to be made forth in Pursuance of any the before-mentioned Acts, or of this present Act, or any Assignment or Assignments of such Order or Orders, or of the Annuities payable thereon, or of any Receipt or Discharge to the Exchequer for the Annuities due or to grow due on any such standing Order or Orders, or of any Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument to transfer, assign, alien or convey any such Order or Orders, or to receive the Annuities due or to grow due thereon, or any Part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly or wilfully aid or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any the Name or Names of any of the Proprietors of any such Order or Orders in or to any such pretended Assignment, Receipt, Letter of Attorney, Instrument or Authority, or shall knowingly and fraudulently demand, or endeavour to have or receive any such Annuity or Annuities, or any Part thereof, by Virtue of any such forged or counterfeited Receipt, Letter of Attorney, Instrument or Authority, or shall falsely and deceitfully personate any true and real Proprietor or Proprietors of any the said Order or Orders, and thereby assigning or endeavouring to assign any of the said Order or Orders, or receiving or endeavouring to receive the Money of such true and lawful Proprietors, as if such Offender were the true and lawful Owner thereof, then and in every or any such Case, all and every such Person and Persons (being thereof lawfully convicted in due Form of Law) shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

I. WHEREAS the City of Edinburgh, being the Metropolis and Seat of the Government of Scotland, was thereby subject to all the Alterations and Changes of the State; and whereas the said City hath, ever since the Reformation, been remarkably zealous in supporting and defending the Protestant Interest, and thereby, and by other unavoidable Occasions, was involved in very considerable Debts, far exceeding what the common Revenue of the said Town could discharge; therefore to enable them to pay off these Debts, and for other Purposes, an Act was past in the Parliament of Scotland of the thirteenth of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, giving to the said Town of Edinburgh, and Community thereof, and to the Magistrates and Town-Council of the same, and their Successors in Office, for their Use and Behoof, an Imposition of two Pennies Scots (over and above the King's annexed Excise, and additional Excise imposed in that Session of Parliament) upon the Pint of all Ale and Beer, either brewed, brought in, or vended, tapped, and sold within the said Town and Suburbs, and Liberties thereof, viz. Canon-gate, South and North Leith, Westport, Potterow and Pleasants, and the other Pertinents, to be paid to the said Town, Magistrates and Council thereof, by the Brewers, Venders, Sellers, and Tapsters of the said Ale or Beer, during the Space of fifteen Years and further, not exceeding the Space of thirty Years, commencing from the first of July one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, to be paid, uplifted, and collected weekly, monthly and quarterly, or otherwise, as the Magistrates and Town-Council should think fit to prescribe and order; excepting only from the said Act all such Ale and Beer, as should be brewed in the Country without the Liberties of the said City, by Heritors or Proprietors on their own Lands, and brought in by them (during the Time they actually inhabited in the said Town) to be consumed and made use of for their own Use, and the Use of their Families only; and also excepting all Ale and Beer vended within the Precincts of Holyrood House and Castle of Edinburgh from the said Impositions: And whereas since the Union there hath been a gradual, but very sensible Decrease and Decay of the Revenues of the said City, and that several of their publick Works, which were highly necessary to be carried on and finished for the Service of the said City, had been very much neglected, and could not be carried on without a considerable Sum of Money: And whereas the said City was so far from being able, at their own Expence, and out of their proper Revenues, to carry on and finish the same, that the Debts owing by them were considerably increased, partly occasioned by the late unnatural Rebellion; therefore by an Act of the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duty of two Pennies Scots, or one sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, on every Pint of Ale and Beer that shall be vended or sold within the City of Edinburgh, and Privileges thereof, for the Benefit of the said City; and for discontinuing the Payment of the Dues commonly called the Petty-Port Customs at Edinburgh, during the Continuance of this Act, the said Duty and Duties so imposed by the before recited Act of the Parliament of Scotland are further continued and made payable to the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the said City of Edinburgh, for the Time being, and their Successors, for the Use and Behoof of the said Town, for and during the full Term of nineteen Years, to be collected and levied in the same Manner, as the same was, by the said Act of Parliament in Scotland, limited and appointed, and the Money arising thereby was directed to be applied and disposed of to the Uses following, viz. for renewing the Water-Pipes, and helping the Conduits, which carry Water to the Town, for enlarging the Harbour and deepning the Channel of Leith, for building a new Key at Leith, for settling an annual Fund of three hundred Pounds towards employing and maintaining the Poor of Edinburgh and adjacent Counties, from and after the first of July one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, for settling a Salary on the Professor of Law in the University of Edinburgh, and his Successors in Office, not exceeding one hundred Pounds per Annum, commencing from the eleventh of November one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, for rebuilding the City-Walls, and causeing the Highways leading to the said City, for building two new Churches, and settling Stipends for the Ministers thereof, and for two French Ministers, for paying and applying four hundred and fifty-two Pounds annually, in Aid of the Deficiency of the present ordinary Revenue of the Town, and for Payment of the whole Debts of the said City, that should be due and owing on the first of July one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, other than the Debts provided for and to be discharged by the Duty arising by the Act of Parliament of Scotland, with a Power to the said Magistrates and Council of the said City, to borrow Money for the better enabling them to carry on the several Purposes in the said Act mentioned, and for securing the Repayment thereof, to assign over the said Duty or any Part thereof, for the Whole or Part of the Term by the said Act granted: And whereas the Magistrates and Council of the said City, agreeable to the said last recited Act of Parliament, have at very great Expence collected the Springs, renewed the Pipes which convey Water to the Town, rebuilt the Fountains in the High-Street, in the most approved and advantageous Manner, have begun to enlarge the Harbour of Leith, and deepen its Channel, have built six hundred Foot of a Key there, of very sufficient Workmanship, have built one of the two new Churches, have made a large Provision of Causey-Stones, and other Materials for paving their whole High-Streets and Ways leading to their City, have made a good Highway from their City to their Port of Leith, have built and repaired a large House, for accommodating the Poor to be employed in Manufacture; for performing whereof, and for Payment of the Interest of their Capital Debts due on the said first of July one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, and for satisfying the other annual Payments directed by the said last recited Act of Parliament as aforesaid, they have borrowed Money: And whereas though all the Money borrowed upon the Security of the said Grant, has been duly and regularly applied to the several Uses, Intents and Purposes in the said last recited Act mentioned and directed, yet the same, with what further the said Grant for the Term aforesaid may produce, will not be sufficient to answer the said Purposes, and enable the said Magistrates and Council to carry on and finish the said Designs to Perfection; so that unless the said Duty is further continued in order to raise more Money, great Part of what has already been laid out will be entirely lost, and the Intention of the said last recited Act in a great Measure frustrated, which would be a very great Prejudice to the whole united Kingdom: And whereas it will be greatly for the Interest of the said City and adjacent Country, that not only the several Designs already begun, be carried on and finished, but that the several other Purposes herein before mentioned, be carried on and finished, which would not only be of great Service for beautifying and for the Ornament of the said City, but will contribute much to the Preservation of the Health of the Inhabitants, and otherways be of great Advantage: And whereas it is impracticable practicable either to finish what is already begun, or carry on these other advantageous Views and Purposes now intended, but by continuing the Payment of the said Duty for a longer Term: And whereas a great many Brewers have of late retired out of the City's Liberties, and erected Breweries in the Confines thereof, in order to elude the Payment of this Duty, and to the great Prejudice of the City otherways: And whereas for the Encouragement of Breweries within the said City of Edinburgh, and preserving an Equality of Trade betwixt the Brewers in the said City and the Brewers in some of the adjacent Parishes, and to prevent Frauds by importing Ale brewed in the said adjacent Parishes without paying the said Duty, it will be necessary to extend the said Duties, and subject the several Brewers within the Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, the Canon-Gate, and South and North Leith, to the Payment of the like Duties, as the Brewers within the said City and Suburbs thereof: Wherefore your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the said City of Edinburgh, in Behalf of themselves and the Community of the said City, and the Heritors and Freeholders of the Shire of Edinburgh, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties and Impositions, as are by the said last in Part recited Act of Parliament of the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, laid, granted and imposed upon all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in, vended, tapped or sold, within the said City of Edinburgh, Suburbs and Liberties thereof, shall, from and after the Commencement of the said Term by the said Act granted, be raised, levied, collected, paid and made payable to the said Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the said City of Edinburgh for the Time being, and their Successors, for the Use and Behoof of the said Town, upon all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in for Sale, tapped or sold within all or any of the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-Gate, South and North Leith, for and during the Space and Term of nineteen Years by the said last mentioned Act granted; and that the same be levied, collected and paid, by the same Means and Methods, and by and under such Rules and Directions, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are prescribed, mentioned and expressed in the said recited Acts of Parliament, for levying, raising and paying the same within the said City of Edinburgh and Suburbs thereof, in as full and ample Manner, as if the said Parishes had been by the said Act particularly subjected to the Payment thereof.

3 Geo. 1. c. 5.

What Duties on all Ale and Beer in St. Cuthberts and Canon-Gate.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such and the like Rates, Duties and Impositions, as are by the said Act of the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, laid, granted and imposed upon all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in for Sale, vended, tapped or sold, within the said City of Edinburgh, Suburbs and Liberties thereof, shall, from and after the Expiration of the Term by the said Act granted, be further continued, raised, levied and collected, and payable to the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the said City of Edinburgh for the Time being, and their Successors, for the Use and Behoof of the said City, upon all Ale brewed, brought in, tapped or sold, within the said City of Edinburgh, the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and likewise for all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in, tapped or sold, within all or any of the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-Gate, South and North Leith, for and during the Space and Term of nineteen Years more; and that the same shall be levied and paid by the same Means and Methods, and by and under such Rules and Directions, and under the same Penalties and Forfeitures and Powers, as are prescribed, mentioned and expressed in the Acts of Parliament aforesaid; and that both the said Act made in the Parliament of Scotland, and the Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, and every Article, Rule, Clause, Matter and Thing therein contained, shall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly and at large expressed, repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, for the more effectual levying and raising Payment of the said Duty and Duties within the said City of Edinburgh and Liberties and Suburbs thereof, and within the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-Gate, South and North Leith, for and during the said new and additional Term of nineteen Years hereby granted, and to and for the several Purposes and Intents in the said Acts or either of them particularly mentioned, except in so far as is hereby altered and varied.

Such Duties payable to the Provost of Edinburgh, &c. for 19 Years. Continued by 25 Geo. 2. c. 9.

3 Geo. 1. c. 5.

Money payable by this Act, how to be applied.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That what Money shall be due and payable by Virtue of this Act, and what shall arise by the said Duty during both the said Terms of thirty-eight Years granted by this and the said former Act, shall be applied, disbursed, laid out and disposed of, to and for the several Uses, Intents and Purposes, and in such Manner as is herein after declared (the reasonable Charges expended or to be expended in or about, or by Reason of passing this Act of Parliament being first deducted) as the same shall be stated and allowed by the Overseers after named, or the Majority of them present, at one of their General Meetings under mentioned: And the said Magistrates and Council of the said City are hereby impowered and authorized to apply, lay out and dispose of the same, to and for the Intents and Purposes herein after mentioned, videlicet, for distributing the Water brought or to be brought into the said City in such Way and Manner, as may be most for the publick Use and Conveniency of the said City and the Inhabitants thereof, for supplying the Canon-Gate, South and North Leith with Water, for finishing and completing the said Harbour or Pier of Leith, for causing or laying with Free Stones (in such Places where it may be found proper and necessary) the High Streets, Areas, Courts or Squares, Lanes and By-Streets that are or shall be within the said City, with the Highways and Avenues leading to and from the same, for repairing the City Walls, for building another of the new Churches directed by the former Act to be built, for satisfying the respective annual Payments appointed by the said recited Act of Parliament of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, videlicet, for maintaining and employing the Poor, for Payment of the Ministers Stipends, for Payment of the Sum granted in Aid of the Deficiency of the Town's Revenue, for Payment of the Professor of the Civil Law his Salary, and also for and towards Payment of a Sum not exceeding the Sum of five hundred Pounds Sterling annually and every Year, to be applied by the Magistrates and Council of the the said City, for and towards the Relief of such of the poorer Sort of the Inhabitants of the said City, as are or ought to be taxed for the maintaining and paying of the Guard of the said City, at or below

of the Money arising by this Act, when to be made.

XXIV. XXV. And whereas by the said recited Act of the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, a Liberty is given to the Persons, not subjected to the Payment of this Duty, to import Ale and Beer into the City, upon Payment of the said Duty for the Ale and Beer imported only; and whereas that has been a great Discouragement to the Brewers subjected to the Payment of the said Duty, and has been the Occasion of great Frauds, and should it continue, might in great measure frustrate the good Design and Intention of this Act; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Liberty and Clause in the said Act, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, it shall not be lawful for any Brewer or Seller of Beer or Ale, who is not subjected to the Payment of this Duty or Imposition for all he shall brew, to import or sell any Beer or Ale into the said City, Suburbs, or Liberties thereof, or into the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-gate, or South and North Leith, or any Part thereof, unless he or she do previously give Notice to the Magistrates of Edinburgh, or to their Collector of the said Duty, at their Office in Edinburgh, and agree to be subjected to and charged with the Payment of this Duty, for all the Drink he or she brews, in the same Manner that Brewers, subjected by this Act to the Payment of this Duty, are made chargeable therewith; and that any Brewer or Brewers, who shall import or sell any Ale or Beer into the said City, Suburbs, or Liberties thereof, or into any Part of the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-Gate, South and North Leiths, without having given such previous Notice, and agreed as aforesaid, shall be charged with and liable in the Payment of the said Duty for all Ale and Beer brewed by him or her, during the twelve Months immediately preceding his or her committing such Offence, and in all Time coming, during the Continuance of this Act, in the same Manner that the Brewers, by this Act subjected, are made liable for the Payment of the same.

English or Foreign Ale how to be imported.

XXVI. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent or prohibit the Importation of English or Foreign Ale or Beer into the said City, Liberties, and Suburbs thereof, or into the said Parishes of Saint Cuthberts, Canon-Gate, South and North Leith, but that it shall and may be lawful to import the same into the Places aforesaid, upon Payment of the Duty at present payable for the same.

Ale, &c. for subject to Duty.

XXVII. Provided also, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to prevent or hinder any Person residing in the said City, or any other Place, subjected to the Payment of the said Duty, who is not a Brewer or Seller or Retailer of Ale or Beer, from brewing, or from importing Ale or Beer for the Use of his own Family only, but that it shall and may be lawful for such Person to brew or import Ale or Beer for the Use of his own Family only, without paying the said Duty for the same; any Thing in this Act or any other Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And whereas by the in Part recited Act of the third Year of the King it is provided, That the Magistrates and Council with the Consent of the Overseers, may borrow any Sum or Sums of Money for fulfilling the Purposes thereof, and subject the Duty aforesaid, as a Security for Payment of such Sums to be borrowed, and it being meant and intended by this Act, that Provision should be made from the Money arising from the said Duty, or Imposition hereby granted and continued, for Payment of the said City's Debts, which hath been borrowed in Pursuance of the said recited Act of the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or hath been enlisted among the Debts of the said City, with the Approbation of the Overseers, as a Charge upon the Duty thereby continued, or which may be borrowed on or before the first Day of July next, with the Approbation of the said Overseers, or which may be borrowed in Pursuance of the Powers given by this present Act: And whereas the Monies to be collected annually by the said Duty, Duty, may not raise such a Stock or Sum of Money, as may be sufficient for the speedy and effectual carrying on and finishing the Designs aforesaid, and that it therefore may be necessary after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, to borrow a Sum or Sums of Money to carry on the purposes aforesaid, but it being likewise reasonable to restrain the said Magistrates and Town Council of the said City, for the Time being, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, from borrowing very large Sums of Money, and thereby increasing too much the Capital Debts of the said City: Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Magistrates of the said City, for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds, and for securing the Repayment thereof, by any Writing under their Hands and Seals, to assign over the Duty or Imposition hereby granted and continued, to such Person or Persons who shall lend or advance the same, which said Money so borrowed shall be so applied and disposed of, as the said Duty or Imposition should have been applied and disposed of by this Act, and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

The Sum of 25,000 l. may be borrowed
upon this Duty,

XXIX. Provided always, That the said Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds shall not be borrowed all at once, but at several and different Periods and Times, and that not sooner or within less than the Space of five Years next after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and that the same be borrowed at such Times and in such Manner only, as the said Overseers shall see necessary for the better carrying on all or any of the Purposes aforesaid: And it is hereby declared, That it shall not be lawful to and for the said Magistrates and Council of the said City for the Time being, to borrow, at any Time or Times after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, so as to increase the Capital Debts of the said City, any Sum or Sums of Money exceeding the Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds as aforesaid.

but at different Times.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Money arising from the said Duty hereby granted, during the first Term of nineteen Years, shall be annually applied for Payment of the whole annual Payments hereby appointed as aforesaid, with the Interest of the said City's Capital Debt that shall be due on the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and for extinguishing of five hundred Pounds annually of the said Capital Debt, and what Overplus thereof shall remain over and above the paying of the annual Payments aforesaid, with the Interest of the said Capital Debt, and of five hundred Pounds annually towards the extinguishing of the said Capital Debt, shall be applied for the Purposes before by this Act directed; and that during the second Term of nineteen Years hereby granted, the Money arising from the said Duty shall be applied annually for paying the aforesaid annual Sums hereby appointed, with the Interest of the Remainder of the said Capital Debt, and two thousand Pounds at least annually towards extinguishing and satisfying the Remainder of the said Capital Debt, and what Overplus of the said Duty shall remain over and above satisfying the annual Payments aforesaid, with the Interest of the Remainder of the said Capital Debt, and two thousand Pounds at least annually for extinguishing the said Capital Debt, shall be applied towards the carrying on and perfecting the whole publick Works aforesaid; and that the Persons and Estates of such of the said Magistrates and Council, who shall be accessory to the increasing the said City's Capital Debt to any greater Sum than what is hereby allowed, during the said Space of thirty-eight Years, from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, shall be subject and liable to the said City in Relief of such Sums as shall be borrowed by them, more than what is hereby provided and allowed.

An Act to inflict Pains and Penalties on John Plunket.

I. WHEREAS in the Years one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, and one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, a detestable and horrid Conspiracy was formed and carried on by divers Traitors for invading your Majesty's Kingdoms with Foreign Forces, for raising an Insurrection and Rebellion against your Majesty, for seizing the Tower and City of London, and for laying violent Hands upon your Majesty's most sacred Person, and upon his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in order to subvert our present happy Establishment in Church and State, and to place a Popish Pretender on your Throne: And whereas for the better concealing and effecting the said Conspiracy, divers treasonable Correspondencies were, within the Time aforesaid, carried on by Letters written in Cyphers, Cant Words, and Fictitious Names; which Conspiracy, had not Almighty God in his great Mercy disappointed the same, would have deprived your Majesty's Kingdoms of the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, involved them in Blood and Ruin, and subjected your People to the Bondage and Oppression of Romish Superstition and Arbitrary Power: For which execrable Treason Christopher Layer hath been indicted, tried, convicted and attainted. And whereas John Plunket hath been a Principal Actor in the said horrid and detestable Conspiracy, by traiterously consulting and corresponding with divers Persons, to raise an Insurrection and Rebellion against your Majesty within this Kingdom, and to procure a Foreign Force to invade the same, with a Design to depose your Majesty, and to place the Pretender on your Throne, by traiterously corresponding with the said Pretender, and by engaging in a most execrable and villanous Design of laying violent Hands upon the sacred Person of your Majesty (whom God long preserve): Therefore to manifest our just Abhorrence of so wicked a Conspiracy, and our Zeal and tender Regard for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and for the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family, the solid Foundation of our present Happiness and future Hopes; and to the End that no Conspirator may, by any Contrivance or Practice whatsoever, escape Punishment, and that all Persons may be by the Justice of Parliament forever hereafter deterred from engaging in any traiterous Conspiracies or Attempts, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. An Act to inflict Pains and Penalties on George Kelley alias Johnson.

I. WHEREAS in the Years one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, and one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, a detestable and horrid Conspiracy was formed and carried on by divers Traitors for invading your Majesty's Kingdoms with Foreign Forces, for raising an Insurrection and Rebellion

Rebellion against your Majesty, for seizing the Tower and City of London, and for laying violent Hands upon your Majesty's most sacred Person, and upon his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in order to subvert our present happy Establishment in Church and State, and to place a Popish Pretender on your Throne: And whereas for the better concealing and effecting the said Conspiracy, divers treasonable Correspondencies were, within the Time aforesaid, carried on by Letters written in Cyphers, Cant Words and Fictitious Names; which Conspiracy, had not Almighty God in his great Mercy disappointed the same, would have deprived your Majesty's Kingdoms of the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, involved them in Blood and Ruin, and subjected your People to the Bondage and Oppression of Romish Superstition and Arbitrary Power: For which execrable Treason Christopher Layer hath been indicted, tried, convicted and attainted. And whereas George Kelley alias Johnson hath been a Principal Actor in the said horrid and detestable Conspiracy, by traiterously consulting and corresponding with divers Persons to procure a Foreign Force to invade this Kingdom, and to raise an Insurrection and Rebellion against your Majesty within the same, with Design to depose your Majesty, and place the Pretender on your Throne; for treasonable Practices in which Conspiracy the said George Kelley alias Johnson being arrested, and divers Papers then found about him seized, in Pursuance of a Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one of your Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for seizing and apprehending him the said George Kelley alias Johnson, together with his Papers, and the said George Kelley alias Johnson being in Custody of a Messenger by Virtue of the said Warrant, did by Force and Violence, with a drawn Sword, make an Assault upon and resist the said Messenger, with an Intent to destroy the said Papers, and did burn the same: Therefore to manifest our just Abhorrence of so wicked and abominable Conspiracy, and our Zeal and tender Regard for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family, the solid Foundation of our present Happiness and future Hopes; and to the End that no Conspirator may, by any Contrivance or Practice whatsoever, escape Punishment, and that all Persons may by the Justice of Parliament be for ever hereafter deterred from engaging in any traiterous Conspiracies or Attempts, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. An Act to inflict Pains and Penalties on Francis Lord Bishop of Rocheſter.

I. WHEREAS in the Years one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, and one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, a detestable and horrid Conspiracy was formed and carried on by divers Traitors for invading your Majesty's Kingdoms with Foreign Forces, for raising an Insurrection and Rebellion against your Majesty, for seizing the Tower and City of London, and for laying violent Hands upon your Majesty's most sacred Person, and upon his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in order to subvert our present happy Establishment in Church and State, by placing a Popish Pretender on your Throne: And whereas for the better concealing and effecting the said Conspiracy, divers treasonable Correspondencies were, within the Time aforesaid, carried on by Letters written in Cyphers, Cant Words, and Fictitious Names; which Conspiracy, had it not been disappointed by the Goodness of Almighty God, would have deprived your Majesty's Kingdoms of the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, involved them in Blood and Ruin, and subjected your People to the Bondage and Oppression of Romish Superstition and Arbitrary Power: For which execrable Treason Christopher Layer hath been indicted, tried, convicted and attainted. And whereas Francis Lord Bishop of Rocheſter, notwithstanding the many solemn Assurances by him given of his Faith and Allegiance to your Majesty, by taking the Oaths by Law appointed to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, which Oaths he had likewise taken at sundry Times, during the respective Reigns of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and of her late Majesty Queen ANNE; and notwithstanding he had frequently abjured the Pretender, hath, in direct Violation of his said repeated Oaths and Obligations, and to the great Scandal of Religion, and his holy Function, been deeply concerned in forming, directing and carrying on the said wicked and detestable Conspiracy, and hath been a principal Actor therein, by traiterously consulting and corresponding with divers Persons to raise an Insurrection and Rebellion against your Majesty within this Kingdom, and to procure a foreign Force to invade the same, in order to depose your Majesty, and place the Pretender on your Throne; and by traiterously corresponding with the said Pretender, and Persons employed by him, knowing them to be so employed: Therefore to manifest our just Abhorrence of so wicked and abominable a Conspiracy, and our Zeal and tender Regard for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family, the solid Foundations of our present Happiness and future Hopes; and to the End that no Conspirator may, by any subtil Contrivance or Practice whatsoever, escape Punishment, and that all others may by the Justice of Parliament be for ever hereafter deterred from engaging in any traiterous Conspiracies or Attempts, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by laying a Tax upon Papists, and for making such other Persons, as upon due Summons shall refuse or neglect to take the Oaths therein mentioned, to contribute towards the said Tax, for reimbursing to the Publick Part of the great Expences occasioned by the late Conspiracies; and for discharging the Estates of Papists from the two third Parts of the Rents and Profits thereof for one Year, and all Arrears of the same, and from such Forfeitures as are therein more particularly described.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas your Majesty in the first Year of your Reign was graciously pleased to signify, by a Message to the House of Commons then in Parliament assembled, your Royal Consent, That the two third Parts of the Rents and Profits of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Leases and Farms of all and every Person and Persons, who was, were or should be a Popish Recusant or Popish Recusants convicted, which by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm then in Force were or might be seized or taken into your Majesty's Hands for such Recusancy, might be raised, levied and applied towards your Majesty's Supply for suppressing the unnatural Rebellion then lately made: And to the said two third Parts of the said Estates, and the yearly and other Values of them, and every of them, might be better discovered, known, described and ascertained, and that the Publick might have the Benefit of your Majesty's gracious Condescension in relation to the same, by Perception of the Rents and Profits thereof, or by laying some Tax or Charge in Lieu thereof, or otherwise, as should afterwards be determined in Parliament to be reasonable, one Act was made and passed in the said first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire of the Estates of certain Traitors, and of Popish Recusants, and of Estates given to superstitious Uses, in order to raise Money out of them severally for the Use of the Publick; In Pursuance of which Act certain Commissioners therein named were appointed (amongst other Things) to enquire concerning the said Estates, and the Values of them, and the two third Parts of the same, liable to Seizure for the Use of the Publick; and particularly what Popish Recusants or Papists, or Persons educated in the Popish Religion, or whose Parents should be Papists, or who should use or profess the Popish Religion, should not take the Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration prescribed by any other Act of that Session of Parliament, within the respective Times thereby appointed, or in Default thereof should not register or procure to be registred, his, her or their Names and Estates, in the Manner and Form prescribed by such other Act within the respective Times thereby limited in that Behalf, and to do such other Matters and Things, as by the said Act first mentioned were authorized by the said Commissioners to be done and performed, by which Act all the Monies to arise to your Majesty by, for, upon or out of the several and respective Estates and Interests thereby intended to be enquired into (except as therein is excepted) are appropriated to the Use of the Publick, and should be applied thereunto by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise: And whereas in and by another Act made and passed in the said Session of Parliament, held in the said first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to register their Names and Real Estates, reciting, that the Papists within this Kingdom, notwithstanding the tender Regard that had been shewn them for many Years then last past, and their Enjoyment of the Protection and Benefit of the Government, had all, or the greatest Part of them, been concerned in stirring up and supporting the then late unnatural Rebellion, by which they had brought a vast Expence upon this Nation, and that it manifestly appeared by their Behaviour, that they take themselves to be obliged, by the Principles they profess, to be Enemies to your Majesty and the present happy Establishment, watching all Opportunities of fomenting and stirring up new Rebellions and Disturbances within this Kingdom, and of inviting Foreigners to invade it; and that it was highly reasonable that they should contribute a large Share to all such extraordinary Expences, as were or should be brought upon this Kingdom by their Treachery and Instigation; and to the End that by paying largely to the great Expences which they had brought upon this Nation, they might be deterred, if possible, from the like Offences for the Future, and that this Nation might have the Benefit of your Majesty's most gracious Condescension, in giving your Interest in the said two third Parts, by seizing the same, or by laying some Tax or Charge upon their Estates in Lieu thereof, in such Proportions, and in such Manner as should be determined to be reasonable in Parliament, It was thereby enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the last Day of Trinity-Term one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, having any Estate or Interest in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or who afterwards should have any Estate or Interest in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments in England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, who was or should be a Popish Recusant or Papist, or was or should be educated in the Popish Religion, or whose Parent or Parents, was, were or should be a Papist or Papists, or who should use or profess the Popish Religion, should, within such several and respective Times as are thereby limited, take the several Oaths, and repeat and subscribe the Declaration in the same Act prescribed, in such Court as is therein mentioned, or in Default thereof should register or cause to be registred the same, within such Time, and in such Manner and Form as are thereby directed, under the Penalties and Forfeitures therein expressed: And whereas on the nineteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, a Report, signed by seven of the said Commissioners, was presented to the then House of Commons, with an Appendix containing the Names of the Papists who had before that Time registred their Estates, and the Amount of the yearly Rents, as by them respectively set forth; which yearly Rents, so set forth for such Estates so registred, do amount in the whole to three hundred eighty-four thousand nine hundred and fifty Pounds six Shillings and six Pence three Farthings per Annum, or thereabouts, over and above large Sums arising from Time to Time, for Fines payable and paid by the Leasehold and Copyhold Tenants to such of the said Papists as have so registred their Estates; which Fines so entred by them in the said Registers, do amount to a very great Sum in the Whole, and may justly be esteemed to produce a considerable Profit Communibus Annis, and over and above the yearly Values of a great Part of their registred Estates, whereof no Values are set down by them in their said Registers, touching which yearly Values last mentioned, another Appendix or Book was, on or about the said nineteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, presented to the then House of Commons by the said Commissioners, and the same do amount to a very considerable Value in the Whole, not comprehended in the said Sum of three hundred eighty-four thousand nine hundred and fifty Pounds six Shillings and three Pence three Farthings per Annum; and it is highly probable that several Persons, who, since the making of the Act last in Part before recited, ought to have registred their Estates, have wholly neglected so to do, or have not duly and faithfully registred the same, and have been guilty of such Omissions, Frauds and Concealments, that the true Values of the Estates of Papists registred or not registred, or the two third Parts of them, or any of them, cannot as yet be ascertained: And whereas it is notorious, that since the making of the said Acts in Part before recited, the Papists and their Abettors, or many of them, have given several fresh Instances of their Readiness and Zeal in forming Plots and Conspiracies, and in fomenting and stirring up Rebellions and Disturbances for the wicked Ends and Purposes above mentioned, which Conspiracies and Disturbances have brought a further great Expence and Burthen upon your Majesty's good Subjects; and therefore it is thought reasonable, that in Satisfaction of such Share as they ought to contribute towards the extraordinary Expences brought upon this Kingdom, and in Lieu of the two third Parts of the Rents and Profits of the said Estates to grow due to your Majesty within and for one Year, commencing from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and all Arrears of the said two third Parts incurred or to be incurred before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and in Lieu of all such Penalties and Forfeitures as are hereafter in and by this Act intended to be discharged, there shall be raised, levied and collected the full Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds upon such Papists and others as are herein after described, and upon their respective Estates, in such Proportions, and in such Manner and Form as are herein after directed; and that the same shall be paid to your Majesty for the Use of the Publick: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have given and granted, and do by this present Act give and grant to your Majesty, Majesty, the Rates and Assessments herein after mentioned, and do most humbly beseech your Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c. E X P.

If the full Sum charged be duly paid it shall discharge Papists Estates from the two thirds of the Rents thereof for one Year, and from all Penalties for Recusancy, &c. Lands, &c. registred, since vested in Protestants, either by taking the Oaths, or by Death, or Aliement before 25 Dec. 1722, or vested in Infants, Commissioners to certify it into the Remembrancers Office, and that Part shall be discharged. An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Monies; and for Relief of William late Lord Widdrington; and to prevent foreign Lotteries being carried on in this Kingdom; and for ascertaining the Duties on bound Books imported; and for issuing Certificates and Debentures for Arrears due to five Regiments, to be satisfied by Annuities therein mentioned; and for discharging the Duties of Rock-Salt lost on the Rivers Weaver and Mercy; and for limiting the Times of Continuance of Commissioners for forfeited Estates in England and Scotland respectively; and for appropriating the Supplies granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament; and to rectify Misnomers and Omissions of Commissioners for the Land-Tax in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three.

I. MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas great Benefit and Advantage did accrue to England by one Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and continued by another Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King CHARLES, intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage; both which said Acts were revived by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King JAMES the Second; and were continued by an Act made in the fourth Year of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of blessed Memory; and were further continued by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King WILLIAM; and were further continued by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of blessed Memory, and then extended to Scotland; and were further continued by an Act made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, to be in Force for seven Years, from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; so that unless the said Acts be revived and continued the Encouragement given thereby will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the Future of so great a Good, as it hath for many Years last past enjoyed: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant unto your Majesty the Rates, Duties and Impositions herein after mentioned, for and during the Term and Time herein after expressed, and do humbly pray, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties and Impositions, as, by the said Act of Parliament of the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, were granted, and by the said subsequent Acts were continued for and upon the Importation of Wines, Winegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy and Strong Waters imported during the respective Terms or Times therein mentioned, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Winegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy and Strong Waters, which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain within or during the Space of seven Years, to commence from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer; and that all the said former Acts, and all other Acts of Parliament concerning Coinage, and every of them, and every Clause, Article and Sentence in them, or any of them contained, now being in Force, shall be and are, by Virtue of this Act, revived and continued, and shall be in Force, and be duly put in Execution, for and during all such Term and Time, as are before mentioned, as fully and effectually, as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any former Law, Statute, Provision, Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clause for Relief of William late Lord Widdrington.

II. And to the End the Importers of Gold and Silver into the Mints of England and Scotland respectively, may not be discouraged by any Deficiency of the Revenue by this Act settled for defraying the Coinage thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, out of the Monies arising by this Act, or out of any other the publick Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament, to cause so much Money to be applied, as shall be necessary for defraying the Expenses of the said Mints of England and Scotland respectively, by way of Imprest and upon Account for that Service, so as the same, together with the Coinage Duties arising by this Act, do not exceed in any one Year the Sum of fifteen thousand Pounds, and so as the said Monies be issued out of the Exchequer of Great Britain to the Master of the Mint in England, and the Master of the Mint in Scotland respectively, for the said Purposes.

III. And whereas all the Real and Personal Estate of William late Lord Widdrington, attainted of High Treason, was, by one or more Act or Acts of Parliament vested in Trustees, to be sold for the Use of the Publick, and by the Sale thereof, and the Rents and Profits received before the same was sold, the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds and upwards, hath been raised, and the greatest Part thereof hath been since paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer: And whereas the said William late Lord Widdrington, having for these seven Years last past been destitute of all necessary Subsistence, has contracted considerable Debts, for the Support and Maintenance of himself and his Family: Now in Compassion to the deplorable Condition of the said late Lord Widdrington and his Family, we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the full Sum of twelve thousand Pounds, out of the Money arisen or to arise at the Exchequer, from the Sale or Produce of all, every or any the Estates forfeited for Treason in the late Rebellion, which Estates by one or more Act or Acts were vested in Trustees, to be sold for the

the Use of the Publick, shall and may be taken, issued and applied, for and towards the future Support and Maintenance of the said William late Lord Widdrington and his Family, and for the Payment of his Debts, without Account, Imprest or other Charge to be set upon him for the same, or any Part thereof; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorized, impowered and directed to cause the said Sum of twelve thousand Pounds, and every or any Part thereof, to be issued and paid to the said William late Lord Widdrington or his Assigns, accordingly, without any Abatement for Fees or Charges, or other Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, any former Law or Statute to the contrary, or any Incapacity by Reason of the Attainder of the said late Lord Widdrington notwithstanding.

An Act for enabling his Majesty to put the Customs of Great Britain under the Management of one or more Commissions, and for better securing and ascertaining the Duties on Tobacco, and to prevent Frauds in exporting Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes, or carrying the same Coastwise.

I. WHEREAS by the sixth Article of the Act of Parliament for uniting the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, all Parts of the United Kingdom were for ever, from and after the Union, to be liable to the same Customs and Duties on Import and Export, and to be under the same Restrictions and Regulations of Trade: And whereas the Customs and Duties arising by the Exportation and Importation of Goods and Merchandize were put under the Direction of two distinct Commissions, one of which to have the Care and Management of the Customs and Duties arising in England, the other in Scotland, but each vested with the like Powers and Authorities: Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three the Customs and other Duties, now under the Management of the several and respective Commissioners of the Customs of England and Scotland, shall and may be put under the Management of one Commission of the Customs for the whole united Kingdom, or under the Management of several Commissions of the Customs for England and Scotland respectively, from Time to Time, as his Majesty shall judge to be most for the Advantage of Trade and Security of his Revenues; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 1 June 1723, the Customs of Great Britain may be under one or more Commissions.

The Number of Commissioners may be increased.

III. And whereas by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and by the Book of Rates thereto annexed, a Duty of one Penny per Pound (commonly called the Old Subsidy) was laid upon all Tobacco of the British Plantations imported; and by the same Act and Book of Rates an additional Duty of one Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco imported; and by another Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King JAMES the Second, a Duty or Impost of three Pence per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco imported; and by another Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, a further Subsidy of one Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco imported; and by another Act made in the second Year of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, a Duty or Subsidy of one third Part of a Penny per Pound was laid on the same Tobacco imported; all which Duties on Tobacco imported, as before-mentioned, amounting in the whole to six Pence and one third Part of a Penny per Pound Weight, are by several subsequent Acts since continued, and are now in Force: And whereas certain Abatements, Discounts and Allowances, for Waste and Damage, and other Allowances, are made to the Importer of such Tobacco out of the said Duties, which by Experience have been found prejudicial to Trade and a Loss to the Revenue: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Duties upon Tobacco imported after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, during the Continuance thereof respectively, in the Manner following; that is to say, the Importer of Tobacco of the British Plantations shall, on the Importation thereof, pay down the said Old Subsidy of one Penny per Pound, with an Allowance of twenty-five per Centum instead of the former Allowance of five per Centum; and that all the other Duties aforesaid on such Tobacco imported, amounting together to five Pence and one third of a Penny per Pound, shall be paid down, or the Importer thereof shall become bound to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with one or more sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Collector of the Port where the Tobacco shall be imported, with the Consent of the Comptroller of such Port, in one or more Bond or Bonds, at the Election of the Importer, for Payment of the respective Duties within eighteen Months, to commence at the End of thirty Days after the Master's Report of the Ship, or to commence from the Merchant's Entry of the Goods within those thirty Days, which shall first happen; and that in lieu of all former Encouragements, Allowance for Waste or Damage, or other Allowances and Discounts for prompt Payment (all which Encouragements, Allowances and Discounts are intended to be repealed and abrogated, and are, by Force and Virtue of this Act, repealed and abrogated accordingly) one Allowance of twenty-five per Centum of the said last recited Duties, amounting to five Pence and one third of a Penny per Pound as aforesaid, shall be deducted and allowed upon the Entry of the Importer, paying down the said Duties; and every Importer not paying down the said Duties shall have an Allowance only of fifteen per Centum; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for completing the Repairs of the Harbour of Dover, in the County of Kent; and for restoring the Harbour of Rye, in the County of Sussex, to its ancient Goodness.

WHEREAS the repairing and keeping clean the Harbours of this Kingdom is of great Use and Benefit to Trade and Navigation: And whereas, for repairing the Harbour of Dover, in the County of Kent, an Act was made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the Repair of Dover Harbour, whereby a Duty of three Pence per Tun was laid upon all such Ships and Vessels as are therein described, for raising the Sum of thirty thousand and one hundred Pounds; which said Duty was to commence from the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred, and to continue to the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine: And whereas the said Act was, by another Act made in the second Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, continued from the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and nine, until the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighteen; and the said two Acts are, by another Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, further continued from the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, until the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven: And whereas it is found, that the said Sum of thirty thousand and one hundred Pounds is not sufficient for the Purposes of the said Acts (several Breaches, and other unforeseen Accidents, having happened by Storms, and the Rage of the Sea, and extraordinary Works having been found necessary to be done for securing the said Harbour) so that, unless a further Sum be raised, the said Harbour cannot be effectually repaired and secured, according to the Intent of the said Acts, but the useful Works, already begun and carried on for the Benefit of the Publick, will be wholly lost, and the said Harbour again fall to Decay, and the Town itself be in Danger of being utterly lost and destroyed: And whereas the ancient Harbour of Rye in the County of Sussex, formerly of great Use and Benefit to Trade and Navigation, is at present choked up, and almost ruined by the shifting of the Beach without, and settling of the Sullage within, and by stopping the Flux of the Tide, so that, for preventing the utter Loss of the said Harbour, it is necessary to open the same, and to let the Tide have free Course through certain Sluices near to the said Harbour, called Scotch Flatt and Craven Sluices, in the present Channels to the drowned Lands between Blackwall and Maytham, in the said Counties of Kent and Sussex, or into such other Cut or Channel, as shall be found most proper and expedient to restore the said Harbour: To the End therefore that the said Works at Dover Harbour may be completed and finished, and the same Harbour be effectually repaired and secured; and to the End the said Harbour of Rye may be repaired and restored to its ancient Goodness, and secured for the Benefit of Trade and Navigation; May it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

I. MAY it please your most excellent Majesty, Whereas in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds for publick Services, by Sale of Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and to authorize a Treaty concerning private Rights claimed by the Proprietors of the Sugar-Houses in Scotland, a certain yearly Sum of forty-five thousand five hundred Pounds was established to be a distinct and separate yearly Fund for answering and paying certain Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, which were then to be purchased upon the same Act, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament; and the said yearly Fund was thereby directed to be issued at the Exchequer to the first and Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for Payment of the said Annuities, which were to be purchased upon that Act; and it was thereby enacted, That the Monies which should be contributed on the same Act for or towards the Sum of nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds therein mentioned, should be deemed to be a Capital or Joint Stock on which such Annuities should be attending; and the same Joint Stock, and the proportional Annuities attending the same, were thereby made transferrable and deviseable in the Manner thereby prescribed; and in the said Act is contained a Proviso, That at any Time upon one Year's Notice, and Repayment by Parliament, of the said Sum of nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, or so much thereof, as should be advanced upon the said Act, unto the respective Contributors of the same, or to such Person or Persons as by, from or under them, should then be entitled to the said Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, in respect of the Money so advanced, according to such Interests as they respectively should then have in the same Annuities, and also upon full Payment and Satisfaction of all Arrears of the said Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum (if any such shall be then due) then, and not till then, the said Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum created by that Act, should cease and determine: And whereas the Contributions on the said Act did amount to the said full Sum of nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, and the Annuities, which became payable in respect of the same, did amount to the yearly Sum of forty-five thousand five hundred Pounds: And whereas, since the making of the said Act, as much of the said Capital Stock as amounted to seven hundred and six thousand one hundred seventy-five Pounds and fifteen Shillings, and as many of the said Annuities attending the same, as amounted to thirty-five thousand three hundred and eight Pounds fifteen Shillings and nine Pence per Annum, have been subscribed into the Capital Stock and yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, and as much of the said Capital Stock, created by the Act in Part before recited, as amounts to two hundred and three thousand eight hundred twenty-four Pounds and five Shillings, and as many of the said Annuities as amount to ten thousand one hundred ninety-one Pounds four Shillings and three Pence per Annum, in respect thereof, do still remain transferrable at the Bank, or deviseable as aforesaid, and are payable by the Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being: And whereas in and by certain Clauses contained in another Act of Parliament made and passed in the said first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock and yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, and for supplying thereby eight hundred and twenty-two thousand thirty-two Pounds four Shillings and eight Pence to publick Uses; and for raising one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds for the like Uses, by Sale of Annuities upon divers Encouragements therein mentioned; and for appropriating several Supplies granted to his Majesty, for Encouragement of such Persons and Corporations as would advance for the Service of the Publick, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the further Sum of one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds, a certain yearly Sum of eight thousand four hundred and fifty Pounds was established to be a distinct or separate Fund for answering and paying Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds 1 Geo. 1. Pounds per Centum per Annum, which were thereby to be purchased, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament; and the said yearly Sum or Fund of eight thousand four hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum was thereby directed to be issued at the Exchequer to the first and Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, for Payment of the said Annuities, not exceeding eight thousand four hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum; and it was thereby enacted, That the Monies, which should be so contributed or advanced for or towards the said Sum, not exceeding one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds, should be a Capital or Joint Stock on which the Annuities last mentioned should be attending, and the same Joint Stock, and the proportional Annuities attending the same, were thereby made transferrable and deviseable in the Manner thereby prescribed: And in the Act last mentioned there is contained a Proviso, That at any Time upon one Year's Notice, and Repayment by Parliament of the said Sum of one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as should be advanced on the Act last mentioned, unto the respective Contributors of the same, or to such Person or Persons as by, from or under them, should be then intitled to the same Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, in respect of the Monies so advanced according to such Interests as they respectively should then have in the same Annuities, and also upon full Payment and Satisfaction of all Arrears of the same Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum (if any should be then due) then, and not till then, the said last mentioned Annuities, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, should also cease and determine: And whereas the Contributions upon the Clauses in the Act last mentioned for such Annuities as aforesaid, did amount to the said whole Sum of one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds, and the Annuities, which were payable in respect of the same, did amount to the said yearly Sum of eight thousand four hundred and fifty Pounds; and, since the making of the Act last in Part before recited, as much of the said Capital Stock last mentioned, as amounted to one hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred twenty-six Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence, and as many of the same Annuities attending the same Stock, as amounted to six thousand eight hundred seventy-six Pounds six Shillings and four Pence per Annum, have been subscribed into the Capital Stock and Fund of the South-Sea Company, and as much of the said Capital Stock of one hundred sixty-nine thousand Pounds, as amounts to thirty-one thousand four hundred seventy-three Pounds thirteen Shillings and four Pence, and as many of the said Annuities attending the same, as amount to one thousand five hundred seventy-three Pounds thirteen Shillings and eight Pence per Annum, still remain transferrable at the Bank, and deviseable as aforesaid, and payable by the said Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being; an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, amongst other Things for laying additional Duties upon Hides and Skins, Vellom and Parchment, and new Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, Gilt and Silver Wire, several new Rates and Duties upon all Coffee and Tea, which should be imported or brought into Great Britain, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the seventeenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, over and above all other Customs, Subsidies and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same; that is to say, For all Coffee imported as aforesaid, twelve Pence for every Pound Weight Averdupois, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity: For all Kinds of Tea imported from any Place or Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the East-India Company, two Shillings for every such Pound Weight; and for all Kinds of Tea imported from any other Place or Places, five Shillings for every such Pound Weight, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities of Tea. And whereas by an Act made in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, amongst other Things, for redeeming the Duties and Revenues which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on four Lottery-Acts passed in the ninth and tenth Years of her said late Majesty's Reign, the said last mentioned Rates and Duties upon Coffee and Tea are continued and made payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in the same Act prescribed and directed, subject to such Provisoos and Powers of Redemption, as are in and by the same Act contained and prescribed of and concerning the same, as by the said several Acts, Relation being had to them respectively, more at large may appear. And whereas the Duties now subsisting upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste are or may be very much lessened, not only by the clandestine Importation thereof from Parts beyond the Seas, but also by the fraudulent Relanding of the same after the same have been exported from this Kingdom for foreign Parts, and the Duties thereupon drawn back, without paying any Duties for the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts relating to the said Duties, and to the Ruin of the fair Traders in the said Commodities: For Remedy whereof, and for the more effectual securing a Revenue to your Majesty, to arise by the said Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four the several Duties upon Coffee and Tea granted (by the said Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and by the said Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, and by the said Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE) for several Terms of Years in the said respective Acts mentioned, and which have been since continued by several Acts of Parliament and made perpetual (subject to Redemption by Parliament as aforesaid,) and the several Duties upon Cocoa Nuts, granted (by the said Act of the sixth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, and by the said Act of the third Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE) for several Terms of Years in the same respective Acts mentioned, and which have been since continued by several Acts of Parliament and made perpetual (subject to Redemption by Parliament as aforesaid) shall cease, determine and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the before-mentioned Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four no Chocolate ready made or Cocoa Paste shall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any Part or Parts beyond the Seas, upon Pain of forfeiting all such Chocolate ready made and Cocoa Paste, which shall be so brought in contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with double the Value thereof, and the Bags, Casks, Boxes and other Package wherein the same shall be contained.

III. And to the Intent that no Failure or Deficiency may accrue or happen in the respective Funds to which the Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste, by this Act determined, were appropriated and applicable, by the Determination of the aforesaid Duties, and by the Prohibition of the Importation of Chocolate ready made and Cocoa Paste; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, in lieu thereof, the respective Inland Duties herein after mentioned, be by this Act charged and imposed upon all Coffee and Tea from thenceforth to be sold in Great Britain, and upon all Chocolate from thenceforth to be made or sold in Great Britain, to be paid in Manner herein after mentioned; that is to say,

IV. Upon all Coffee so to be sold in Great Britain, a Duty after the Rate of two Shillings per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties, which shall then remain payable to his Majesty for the same upon the Importation thereof:

V. Upon all Tea so to be sold in Great Britain, a Duty after the Rate of four Shillings per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties, which shall then remain payable to his Majesty for the same upon the Importation thereof.

VI. And upon all Chocolate so to be made or sold in Great Britain, a Duty after the Rate of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the respective Makers or Sellers thereof.

VII. And for the better ascertaining, charging, collecting, levying, raising and securing the several Rates and Duties by this Act imposed upon all Coffee and Tea, which shall be sold to be consumed in Great Britain, and upon all Chocolate which shall be made or sold in Great Britain from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, and for preventing Frauds concerning the same: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Commissioners or Persons as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any three or more of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, shall from Time to Time, by one or more Commission or Commissions for that Purpose appoint, shall be his Majesty's Commissioners

Such Commissioners to appoint Officers.

The Money arising by the said Inland Duties (deducting the Charges) to be paid into the Exchequer.

VIII.
